Gerald Durrell The Authorized Biography:

Gerald Durrell Douglas Botting, 1999 Biography of the world famous naturalist popular author zookeeper who wrote in all some 37 books He paved the way in print for the popular presentation of the natural world on television presented 12 series himself the early ones of his own expeditions The Natural History of the Rich: A Field Guide Richard Conniff, 2003-10-17 A tantalizing droll study of the idiosyncratic existence of the very rich through the unexpected lens of the naturalist Journalist Richard Conniff probes the age old question Are the rich different from you and me and finds that they are indeed a completely different animal He observes with great humor this socially unique species revealing their strategies for ensuring dominance and submission their flourishes of display behavior the intricate dynamics of their pecking order as well as their unorthodox mating practices Through comparisons to other equally exotic animals Conniff uncovers surprising commonalities Autobiography of a Naturalist and Environmentalist R. B. Eltringham, S. K. Eltringham, 2012-04-17 This book is an autobiography based on Keith's memoirs which he wrote shortly before he died in 2006 not for publication but for his descendants who might be interested in how he spent his life He didn't think there would be wide interest but this was far from true and in fact he wrote a most interesting story of his life especially in Africa where he lived with his family for several years Keith was born in 1929 in rural Canada on the prairies of Alberta He was always passionate about animals and wanted nothing else than a life involving animals and this was something that he achieved He went to school in Bristol and was educated at Southampton University and Cambridge where he taught for several years He had a wide knowledge of the animal world and was very knowledgeable about every animal that he met He acquired an encyclopedic knowledge of the animal world and he wanted nothing more than to learn all he could about animals and to this end as a youngster he established a so called zoo in the garden Our mother was not too happy when he introduced ants to what he called Ant Island which was an upturned dust bin lid Convergences Dr. Nabil M. Abdel-Al, 2017-05-25 This anthology is an amalgam of the author's output in the domains of interpretation translation and literary scholarship It is a serious attempt to highlight the cardinal traits common to said fields This research is a vested trek into the inner workings of the author's profession interpretation and translation as well as his standing engagement with literary genres throughout the ages The book's uniqueness resides in treating a diversity of matters interrelated in various ways although on the surface it appears to make up a queer admixture of dissimilar elements hence the title Convergences Interpretation and translation are twin vocations and between them convergence is all encompassing Both transform a message from a source to a target language Complementary and mutually supportive as they are yet there is a train of difference in the execution of these two inseparable professions the method nature and techniques involved in each Interpretation is the instantaneous the simultaneous in a word the express mode of communication and translation is the meditative the slow or the local medium of correspondence Concomitantly literature is the crucible for teleologically permeable convergences and incredible divergences It has a noble ontological message and brings out humanity's hidden treasures experiences thoughts and choices Literatures lofty mission is grounded in understanding the scenes events and characters it depicts excerpts of which feed into discourses to be interpreted and translated Clients come up with multiple interpretations depending on circumstances and the context in which texts are couched

Good Lives Samuel Clark, 2021 Samuel Clark explores how we can learn about ourselves by reading thinking through and arguing about autobiography He defends a self realization account of the self and the good life and argues that self narration plays less role in our lives than some thinkers have supposed and the development and expression of potential much more

The Durrells Richard Bradford, 2025-06-05 A variously tragic tale of escapism and assimilation Richard Bradford's The Durrells explores the truth behind the image The Durrells are probably the most celebrated literary family of the 20th century Gerald turned them into celebrities with his tripartite memoir beginning with My Family and Other Animals 1956 which told of his experiences with his widowed mother Louisa and three siblings during their time in 1930s Corfu We know of the Durrells from their own writings and from the image of them created by TV film and biographical accounts of specific figures What we do not know is the truth Using previously unpublished material from the Jersey Archive Richard Bradford unravels the lives of the famous four children of the Corfu era Larry Gerry Margo and Lesli as they find themselves geographically and emotionally divided amongst a backdrop of imperial decline and unrest The children of moneyed colonialists they were already used to being treated with aghast fascination by the island's locals and by expatriate Britons as a disgrace to the homeland Yet their story goes beyond the Ionian Sea and The Durrells delves into the complex social and political circumstances in which the family lived with seemingly constant threats of war and endangerment to both themselves and their natural environment

Introduction to Conservation Genetics Richard Frankham, Jonathan D. Ballou, David Anthony Briscoe, 2010 This impressive author team brings the wealth of advances in conservation genetics into the new edition of this introductory text including new chapters on population genomics and genetic issues in introduced and invasive species They continue the strong learning features for students main points in the margin chapter summaries vital support with the mathematics and further reading and now guide the reader to software and databases Many new references reflect the expansion of this field With examples from mammals birds reptiles fish amphibians plants and invertebrates this is an ideal introduction to conservation genetics for a broad audience The text tackles the quantitative aspects of conservation genetics and has a host of pedagogy to support students learning the numerical side of the subject Combined with being up to date its user friendly writing style and first class illustration programme forms a robust teaching package

The Extraordinary Life and Times of the Otherwise Unremarkable Andrew G Sam Simmonds, 2023-10-26 In this memoir the life of a man who has lived a varied and fascinating life is recounted From his early school days to his time as a National Service Signaller in the Royal Navy and from his work as an actor and director to his self employment as a consultant in the entertainment industry the reader is taken on a journey of how he coped with his struggles successes and failures Through his encounters with triumph and disaster he shares his unique perspective on life as well as his experiences with some of the most celebrated wheeler dealers in Saudi Arabia This memoir recounts his remarkable journey with honesty and candour and offers a glimpse into the life of a man whose impact on the world may have been greater than anyone ever imagined Biography ,2000 Longman English Supplementary 5 ,

The Autobiography of Liza Goddard Liza Goddard,2011-05-12 Liza Goddard is one of the country s best loved and hardest working actresses but few people know the real woman behind the dizzy blonde image In this much anticipated autobiography Liza talks about her work her loves and the real life dramas that have shaped her as a woman and an actress The book charts her early life in England and follows her to Australia where her beloved father played a key role in helping to set up the country s fledgling television industry As a young actress Liza was cast in the long running children s drama series Skippy the Bush Kangaroo She later returned to England where she appeared in a host of classic TV series including Pig In The Middle The Brothers Bergerac Dr Who and Midsomer Murders Liza talks about her working relationship with Alan Ayckbourn and explains how a planned move to America failed to materialise Find out how Liza got together with her first husband actor Colin Baker on the set of The Brothers why her marriage to 70s rocker Alvin Stardust failed and how she eventually found true love with producer David Cobham Liza also reveals the truth about her alleged affair with Bergerac star John Nettles and reveals how she successfully sued a tabloid newspaper over the allegations She describes her courageous battle against breast cancer and reveals how beating the disease has given her a new perspective on life Liza explains why animals continue to play an important part in her life and recounts some hilarious stories about the assortment of creatures that have featured in her life A warts and all account from one of Britain s most popular actresses Working With Children And Animals will have you laughing and crying in equal measure Against Extinction William Mark Adams,2013 Conservation in the 21st century needs to be different and this book is a good indicator of why Bulletin of British Ecological Society Against Extinction tells the history of wildlife conservation from its roots in the 19th century through the foundation of the Society for the Preservation of the Wild Fauna of the Empire in London in 1903 to the huge and diverse international movement of the present day It vividly portrays conservation s legacy of big game hunting the battles for the establishment of national parks the global importance of species conservation and debates over the sustainable use of and trade in wildlife Bill Adams addresses the big questions and ideas that have driven conservation for the last 100 years How can the diversity of life be maintained as human demands on the Earth expand seemingly without limit How can preservation be reconciled with human rights and the development needs of the poor Is conservation something that can be imposed by a knowledgeable elite or is it something that should emerge naturally from people s free choices These have never been easy questions and they are as important in the 21st century as at any time in the past The author takes us on a lively historical journey in search of the answers With SOE in Greece Tom Evans,2018-04-30 Pat Evans parachuted into German occupied Northern

Greece in September 1943 His mission as a SOE operative was to support the Greek resistance movement carry out sabotage and commando operations and gather military intelligence By this time Greece was not only a country ravaged by a brutal occupation but being torn apart by fending political factions on the edge of civil war Evans had to walk a tight rope between the Germans the Communist directed ELAS Macedonia irredentists and his own SOE masters in Cairo and Allied High Command After the Nazis withdrew in late 1944 he was sent to Northern Greece to try and restore some form of normality amid the chaos of civil war His success can be measured by the warmth in which the locals still remember him over 70 years on This book draws on a wide range of sources including SOE and War Cabinet papers but it is Pat Evans unpublished letters and reports that give the reader an insight into the challenge that he faced both operationally and politically The result is a thrilling and informative book

A Smile in His Mind's Eye Ray Morrison, 2005-01-01 Durrell's best known work fused Western notions of time and space with Eastern metaphysics Very little has been written about Durrell's work before the Second World War With A Smile in His Mind's Eye Ray Morrison seeks to redress this neglect

The Many Worlds of Anglophone Literature Silvia Anastasijevic, Magdalena Pfalzgraf, Hanna Teichler, 2024-01-11 On what terms and concepts can we ground the comparative study of Anglophone literatures and cultures around the world today What if anything unites the novels of Witi Ihimaera the speculative fiction of Nnedi Okorafor the life writings by Stuart Hall and the emerging Anglophone Arab literature by writers like Omar Robert Hamilton This volume explores the globality of Anglophone fiction both as a conceptual framing and as a literary imaginary It highlights the diversity of lives and worlds represented in Anglophone writing as well as the diverse imaginations of transnational connections articulated in it Featuring a variety of internationally renowned scholars this book thinks through Anglophone literature not as a problematic legacy of colonial rule or as exoticizing commodity in a global literary marketplace but examines it as an inherently transcultural literary medium Contributors provide new insights into how it facilitates the articulation of divergent experiences of modernity and the critique of hierarchies and inequalities within among and beyond post colonial societies

Hitler's Bastard Eric Pleasants, 2012-01-27 Of all the extraordinary individual accounts that have come out of the Second World War and its aftermath few can compare with that of Eric Pleasants a member of the bastard British wing of Hitler's SS the British Free Corps In this compelling autobiography Pleasants writes of the bizarre and traumatic years he spent as a prisoner of the twentieth century's most notorious dictators A life long pacifist Pleasants spent the early years of the war on occupied Jersey He was imprisoned by the Nazis for petty crimes and the years that followed held a whirlwind of unexpected turns He lived life on the run in occupied Paris was captured and recruited into the British Free Corps of the Waffen SS found love with a young German woman witnessed the bombing of Dresden and attempted to escape from Soviet troops along the sewers of Berlin When the war ended Pleasants found himself on the Communist side of the Iron Curtain By now a strong man in a travelling circus he was arrested by the KGB on charges of espionage and sentenced to 25 years slave labour in the notorious camps of Arctic Russia Only with Stalin's death in 1953 was Pleasants finally released from his unique kind of purgatory after nearly half a lifetime of peripatetic nightmare He died in 1998 at the age of 87 Hitler's Bastard remains a remarkable testimony to his imperishable will to survive

Zoos and Tourism Warwick Frost, 2011 Zoos are important and popular tourist attractions Spread around the world they are typically located in major cities with visitation levels comparable to other major attractions Nature based attractions constructed in artificial settings they face the challenge of trying to balance potentially conflicting aims of conservation education and entertainment The best are continually developing fresh and effective techniques on visitor interpretation and management the worst highlight the manipulation of animals for human gratification Taking a global approach this book examines the problems and paradoxes of zoos as they try to balance their roles as visitor attractions while repositioning themselves as leading conservation agencies This book provides a detailed and critical examination of the conflicting roles and identities of the modern zoo from a tourism perspective and as such reminds us that zoos are as much about the people who visit them as about the animals that they display At a time when they are under continual critical scrutiny this book delivers a fresh approach to our understanding and appreciation of zoos and of the challenges and opportunities that they face as they strive to remain relevant within modern society Andrew Tribe University of Queensland Australia

The Quality of Life Richard Pine, 2021-06-09 These essays represent a selection of 40 years commentary on the political dimensions of cultural life They address the entire spectrum of culture from theories of international communication to the provision of cultural and leisure facilities at local level As a former consultant to the Council of Europe the author has developed a penetrating insight into the decision making process between local authorities and citizens groups which is discussed in two seminal papers from the 1980s which pioneered the concept of Cultural Democracy In addition the book's close readings of novels and plays by Irish and Greek writers explore the way that all writing and forms of self expression have a political message and repercussions

The Channel Islands Book of Days Mark Brocklesby, 2013-08-01 Taking you through the year day by day The Channel Islands Book of Days contains quirky eccentric amusing and important events and facts from different periods in the history of the islands Ideal for dipping into this addictive little book will keep you entertained and informed Featuring hundreds of snippets of information gleaned from the vaults of the Channel Islands' archives and covering the social criminal political religious industrial and sporting history of the region it will delight residents and visitors alike

Modern British Nature Writing, 1789-2020 Will Abberley, Christina Alt, David Higgins, Graham Huggan, Pippa Marland, 2022-03-17 This first full length study of modern British nature writing is timely and invaluable for literary scholarship in the environmental crisis
