The Poems of Gerard Manley Hopkins Gerard Manley Hopkins,1967 Biographical and critical essays supplement all of Hopkins finished and fragmentary works The Collected Works of Gerard Manley Hopkins: Volume IV: Oxford Essays and Notes 1863-1868 Lesley Higgins,2006-10-05 The first of eight volumes of Hopkins s Collected Works to be published Oxford Essays and Notes presents a remarkable cache of previously unpublished papers including forty five essays which Hopkins produced during his undergraduate career at Oxford 1863 1867 only seven of which were reproduced in the 1959 edition of Journals and Papers Topics range from Platonic philosophy to theories of the imagination from ancient history to then contemporary politics and voting rights Also included are notes from a commonplace book a remarkable dialogue about aesthetics featuring a fictionalized John Ruskin figure and the lecture notes Hopkins prepared in the winter of 1868 while teaching at John Henry Newman s Oratory School in Birmingham writings in which he explores for the first time the theories of inscape and instress so central to his poetic practice The edition is fully annotated and provides a detailed introduction that situates historically Hopkins s academic and creative efforts The twelve notebooks represent Hopkins s intellectual and aesthetic development while studying with some of the greatest scholars of the era Benjamin Jowett Walter Pater and T H Green as well as the ethical and spiritual anxieties he wrestled with while deciding to convert to Catholicism John Henry Newman received him into the Church in 1866 Hopkins never wrote to please his tutors or the university professors he wrote vividly and searchingly in response to the challenges they presented Whether evaluating Aristotle s Nicomachean Ethics the role of neutral England in the American civil war or the comparative merits of classical sculpture his first instinct was always to frame the difficult questions involved and work towards a counter argument

Personal Journeys Peter A. Fiore,2001-04 This volume contains nine personal essays on six prominent classic authors written for the average reader who is minimally familiar with the authors probably just heard of them by name and who would like an introduction to these literary figures and their works The authors have been carefully chosen to represent the early classical Italian and British tradition Dante Alighieri John Donne John Milton and the 20th century British and American tradition Gerard Manley Hopkins Evelyn Waugh Flannery O Connor The underlying argument of the book is that the authors Christian faith gave impetus to their creative output Although all the observations about the authors and their works are fully researched and based on Professor Fiore s years as professor and critic a conscious effort has been made to avoid esoteric research problems and their consequent footnotes in an effort to present a readable and intimate approach to the writers The book is ideal for the general reader the undergraduate student and the lover of great literature
