German Twentieth Century Philosophy The Frankfurt School:

German 20th-century Philosophy Wolfgang Schirmacher, 2000 Adorno an important selection by Horkheimer and Adorno from Dialectic of Enlightenment as well as works by Walter Benjamin Leo Lowenthal Herbert Marcuse Norbert Elias and Jurgen Habermas BOOK JACKET Foundations of the Frankfurt School of Social Research Judith T. Marcus, Zoltan Tar, 2020-03-06 This interdisciplinary volume provides the most comprehensive evaluation to date of the merits and problems of Critical Theory of the Frankfurt School Outstanding representatives of several academic disciplines assess from opposite intellectual and political positions the achievements and shortcomings of the social theory that emerged from this school of thought The volume also includes several newly translated but previously inaccessible essays by leading critical theorists such as Georg Lukacs and Jurgen Habermas The Frankfurt School on Religion Eduardo Mendieta, 2005 Eduardo Mendieta has brought together a selection of readings and essays which will make available the contribution of the thinkers of the Frankfurt School on the subject of religion Columbia Companion to Twentieth-century Philosophies Constantin V. Boundas, 2007 Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies is the first guide to cover both the Anglo American analytic and European Continental traditions The first section features Nicholas Rescher writing on neoidealism Josephine Donovan commenting on feminist philosophy Tyler Burge discussing the philosophy of language and mind and Robert Hanna reflecting on Kant's legacy The second section presents Jean Grondin on hermeneutics Leonard Lawlor on phenomenology Charles Scott on postmodernism and Babette Babich on the philosophy of science The volume also covers logical positivism naturalism pragmatism aesthetics existentialism Marxism the Frankfurt School structuralism psychoanalysis political philosophy ethics and the philosophy of religion The final section addresses concurrent trends in Indian Chinese Japanese and African philosophy and a comprehensive introduction by Constantin V Boundas not only provides a thorough outline of the problems and issues of the analytic and Continental traditions but also boldly challenges the conviction that the two approaches must be rivals Offering an unusually panoramic perspective the Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies enables readers to encounter foundational materials on their own terms Max Horkheimer and the Foundations of the Frankfurt School John Abromeit, 2011-10-10 This book is the first comprehensive intellectual biography of Max Horkheimer during the early and middle phases of his life 1895-1941 Drawing on unexamined new sources John Abromeit describes the critical details of Horkheimer's intellectual development This study recovers and reconstructs the model of early Critical Theory that guided the work of the Institute for Social Research in the 1930s Horkheimer is remembered primarily as the co author of Dialectic of Enlightenment which he wrote with Theodor W Adorno in the early 1940s But few people realize that Horkheimer and Adorno did not begin working together seriously until the late 1930s or that the model of Critical Theory developed by Horkheimer and Erich Fromm in the late 1920s and early 1930s differs in crucial ways from Dialectic of Enlightenment Abromeit highlights the ways in which Horkheimer's early Critical Theory remains relevant to contemporary theoretical discussions in a wide variety of fields      Bertolt Brecht Bertolt Brecht,2003-11-26 Long in preparation and in considerable demand here are the essential poems and prose of one of the giants of 20th century world literature Following an authoritative introduction by Reinhold Grimm the volume includes German and English poems on facing pages      Germany and the Americas Thomas Adam,2005-11-07 This comprehensive encyclopedia details the close ties between the German speaking world and the Americas examining the extensive Germanic cultural and political legacy in the nations of the New World and the equally substantial influence of the Americas on the Germanic nations From the medical discoveries of Dr Johann Siegert surgeon general to Simon Bolivar to the amazing explorations of the early 19th century German explorer Alexander von Humboldt whose South American and Caribbean travels made him one of the most celebrated men in Europe Germany and the Americas examines both the profound Germanic cultural and political legacy throughout the Americas and the lasting influence of American culture on the German speaking world Ever since Baron von Steuben helped create George Washington s army German Americans have exhibited decisive leadership not only in the military but also in politics the arts and business Germany and the Americas charts the lasting links between the Germanic world and the nations of the Americas in a comprehensive survey featuring a chronology of key events spanning 400 years of transatlantic history      The Frankfurt School Revisited Richard Wolin,2013-05-13 This volume is a collection of essays by Richard Wolin a leading political theorist and intellectual historian It is the follow up to Wolin s two recent widely acclaimed books Heidegger s Children and The Seduction of Unreason In those books he explored the legacy of Martin Heidegger and his impact on some of his most influential and notable students He dealt particularly with the effect that Heidegger s subsequent embrace of fascism and National Socialism had on these students Delving further in his next book Wolin explored the question of why philosophers and intellectuals have been drawn to antiliberal antidemocratic fascism The essays in this book are focused on European Political Thought particularly with figures associated with the Frankfurt School The collection represents a virtual who s who of European political thinkers with essays on Walter Benjamin Adorno Marcuse Arendt Heidegger Weber Jaspers and Carl Schmitt Moving beyond these thinkers and those books this collection will also include essays on contemporary political issues such as post communist revolutions human rights global democracy the revival of republicanism and religion and public life      The SAGE Handbook of Frankfurt School Critical Theory Beverley Best,Werner Bonefeld,Chris O'Kane,2018-06-04 The SAGE Handbook of Frankfurt School Critical Theory expounds the development of critical theory from its founding thinkers to its contemporary formulations in an interdisciplinary setting It maps the terrain of a critical social theory expounding its distinctive character vis a vis alternative theoretical perspectives exploring its theoretical foundations and developments conceptualising its subject matters both past and present and signalling its possible future in a time of great uncertainty Taking a distinctively theoretical interdisciplinary international and contemporary perspective on the topic this wide ranging collection of chapters is arranged thematically over three volumes Volume I Key Texts and Contributions to a Critical Theory of Society Volume II Themes Volume III Contexts This Handbook is essential reading for scholars and students in the field showcasing the scholarly rigor intellectual acuteness and negative force of critical social theory past and present     The Routledge Companion to Nineteenth Century Philosophy Dean Moyar,2010-04-05 The nineteenth century is a period of stunning philosophical originality characterised by radical engagement with the emerging human sciences Often overshadowed by twentieth century philosophy which sought to reject some of its central tenets the philosophers of the nineteenth century have re emerged as profoundly important figures The Routledge Companion to Nineteenth Century Philosophy is an outstanding survey and assessment of the century as a whole Divided into seven parts and including thirty chapters written by leading international scholars the Companion examines and assesses the central topics themes and philosophers of the nineteenth century presenting the first comprehensive picture of the period in a single volume German Idealism philosophy as political action including young Hegelians Marx and Tocqueville philosophy and subjectivity including Schopenhauer Kierkegaard and Nietzsche scientific naturalism including Darwinism philosophy of race experimental psychology and Neo Kantianism utilitarianism and British Idealism American Idealism and Pragmatism new directions in Mind and Logic including Brentano Frege and Husserl The Routledge Companion to Nineteenth Century Philosophy is essential reading for students of philosophy and for anyone interested in this period in related disciplines such as politics history literature and religion     Truth in Husserl, Heidegger, and the Frankfurt School Lambert Zuidervart,2017-06-09 An innovative ambitious tradition crossing study drawing on the work of Husserl Heidegger Horkheimer Adorno and Habermas to propose a new and transformative concept of truth The idea of truth is a guiding theme for German continental philosophers from Husserl through Habermas In this book Lambert Zuidervart examines debates surrounding the idea of truth in twentieth century German continental philosophy He argues that the Heideggerian and critical theory traditions have much in common despite the miscommunication opposition and even outright hostility that have prevailed between them including significant roots in the phenomenology of Edmund Husserl Zuidervart sees the tensions between Heideggerian thought and critical theory as potentially generative sources for a new approach to the idea of truth He argues further that the critical retrieval of insights from German continental philosophy can shed light on current debates in analytic truth theory Zuidervart structures his account around three issues the distinction between propositional truth and truth that is more than propositional which he calls existential truth the relationship between propositional truth and the discursive justification of propositional truth claims framed in analytic philosophy by debates between epistemic and nonepistemic conceptions of truth and the relationship between propositional truth and the objectivity of knowledge often presented in analytic philosophy as a conflict between realists and antirealists over the relation between truth bearers and truth makers In an innovative and ambitious argument drawing on the work of Husserl Heidegger Horkheimer Adorno and Habermas Zuidervart proposes a new and transformative conception of truth      The Routledge Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophy Dermot Moran, 2008-10-27 Featuring twenty two chapters written by leading international scholars this major publication covers all the key figures and movements from Frege to Derrida and philosophy of language to feminist philosophy      The Routledge Companion to the Frankfurt School Peter E. Kohlenbach, R. Geuss, 2004-12-14 Are religions tissues of superstition and repression or repositories of the highest hopes and aspirations of humanity or perhaps both at the same time For many of those thinkers who lived through the horrors and upheavals of the first half of the twentieth century this old question acquired a new urgency This volume examines the ways in which the authors of the early Frankfurt School criticized adopted and modified traditional forms of religious thought and practice Focusing on the works of Theodor W Adorno Walter Benjamin Erich Fromm Max Horkheimer Otto Kirchheimer and Franz Neumann it analyzes the relevance of religious traditions and of the Enlightenment critique of religion for modern conceptions of emancipatory thought art law and politics Biographical Dictionary of Twentieth-Century Philosophers Stuart Brown, Diane Collinson, Robert Wilkinson, 2012-09-10 This Biographical Dictionary provides detailed accounts of the lives works influence and reception of thinkers from all the major philosophical schools and traditions of the twentieth century This unique volume covers the lives and careers of thinkers from all areas of philosophy from analytic philosophy to Zen and from formal logic to aesthetics All the major figures of philosophy such as Nietzsche Wittgenstein and Russell are examined and analysed The scope of the work is not merely restricted to the major figures in western philosophy but also covers in depth a significant number of thinkers from the near and far east and from the non European Hispanic language communities The Biographical Dictionary also includes a number of general entries dealing with important schools of philosophy such as the Vienna Circle or currents of thought such as vitalism These allow the reader to set the individual biographies in the context of the philosophical history of the period With entries written by over 100 leading philosophy scholars the Biographical Dictionary is the most comprehensive survey of twentieth century thinkers to date Structure The book is structured alphabetically by philosopher Each entry is identically structured for ease of access and covers nationality dates and places of birth and death philosophical style or school areas of interest higher education significant influences main appointments main publications secondary literature account of intellectual development and main ideas critical reception and impact At the end of the book a glossary gives accounts of the schools movements and traditions to which these philosophers belonged and thorough indexes enable the reader to access the information in several ways by nationality by major areas of contribution to philosophy e g aesthetics by major influences on the thinker concerned e g Plato Kant Wittgenstein Poststructuralism and Critical Theory's Second Generation Alan D. Schrift, 2014-09-11 Poststructuralism and Critical Theory s Second Generation analyses the major themes and developments in a period that brought continental philosophy to the forefront of scholarship in a variety of humanities and social science disciplines and that set the agenda for philosophical thought on the continent and elsewhere from the 1960s to the present. Focusing on the years 1960–1984, the volume examines the major figures associated with poststructuralism and the second generation of critical theory, the two dominant movements that emerged in the 1960s: Althusser, Foucault, Deleuze, Derrida, Lyotard, Irigaray, and Habermas. Influential thinkers such as Serres, Bourdieu, and Rorty, who are not easily placed in standard histories of the period, are also covered. Beyond this thematic, essays engage with issues as diverse as the Nietzschean legacy, the linguistic turn in continental thinking, the phenomenological inheritance of Gadamer and Ricoeur, the influence of psychoanalysis, the emergence of feminist thought, and a philosophy of sexual difference, the renewal of the critical theory tradition, and the importation of continental philosophy into literary theory.
