Copyright Office, 1946 And He Hid Himself Ignazio Silone, 1981 Richard Wright Michel Fabre, 1990 This bibliography of Richard Wright's library and reading serves as a key to understanding the development philosophies and aesthetics of this great writer and provides accurate information for the study of intertextuality in his works Richard Wright born in Mississippi in 1908 was largely self taught His only formal schooling was high school As he recounts in Black Boy he used a white friend's library card at the Memphis Public Library where blacks were not allowed That books were almost living companions for Wright is easily understandable Through books and later through relationships with writers he broadened his perspectives his understanding of society and the very craft of writing In the history of Richard Wright perhaps more than with other writers a knowledge of what he actually read and of what authors he preferred is essential in explaining his intellectual development Michel Fabre Wright s biographer and foremost Wright scholar details the volumes in Wright's library and the facts of Wright's reading habits This listing of books that formed and influenced him includes second hand books he bought while living in extreme poverty in Chicago some borrowed books never returned books purchased in New York and Paris books Wright deemed required reading for a growing novelist gift books and others in a comprehensive list on such subjects as contemporary American literature classic European works criminology psychiatry and social sciences In compiling this listing Fabre goes beyond the actual contents of Wright's library for he includes also titles drawn from references in Wright's works and from accounts of people who knew him and his reading habits Included also is an appendix that collects for the first time reviews written by Wright his prefaces forewords and blurbs They show his appreciation of diverse genres and styles although his ideological commitment remained the same In them one sees Wright as an author ready to help younger writers black and white Viral Leonard Sweet, 2012-03-13 The gospel is nothing without relationship And no one gets it like American and French the Google Generation God came to earth to invite us personally into a relationship And while Christians at times downplay relationships the social media generation is completely sold on the idea In Viral Leonard Sweet says Christians need to learn about connecting with others from the experts those who can t seem to stop texting IM ing tweeting and updating their Facebook statuses What would happen he asks if Christians devoted less attention to strategies and statistics and paid more attention to pursuing relationships The current generation is driven by a God given desire to know others and to be known by others Most of them in seeking to connect in meaningful ways have found a place of belonging that is outside the organized church Why not bring the two together Those who are sold out to relationships can teach Christians how to be better friends to people who need God At the same time members of the social media generation can learn how to follow their desire for belonging straight into the arms of God It s time for relationship to be restored to the heart of the gospel And when that happens can revival be far behind End of Chapter Interactives Included A Catalog of Books Represented by Library of Congress Printed Cards Issued to July 31, 1942, 1942 Adult Catalog: Subjects Los Angeles County Public Library, 1970 Catalogue of Title Entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Register of Copyrights, Library of Congress, at Washington, D.C. perfection in God alone the written word is one place we can discover glimmers of divine light The writings of great souls can turn our gaze toward God as he is revealed in Jesus Christ Even authors who do not know Christ or who reject Christ can still point to him for anyone who seeks the truth finds it and any one who turns his back on the truth turns away from a someone whose presence can often be more keenly felt in his absence In this volume Lucy Beckett illuminates some of the finest writings in the Western tradition and trains our eye to discover in them the Christian vision of God She masterfully guides us through Sophocles Plato Augustine Dante Shakespeare Dostoyevsky and many others deftly demonstrating each author s worth as a bearer of truth
