German Socialist Philosophy:

German Socialist Philosophy Ludwig Feuerbach, Karl Marx, Friedrich Engels, 1997 Ludwig Feuerbach has stood in the shadow of Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels for the past one hundred and fifty years This volume in The German Library redresses this situation by including some of the most influential and trenchant writings of all three socialist philosophers together in one volume Feuerbach, the Roots of the Socialist Philosophy Friedrich Engels, 1908 Feuerbach Frederick (Friedrich) Engels, 2020-08-30 This work is a testimony with regard to the method employed by Marx and Engels in arriving at their philosophical conclusions It is the statement of the philosophical foundations of modern socialism by one who helped to lay them it is an old man's account of the case upon the preparation of which he has spent his entire life for this work short as it is represents the results of forty years of toil and persevering effort Austin Lewis Marx has died without either of us having had an opportunity of coming back to the antithesis We never came back to Feuerbach who occupies an intermediate position between the philosophy of Hegel and our own Under these circumstances a short compact explanation of our relations to the Hegelian philosophy of our going forth and departure from it appears to me to be more and more required And just in the same way a full recognition of the influence which Feuerbach more than all the other post Hegelian philosophers had over us during the period of our youthful enthusiasm presents itself to me as an unendurable debt of honor On the other hand I have found in an old volume of Marx the eleven essays on Feuerbach printed here as an appendix These are notes hurriedly scribbled in for later elaboration not in the least degree prepared for the press but invaluable as the first written form in which is planted the genial germ of the new philosophy Friedrich Engels Friedrich Engels English 12 or 12 German f i d 1s 28 November 1820 5 August 1895 was a German philosopher social scientist journalist and businessman He founded Marxist theory together with Karl Marx In 1845 he published The Condition of the Working Class in England based on personal observations and research in Manchester In 1848 he co authored The Communist Manifesto with Karl Marx though he also authored and co authored primarily with Marx many other works and later he supported Marx financially to do research and write Das Kapital After Marx's death Engels edited the second and third volumes Additionally Engels organised Marx's notes on the Theories of Surplus Value which he later published as the fourth volume of Capital He has also made contributions to family economics The German Ideology Karl Marx, 2024-05-09 Written across the years 1845 46 this collection of writings by Marx and Engels were published in the early 20th century from his estate The bulk of these were written by Marx but some parts by Engels Moses Hess Joseph Weydemeyer and Roland Daniels Die deutsche Ideologie is considered a key work in the development of historical materialism Engels noted that this work contained his first sketch of Historical Dialectical Materialism although you see elements of this in his 1841 Differenz der demokritischen und epikureischen Naturphilosophie his doctoral thesis and his early criticisms of Hegel's Philosophy of Right his 1844 Zur Kritik der Hegelschen Rechtsphilosophie Written in 1845 1846 but unpublished during Marx and Engels' lifetimes The German

Ideology Die deutsche Ideologie was conceived as a comprehensive polemic against the dominant philosophical currents of post Hegelian Germany particularly those espoused by Bruno Bauer Ludwig Feuerbach and Max Stirner Intended as a full theoretical break from the abstractions of German idealism the manuscript was composed in a fragmentary often repetitious manner and left abandoned when no publisher accepted it later unearthed and printed in part in the 1930s It was in these pages that Marx and Engels first articulated in clear and systematic form their theory of historical materialism asserting that the mode of material production in any society shapes its institutions culture and consciousness The text rejects the idea that ideas or consciousness determine social life arguing instead that it is social being shaped by labor and economic organization that gives rise to thought It openly mocks the lofty metaphysical preoccupations of the Young Hegelians and positions them as trapped in a self referential illusion detached from the real conditions of existence The book also includes a sharp critique of Stirner s individualism and idealist egoism casting it as another symptom of the German philosophical retreat from history and practice Although the manuscript was never revised into a final form its theoretical content introduced the decisive materialist standpoint that would underpin Marx s later writings marking the emergence of a philosophy not of contemplation but of transformation This modern Critical Reader s Edition includes an illuminating afterword tracing Marx s intellectual relationships with revolutionary thinkers and philosophers including Hegel Feuerbach Engels and Ricardo containing unique research into his ideological development and economic metaphysical theories a comprehensive timeline of his life and works a glossary of Marxist terminology and a detailed index of all of Marx s writings This professional translation renders Marx s dense dialectical prose into modern language to preserve the original force and precision of the text Combined with the scholarly amplifying material this edition is an indispensable exploration of Marx s classic works and his enduring Hegelian Protestant influence in the political religious economic and philosophical spheres
