Economic Fundamentalism Jane Kelsey,1995-12-15 In 1984 the New Zealand Labour government became the first developed Western economy to make a systematic attempt at structural adjustment This book examines the process through which this experiment took place and what it has meant for the country s economic political and cultural life The New Zealand Experiment Jane Kelsey,2015-12-21 Jane Kelsey s was a questioning and challenging voice when she wrote this passionate critique of New Zealand s economic policies in the 1980s and 90s The social and economic consequences of a decade of market based reforms are laid bare in this statistically rich and rhetorically powerful work Drawing on a wide array of sources Kelsey s analysis delves into every aspect of the structural reforms that were to have such vast consequences for New Zealand society Her analysis of those policies and their consequences gains a fresh and sobering perspective in the light of the recent global financial crisis Competing Responsibilities Susanna Trnka,Catherine Trundle,2017-03-09 Noting the pervasiveness of the adoption of responsibility as a core ideal of neoliberal governance the contributors to Competing Responsibilities challenge contemporary understandings and critiques of that concept in political social and ethical life They reveal that neoliberalism s reification of the responsible subject masks the myriad forms of individual and collective responsibility that people engage with in their everyday lives from accountability self sufficiency and prudence to care obligation and culpability The essays which combine social theory with ethnographic research from Europe North America Africa and New Zealand address a wide range of topics including critiques of corporate social responsibility practices the relationships between public and private responsibilities in the context of state violence the tension between calls on individuals and imperatives to groups to prevent the transmission of HIV audit culture and how health is cast as a citizenship issue Competing Responsibilities allows for the examination of modes of responsibility that extend challenge or coexist with the neoliberal focus on the individual cultivation of the self Contributors Barry D Adam Elizabeth Anne Davis Filippa Lentzos Jessica Robbins Ruszkowski Nikolas Rose Rosalind Shaw Cris Shore Jessica M Smith Susanna Trnka Catherine Trundle Jarrett Zigon Teachers' Work in a Globalizing Economy Alistair Dow,Robert Hattam,Alan Reid,Geoffrey Shacklock,John Smyth,2005-08-02 Extended critical case studies provide a tangible working expression of the labour process of teaching showing how teachers are simultaneously experiencing significant changes to their work as well as responding in ways that actively shape these processes For teachers and researchers this book shows what processes are at work in the global economy which impact on and sometimes control the role of the teacher It also reveals how teachers accommodate resist or redefine their working circumstances and explores methods researchers might employ in order to increase our understanding and knowledge of the effect of globalization on teaching Community Psychology and the Socio-economics of Mental Distress Carl Walker,Katherine Johnson,Liz Cunningham,2017-09-16 Providing unique global perspectives on community psychology this is exciting and important reading for students and researchers alike written by leading experts in
