Georgia Historic Homes And Sites Cookbook:

Georgia Historic Homes and Sites Cookbook ,1981 Georgia's Historical Recipes Valerie J. Frey,2025-05 Georgia's Historical Recipes is an exploration of our state's oldest recipes from the antebellum period through World War II as painstakingly researched by Georgia archivist Valerie J. Frey. This volume begins with a discussion of old recipes as primary sources and what they can tell us about the history and culture of their era and how to bring them to life in modern kitchens. Frey then moves into fifty sections that can be read alone yet allow readers to build an understanding of how foodways evolved over time. Some sections highlight a single recipe illustrating how changes in technology, agriculture, transportation, communication, and social patterns led to changes in Georgia kitchens. Most of the recipes are previously unpublished, waiting in archives to be rediscovered. Other sections explore our oldest cookbooks, offering biographical and cultural background information that makes them more meaningful. For the first time, Georgians have a list of the state's early cookbooks and its cooking experts. Readers will learn where to find Georgia's oldest recipes and discover many examples to whet their appetites, literally and figuratively, for a taste of Georgia's past. House-Keeping in the Sunny South Ella Ruth Tennent,2025-05-01

With its roots in the meetings of the Phoenix Agricultural Club of Marietta, Georgia, Ella Ruth Tennent's House-Keeping in the Sunny South offers nearly eight hundred food recipes, over seventy formulas for household compounds or medicines, and eight essays on managing various rooms of the house. More than just a cookbook, this 1885 publication illuminates home life in Marietta, the Atlanta area, and greater Georgia in the last quarter of the nineteenth century. The day-to-day details of the writing in this volume tell a larger story. When the preface states that the recipes are inexpensive to meet the pressure of the times, for example, it is hinting at the fact that the nation and the South, especially, were still recovering from an economic depression. Yet the cookbook also reveals a changing South. It is peppered with recipes from hotels and restaurants, claims contributors from twenty-two states, and calls for newly available commercial ingredients as well as exotic ones that demanded at the time, global shipping networks. And the presence of chilled dishes between these covers also reveals how prevalent, affordable, year-round kitchen ice was becoming. But this remains a culinary guide from a time and place poised at the cusp of transition. It includes instructions for extracting the jelly from a calf's foot, for example, alongside gelatin recipes dependent on store-bought thickener. House-Keeping in the Sunny South was intended for Georgia's rapidly changing kitchens, but there is much for modern audiences to learn and taste from these pages. Smokehouse Ham, Spoon Bread & Scuppernong Wine Joseph Dabney,2010-05-01 Winner of the James Beard Cookbook of the Year award, Smokehouse Ham, Spoon Bread, Scuppernong Wine combines delicious recipes of Appalachian cuisine with the folklore surrounding the area's pioneer and present-day homesteaders. A modern-day classic, Smokehouse Ham, Spoon Bread, Scuppernong Wine serves up scrumptious Blue Ridge hill country food and folklore in celebration of the fine people, rich traditions, and natural beauty found in one of the South's most treasured regions. Each page is packed with engaging stories on moonshine and bourbon.
