Ideas and Cultural Margins in Early Modern Germany Marjorie Elizabeth Plummer,2016-12-14 While the assumption of a sharp distinction between learned culture and lay society has been broadly challenged over the past three decades the question of how ideas moved and were received and transformed by diverse individuals and groups stands as a continuing challenge to social and intellectual historians especially with the emergence and integration of the methodologies of cultural history This collection of essays influenced by the scholarship of H C Erik Midelfort explores the new methodologies of cultural transmission in the context of early modern Germany Bringing together articles by European and North American scholars this volume presents studies ranging from analyses of individual

worldviews and actions influenced by classical and contemporary intellectual history to examinations of how ideas of the Reformation and Scientific Revolution found their way into the everyday lives of Germans of all classes Other essays examine the ways in which individual thinkers appropriated classical medieval and contemporary ideas of service in new contexts discuss the means by which groups delineated social intellectual and religious boundaries explore efforts to control the circulation of information and investigate the ways in which shifting or conflicting ideas and perceptions were played out in the daily lives of persons families and communities By examining the ways in which people expected ideas to influence others and the unexpected ways the ideas really spread the volume as a whole adds significant features to our conceptual map of life in early modern Europe

Wilhelm von Bode and the American Art Market Michaela Watrelot, 2023-12-19 Based on an extensive and very meticulous study of different archives and the evaluation of original previously unpublished archival material this book highlights the key aspects and trends of the European and American art markets in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries In particular the book focuses on how these markets influenced each other from the viewpoint of one of the most prominent museum directors of this period Wilhelm von Bode 1845 1929 Given the complexity of the topic the book is structured into two parts The first part focuses on Bode's interactions with the German banker and dedicated art collector based in Paris Rudolphe Kann 1845 1905 The second part follows the sale of the Kann Collection to the dealer Joseph Duveen and follows on the relationship between Bode Duveen and the American collectors The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history museum studies and the art market

Flemish Paintings of the Seventeenth Century Arthur K. Wheelock, 2005 This catalogue of the Gallery's remarkable collection of Flemish paintings offers new information about each of the individual works Stylistic characteristics of the paintings have been analyzed historical circumstances related to their creation have been assessed and their provenances have been reexamined A number of the paintings have undergone conservation treatment while the technical characteristics of other works have been thoroughly studied This exhaustive research has indicated that the titles dates and even attributions of a number of works needed to be changed and the catalogue includes a concordance of these revisions

Toward a Geography of Art Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann, 2004-03-14 Art history traditionally classifies works of art by country as well as period but often political borders and cultural boundaries are highly complex and fluid Questions of identity policy and exchange make it difficult to determine the place of art and often the art itself results from these conflicts of geography and culture Addressing an important approach to art history Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann's book offers essays that focus on the intricacies of accounting for the geographical dimension of art history during the early modern period in Europe Latin America and Asia Toward a Geography of Art presents a historical overview of these complexities debates contemporary concerns and completes its exploration with a diverse collection of case studies Employing the author s expertise in a variety of fields the book delves into critical issues such as transculturation of indigenous traditions mestizaje the artistic metropolis artistic diffusion transfer circulation subversion and center and periphery What results is a foundational study that establishes the geography of art as a subject and forces us to reconsider assumptions about the place of art that underlie the longstanding narratives of art history The Thief, the Cross, and the Wheel Mitchell B. Merback,1999-07 Christ s Crucifixion is one of the most recognized images in Western visual culture and it has come to stand as a universal symbol of both suffering and salvation But often overlooked in this symbolic language is the fact that ultimately the Crucifixion is a scene of capital punishment In The Thief the Cross and the Wheel Mitchell Merback reconstructs the religious legal and historical context of the Crucifixion and of other images of public torture The result is an account of a time when criminal justice and religion were entirely interrelated and punishment was a visual spectacle devoured by a popular audience Jacket The Rough Guide to Germany Gordon McLachlan,2004 Comprehensive and authoritative this guide to Germany offers up to the minute details of the ongoing changes caused by reunification as well as providing information and advice on accommodation restaurants and sightseeing American Paintings of the Nineteenth Century Franklin Kelly,1998 New Americanized Encyclopdia Britannica Encyclopaedia Britannica, inc,1903
