Economic Interpretation of History Edwin Seligman,2017-08-30 To the student of the social sciences it is interesting to observe the process by which in one respect at least we are drifting back to the position of bygone ages Although Aristotle pointed out the essential interrelation of politics ethics and economics modern thought has successfully vindicated the claims of these disciplines as well as of others such as jurisprudence and the various divisions of public law to be considered separate sciences For a long time however to the common detriment of all the independence of each was so emphasized and exaggerated as to create the serious danger of forgetting that they are only constituent parts of a larger whole The tendency of recent thought has been to accentuate the relations rather than the differences and to explain the social institutions which form the bases of the separate sciences in the light rather of a synthesis than of an analysis This method has been applied to the record of the past as well as to the facts of the present the conception of history has been broadened until it is now well recognized that political history is only one phase of that wider activity which includes all the phenomena of social life If the term politics is used in the common but narrow sense of constitutional and diplomatic relations then to repeat the familiar dictum History is past politics is to utter a half truth in lamentable disregard of these newer ideas The Economic

The Economic Interpretation of History James Edwin Thorold Rogers,1891 Economic Determinism Lida Parce,2015-06-25 Excerpt from Economic Determinism Or the Economic Interpretation of History Economic Determinism is one of four phrases which are used interchangeably by modern writers in referring to a sociological law which is the joint discovery of Karl Marx and Frederick Engels and was first given to the world in the year 1848 The other phrases used for the same idea are The Materialistic Conception of History Historical Materialism and The Economic Interpretation of History The classic statement of the principle in the words of Frederick Engels is as follows That in every historical epoch the prevailing mode of economic production and exchange and the social organization necessarily following from it form the basis upon which is built up and from which alone can be explained the political and intellectual history of that epoch that consequently the whole history of mankind since the dissolution of primitive tribal society holding land in common ownership has been a history of class struggles contests between exploiting and exploited ruling and oppressed classes that the history of these class struggles forms a series of evolution in which now a days a stage has been reached where the exploited and oppressed class the proletariat cannot attain its emancipation from the sway of the exploiting and ruling class the bourgeoisie without at the same time and once and for all emancipating society at large from all exploitation oppression class distinctions and class struggles The phrase usually employed by the author of the present work is The Economic Interpretation of History but as this exact phrase has been used as the title of a work by Professor Seligman we have with the author s consent used the shorter title for this book About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Social Interpretation of History; a Refutation of the Marxian Economic Interpretation of History William Maurice,2013-01 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy
