Imagining Iran Majid Sharifi, 2013-08-22 Thematically this book problematizes Iranian official nationalism It reviews how every modern Iranian regime since the constitutional revolution of the 1905 06 has failed to legitimize its official identity resulting in the fall of five different regimes The book details how the collapse of each regime resulted in the interruption of the official meaning of being Iranian as well as the meanings of its enemies What remained the same was how every Iranian regime represented itself as the agent of a particular national desire defined in terms of making Iran to become sovereign developed democratic and constitutional Nonetheless no regime was able to convince a great majority of the people that it achieved what it represented This book makes three specific contributions The first contribution is pedagogical By focusing on the dynamics of regime changes it provides a heuristic model for identifying challenges that all Iranian regimes have faced Moreover the book is a comprehensive review of the disruptive oppressive and bloody nature of the rise and fall of different regimes The second contribution is theoretical Rather than examining the behavior of various Iranian regimes in isolation from their international context the book examines how each regime got to understand itself in relations to its imperial others By examining the governmental rationality of each regime the book offers a better theoretical framework for understanding political development not only in Iran but also in all other Middle Eastern and South Asian states Finally the third contribution of this book is its critical approach to the main body of the literature on Iran modernity development democracy and constitutionalism
