Germans to the Front David Clay Large,1995 Militarization and Democracy in West Germany's Border Police, 1951-2005 David M. Livingstone,2024 A social history of West Germany's Bundesgrenzschutz BGS Federal Border Police that complicates the telling of the country's history as a straightforward success story The 2020 murder of George Floyd by Minneapolis police officers shows that police violence is still a problem in Western democracies Floyd's murder prompted some critics to hail the German police as a model of democratic policing that should be emulated After 1945 Germany's police forces had supposedly shed the militarization and authoritarian impulses still prevalent in other nations forces These uncritical appraisals however deserve closer analysis This book is a social history of West Germany's Bundesgrenzschutz BGS a federal border guard established in 1951 that became reunified Germany's first national police force It argues that the BGS revived authoritarian traditions of militarized policing and kept them alive long into the postwar era even though the country was supposedly consigning these problematic legacies to its past The BGS was staffed and led by Wehrmacht and SS veterans until the late 1970s and while West Germany was democratizing BGS commanders were still planning to fight wars and were teaching its officers street fighting tactics While the end outcome was positive the study contributes to the growing body of recent research that complicates the writing of the Federal Republic's history as a success story Dealing explicitly with post fascist West Germany's struggle to establish a democratic police force the book enters a conversation with studies concerned with democratization security and Germany's effort to overcome its Nazi past DAVID M LIVINGSTONE holds a PhD in History from the University of California San Diego He is retired as Chief of Police of Simi Valley California and is an adjunct professor at California Lutheran University Rearming Germany James S. failed went to great lengths to ensure the success of the scheme When despite these efforts the EDC finally collapsed in August 1954 NATO was plunged into arguably the most severe crisis in its history The crisis also possessed an Anglo American dimension with London and Washington badly divided on how it should be resolved In the end the British were instrumental in the creation of the Western European Union as a successor to the EDC Their crisis management however had been rooted in fear of the agonizing reappraisal a danger dismissed by many historians as exaggerated but which the British in 1954 were perhaps right to take seriously
