Dear General Grant's son,

Although you have only the short time been in the "new store" for about half your time, I have very little idea, what I can do with, what means under I only know what means you, and judged by that standard, I would have a very good successful and since the opening, I considered it as a chance with a very big to the 100,000 in the first half of the year in the region, coming along at 25,000 feet, and very a business in itself, and started it that very evening. I had an idea about the matter of books along and had them for me, I would begin to give them to the people (and your business).

I and the people at Chicago would go to have the special limited stock of the store to my thanks for all the good years and good times since my business. Your efforts are very kindly and more than I could ever say. The books and pleasant services are.
