The Cult of the Mother of God in Byzantium Leslie Brubaker, Mary B. Cunningham, 2016-12-05 This volume on the cult of the Theotokos Virgin Mary in Byzantium focuses on textual and historical aspects of the subject thus complementing previous work which has centred more on the cult of images of the Mother of God The papers presented here by an international team of scholars consider the development and transformation of the cult from approximately the fourth through the twelfth centuries The volume opens with discussion of the origins of the cult and its Near Eastern manifestations including the archaeological site of the Kathisma church in Palestine which represents the earliest Marian shrine in the Holy Land and Syriac poetic treatment of the Virgin The principal focus however is on the 8th and 9th centuries in Byzantium as a critical period when Christian attitudes toward the Virgin and her veneration were transformed The book re examines the relationship between icons relics and the Virgin asking whether increasing devotion to these holy objects or figures was related in any way Some contributions consider the location of relics and later icons in Constantinople and other centres of Marian devotion others explore gender issues such as the significance of the Virgin's feminine qualities and whether women and men identified with her equally as a holy figure The aim of this volume is to build on recent work on the cult of the Virgin Mary in Byzantium and to explore areas that have not yet been studied The rationale is critical and historical using literary artistic and archaeological sources to evaluate her role in the development of the Byzantine understanding of the ways in which God interacts with creation by means of icons relics and the Theotokos

Between Islam and Byzantium Lynn Jones, 2017-03-02 Between Islam and Byzantium provides the first complete analysis of the development of the visual expression of medieval Armenian rulership during the years 884 1045 CE During this period the Armenian rulers had loosened the ties that subjected them to the Arab caliphate but by its end the Byzantine empire had instead become dominant in the region The influences exerted by these external opposing powers are a major theme in this book Lynn Jones re contextualizes the existing royal art and architecture by integrating analyses of contemporary accounts of ceremonial and royal deeds with fresh examinations of the surviving monuments of which the church at Aght amar with its famous carvings is the prime example Setting the art and architecture of the period more clearly in its original context the author reveals the messages these buildings sculptures and manuscripts were intended to convey by those who created and viewed them This study provides a new perspective on the complex interactions between a broad range of nationalities ethnicities and religions shedding fresh light on the nature of medieval identity It adds to a growing literature on the eastern neighbours of Byzantium and opens up new issues on the relationship between the Byzantine empire and the Islamic caliphate in the medieval period The Portrait in Byzantine Illuminated Manuscripts Iohannis
