Gerard Keegan's Famine Diary Journey To A New World:

Gerald Keegan's Famine Diary James J. Mangan, 2003 1847 Gerard Keegan a schoolteacher and his young bride left County Sligo to travel aboard the new infamous coffin ships to Canada In his diary Gerard Keegan charts the reality of famine and emigration relatives seeking his advice the walk from Sligo to Dublin fever on board ship a fight with the first mate a catch of fish storms sighting whales the passengers first sight of land and the bittersweet fate of those who survived to reach the promised New World Famine Diary Gerald Keegan, 1991 Gerald Keegan was one of the emigrants who left famine conditions in County Sligo Ireland and made the long voyage across the Atlantic He experienced firsthand the shocking conditions on Grosse Ile conditions so shocking that the Canadian government of the day tried every way possible to keep the public from finding out about it The diary he kept was first published in Huntington Quebec in 1895 but was censored by the government for being too frank an exposure of the injustices that were at the root of the emigration movement Writer James Mangan has taken Gerald Keegan's Famine diary and edited it to make it more intelligible to readers who might not be familiar with the historical background of the mass emigration movement from Ireland in 1847 For this book he also changed the language idiom into a more modern type of expression and introduced a number of characters in order to fill out the historical background of the emigration movement In doing this every precaution was made to maintain the charming simplicity and frankness of the original author Gerald Keegan Today we know about the cruelty of the Irish landlords but life aboard the coffin ships is hardly documented and the ultimate fate of the emigrants is rarely adverted to Keegan's diary shows us the face of the famine dead from Introduction The Famine Ships Edward Laxton, 2013-11-05 A fascinating account of the experiences of the Irish emigrants who fled a catastrophic crop failure and built new lives across the Atlantic Library Journal Between 1846 and 1851 more than one million people the potato famine emigrants sailed from Ireland to America The Famine Ships tells of the courage and determination of those who crossed the Atlantic in leaky overcrowded sailing ships and made new lives for themselves among them the child Henry Ford and the twenty six year old Patrick Kennedy great grandfather of John F Kennedy Edward Laxton conducted five years of research in Ireland and interviewed the emigrants descendants in the United States Portraits of people ships and towns as well as facsimile passenger lists and tickets are among the compelling memorabilia in The Famine Ships A fascinating compilation derived from family histories handed down through the generations it describes both the horrible conditions aboard the ships and the emigrants boundless optimism concerning the freedom of America finally draws attention to the people and the ships that defined a moment in Irish and American history Library Journal A splendid book written in a fresh and accessible way Irish Times Includes photos and illustrations Books Ireland, 1998 The Next World and the New World Cormac Ó Gráda, 2018 Famine Diary Brendan Ó Cathaoir, 1999 A unique record of the Great Famine written with insight detachment and empathy Based on a wide selection of sources contemporary newspapers official correspondence and diaries it provides a graphic picture of
