Preparing Participants for Intergenerational Interaction Melissa Hawkins, Kenneth Backman, Francis A McGuire, 2013-04-03 Preparing Participants for Intergenerational Interaction Training for Success examines established intergenerational programs and provides the training methods necessary for activity directors or practitioners to start a similar program. This book contains exercises that will help you train colleagues and volunteers for these specific programs and includes criteria for activity evaluations. Preparing Participants for Intergenerational Interaction will help you implement programs that enable older adults to build friendships, pass down their skills and knowledge to adolescents and provide youths with positive role models. Discussing the factors that often limit the interaction of older adults with youths, this text stresses the importance of conveying information and history to younger generations. You will learn why the exchange between different generations is crucial to society and to the improvement of the community in which you live. Preparing Participants for Intergenerational Interaction provides you with proven suggestions and methods that will make your program successful, including examining Howe To Industries, a program that teaches entrepreneurial skills to youths through older adults, focusing on activities between older adults and youths that address aging sensitivity and racial and ethnic understanding, defining the roles of a mentor, including teacher, trainer, developer of talent, and counselor, increasing support and understanding in your community by defining target markets and selling the project to the public, describing the aspects of group dynamics and how group decisionmaking methods are used to assess the success of the program and its volunteers, understanding the community where participants live in order to address issues important to them such as poverty and other social problems. Containing sample handouts, self evaluations, and detailed lessons for different types of programs, this book offers you guidelines that apply to participants that have a variety of needs within different communities. Preparing Participants for Intergenerational Interaction Training for Success will enable you to help older adults remain an active and essential part of these communities by teaching youths valuable life skills they may not receive from anyone else.

If you are a specialist or student in education, an adult learning practitioner, training manager, or involved in human resource development, this is the definitive book in adult learning you shouldn't be without. The Adult Learner Malcolm Shepherd Knowles, 2011. How do you tailor education to the learning needs of adults? Do they learn differently from children? How does their life experience inform their learning processes? These were the questions at the heart of Malcolm Knowles' pioneering theory of andragogy, which transformed education theory in the 1970s. Gerontological Nursing Kristen L. Mauk, 2013-03-15. Important Notice: The digital edition of this book is missing some of the images or content found in the physical edition. Gerontological Nursing: Competencies for Care, Second Edition is a comprehensive and student-accessible text that offers a holistic and interdisciplinary approach to caring for the elderly. The framework for the text is built around the Core Competencies set forth by the American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN) and the John A. Hartford Foundation Institute for Geriatric Nursing. Building upon their knowledge in prior medical/surgical courses, this text gives students the skills and theory needed to provide outstanding care for the growing elderly population. This innovative text is the first of its kind to have over 40 contributing authors from many different disciplines. Some of the key features of the text include chapter outlines, learning objectives, discussion questions, personal reflection boxes, case studies, and more. New Trends in Foreign Language Teaching Raúl Ruiz Cecilia, António Lopes, 2019-01-15. Language teaching approaches, methods, and procedures are constantly undergoing reassessment. New ideas keep emerging as the growing complexity of the means of communication and the opportunities created by technology put language skills to new uses. In addition, the political, social, and economic impact of globalisation, the new demands of the labour market that result from it, the pursuit of competitiveness, the challenges of intercultural communication, and the diversification of culture have opened new perspectives on the central role that foreign languages have come to play in the development of contemporary societies. This book provides an insight into the latest developments in the field and discusses the new trends in foreign language teaching in four major areas: namely, methods and approaches, teacher training, innovation in the classroom, and evaluation and assessment. The Bloomsbury Handbook of Prison Education Erin S. Corbett, 2024-10-03. Finalist PROSE Awards 2025. Education Theory and Practice. Written by activists and scholars based in Australia, Kenya, Pakistan, New Zealand, South Africa, Uganda, and the USA, The Bloomsbury Handbook of Prison Education offers the first global state-of-the-field overview of research into educational practices and programs in prisons. It covers the history of the field and puts forward future directions for research. The range of topics covered includes discussions of how gender, race, sexuality, indigeneity, age, and faith impact incarceration rates around the world; educational leadership; STEM education; creative writing programs; distance learning; abolition education; after prison; and education for correctional staff. The book includes a Foreword by Donald Sawyer III, Vice President of Diversity, Inclusion, and Belonging at Fairfield University, USA.
