German Angst:

German Angst Frank Biess, 2020 While fear and anxiety have historically been associated with authoritarian regimes Frank Biess demonstrates the ambivalent role of these emotions in the democratization of West Germany where fears and anxieties about the country's catastrophic past and uncertain future both undermined democracy and stabilized the emerging Federal Republic

Emotions Across Languages and Cultures Anna Wierzbicka, 1999-11-18 This fascinating book explores the bodily expression of emotion in worldwide and culture specific contexts

German Structural Pacifism Joseph Verbovszky, 2024-03-30 German Structural Pacifism examines the influence of Germany's lessons of the past on its security policy since reunification in an approach that is both novel and timely in the context of the Russia Ukraine War Germany's lessons of the past provide contradictory right ways for Germany to overcome its authoritarian past and serve to legitimate political interests in security policy decision making Reconciling competing political interests and contradictory narratives results in a security policy that prioritizes the right way to do security policy is over its effectiveness It is the author's great merit to have defined the past 30 years of German security policy under the term Structural Pacifism I find this conclusive

Sönke Neitzel Chair of Military History at the University of Potsdam An accurate depiction of Germany's systemic neglect of its armed forces since reunification demonstrating why it is no surprise that our armed forces are naked A follow up including the Zeitenwende would be very interesting

Hans Peter Barthels President of the German Society for Security Policy The book succinctly and accurately addresses the lack of an honest debate on the use of military force in the domain of German security policy and explores its negative impact on military decision making from political strategy all the way down to the tactical level

Volker Wieker Former Chief of Defense of the German Federal Armed Forces 2009-2018

Fear in the German-Speaking World, 1600-2000 Thomas Kehoe, Michael Pickering, 2020-02-20 This book addresses the nature and role of fear in the German world from the early modern period through to the 20th century Offering the first collection that centres fear in the historical analysis of central Europe since 1600 these essays demonstrate the importance of emotional experience to the study of the past Fear has been at the centre of many of the most important historical events in this region witch hunts religious conflicts invasions and ultra nationalism in the form of the Nazi regime This book explores ways in which fear was understood developed and negotiated throughout these historical contexts and how people of the German world coped with it From the fear of vampires to the loss of national sovereignty pestilence gypsies and criminals Fear in the German Speaking World 1600-2000 draws connections between cases over a period of 400 years and considers fear alongside the history of emotions more generally In doing so the chapters reveal a complex evolving construction of fear that is universally human but also dependent upon its cultural and historical context

National Identity and Geopolitical Visions Gertjan Dijink, 2002-11-01 From the Third Reich to Bosnia nationalism a sense of a nation's place in the world has been responsible for much bloodshed Nationalism may be manipulated by political leaders or governments but it springs from the people Something in the history and environment of a national group creates it This volume aims to locate and analyze the myth of national identity and its value in creating pride deflecting fear or legitimating aggression A range of essays on Britain the United States Germany Russia Iraq Serbia Argentina Australia and India illustrate the different manifestations of the geographical imagination across the countries of the world Metaphors of ANGER across Languages: Universality and Variation Zoltan Kövecses,Réka Benczes,Veronika Szelid,2024-11-04 Anger is one of the basic emotions of human emotional experience informing and guiding many of our choices and actions Although it has received considerable scholarly attention in a number of disciplines including linguistics a basic question has still remained unresolved why do variations in the folk model of anger exist across languages if it is indeed a basic emotion rooted in largely universal bodily experience By drawing on a wide selection of comparable linguistic data from dozens of languages including a number of less researched languages this volume provides the most comprehensive account of what is universal and what is variable in the folk model of anger and why It also investigates the role that metonymies might play in the emergence of anger related metaphors and in what ways context influences or shapes anger metaphors and thereby the resulting folk model of anger No such volume exists in the cognitive linguistic literature on anger or on emotions for that matter The book is thus an essential contribution to the study of anger and will serve as basic reading for any researcher interested in how the conceptualization of anger is constructed via the interplay of bodily experience language and the larger cultural context Character Education in Europe: Challenges and Opportunities Verónica Fernández,Tom Harrison,Kristján Kristjánsson,Roland Bernhard,2024-05-03 The book aims to highlight the distinct challenges and opportunities that character education faces across several European countries including Austria Czech Republic Estonia Germany Italy Latvia Portugal Slovakia and Spain By examining character education landscapes in these diverse contexts this work provides insights into specific hurdles and potential avenues for advancement in promoting character development and positive impact across the region and beyond Through a detailed analysis of country reports practices and research findings the book sheds light on varying approaches to character education It emphasizes the need for tailored strategies that resonate with each countrys cultural social and educational landscapes These approaches including traditional liberal psychological and neo Aristotelian share a common goal of fostering strong character dispositions but diverge in their philosophical foundations pedagogical methods and political assumptions While European character education grapples with significant challenges its multifaceted approaches particularly the neo Aristotelian offer robust strategies for developing character dispositions By overcoming these challenges and harnessing the highlighted opportunities character education in Europe has the potential to effectively address contemporary educational and societal needs and contribute to more flourishing school environments The End of the World Ulrich H. J. Körtner,1995-01-01 In this book Ulrich Kortner addresses the issue of apocalyptic anxiety by offering a theological and philosophical evaluation of the apocalyptic In particular Kortner looks at how theology responding in pastoral sensitivity should deal with apocalyptic fears and anxieties Kortner concludes that real meaning and hope for the world is possible only after the world's inhabitants deal constructively with the stark reality of the world's end When Lily Ponds Ripple Anne-Marie Fitzwilliam, 2023-10-13 ENTWINED LIVES A SECRET THAT RIPS THEM APART TWINS ON A TURBULENT VOYAGE OF DISCOVERY A sugar plantation a waterlily pond and a decades old deception are the backdrop for When Lily Ponds Ripple It is a forceful narrative about the West Indian twins Florence and Charlotte Montague Their rivalry for the same man underscores just how close loyalty and betrayal are The revelation of a family secret takes the Barbadian sisters from their sheltered island to London and Germany In Frankfurt Florence becomes a notable author while Charlie's career leads her from the London stage to Hollywood Despite their geographical separation the sisters cannot escape one another far less their shared history To face the future they must confront the past together Zeisberger's Indian Dictionary: English, German, Iroquois (the Onondaga) and Algonquin (the Delaware) David Zeisberger, 1887 Philosophy of Life - The Book of Basics Wolfgang Fries, 2022-11-22 Philosophy should give the human being a mental basis that will allow man to lead a happy life and solve the problems of the now Philosophy does not consist of making things complicated and incomprehensible like today's degenerate philosophies do In this book no philosophical phrases are discussed in order to play mental soccer This book gives basics about life which one can apply to lead to a fulfilled happy existence Basic questions about life itself are solved What is life What is man Is it that a creature arose from mud by chance as science tells you Or is it that matter is motivated by a soul as the priest makes you believe Why does man think the way he thinks What is the goal of existence What it Means to Be Human Wolfgang Fries, 2020-11-18 What It Means to Be Human What is a Human Is it as science wants you to believe a creature that arose from mud or as the priest tells you a being of soul motivated flesh What and who are you One thing for sure dead matter doesn't think In this book Wolfgang Fries critically examines the age old philosophical question of what it means to be human using straight talk and common sense One thing is certain You are alive and try to live a life as a human being You have your notions of how to live your life but your ideas regarding life are countered by certain intentions which make life a difficult and complicated task So we have these two things your notions and counter intentions which give you a frame of living To subsist in life a certain amount of knowledge and understanding is necessary But to establish understanding knowledge has to be evaluated with respect to right and wrong important and unimportant The author maintains that only by understanding the complex issues that present themselves today will the human being be able to achieve personal goals and survive in this world He covers such timely topics as coping with stress fake news the influence of the media big pharma big government rampant materialism illnesses and the novel coronavirus No prior knowledge of moral philosophy is necessary to benefit from what readers will surely find to be an indispensable book

Prophets of Computing Dick van Lente, 2022-12-14 When electronic digital computers first appeared after World War II they appeared as a revolutionary force Business management the world of work administrative life the nation state and soon enough everyday life were expected to change dramatically with these machines use Ever since diverse prophecies of computing have continually emerged through to the present day As computing spread beyond the US and UK such prophecies emerged from strikingly different economic political and cultural conditions This volume explores how these expectations differed assesses unexpected commonalities and suggests ways to understand the divergences and convergences This book examines thirteen countries based on source material in ten different languages the effort of an international team of scholars In addition to analyses of debates political changes and popular speculations we also show a wide range of pictorial representations of the future with computers

Work and AI 2030 Inka Knappertsbusch, Kai Gondlach, 2023-06-18 In ten years we will take working with artificial intelligence AI more for granted than using cell phones today 78 recognized experts from practice and research provide deep insights and outlooks regarding the influence of AI on everyday working life in 2030 explaining with practical tips how you can prepare for this development The 41 concise articles cover a broad spectrum in the area examined in each case Thanks to a standardized structure they include a summary of the status quo concrete examples future expectations an overview of challenges and possible solutions and practical tips The volume begins with societal and ethical issues before discussing legal considerations for employers and HR professionals as well as the administration of justice The other chapters examine the impact of AI on the world of work in 2030 in the sectors of business industry mobility and logistics medicine and pharmaceuticals and further education

How Colours Matter to Philosophy Marcos Silva, 2017-11-23 This edited volume explores the different and seminal ways colours matter to philosophy Each chapter provides an insightful analysis of one or more cases in which colours raise philosophical problems in different areas and periods of philosophy This historically informed discussion examines both logical and linguistic aspects covering such areas as the mind aesthetics and the foundations of mathematics The international contributors look at traditional epistemological and metaphysical issues on the subjectivity and objectivity of colours In addition they also assess phenomenological problems typical of the continental tradition and contemporary problems in the philosophy of mind The chapters include coverage of such topics as Newton's and Goethe's theory of light and colours how primary qualities are qualitative and colours are primary explaining colour phenomenology and colour in cognition language and philosophy This book beautifully prepares the ground for the next steps in our research on and philosophising about colour Daniel D Hutto University of Wollongong It is not an overstatement to say that How Colours to Philosophy is a ground breaking publication Mazviita Chirimuuta University of Pittsburgh Anyone interested in philosophical issues about color will find it highly stimulating Martine Nida R melin Universit de Fribourg The high quality papers included in this anthology succeed admirably in enriching current philosophical thinking about colour Erik Myin University of Antwerp This is certainly the most complete collection of philosophical essays on colours ever published Andr Leclerc University of Bras lia All in all this collections represents a new milestone in the ongoing philosophical debate on colours and colour expressions Ingolf Max University of
