Translated from the Russian with an Introduction by Gregory Zilboorg Leonid Nikolaevich Andreev,1922 He Who Gets Slapped a Play in Four Acts Leonid Nikolayevich Andreyev,2018-01-06 LEONID ANDREYEV as a literary figure was born in the gloomy atmosphere of depression of the nineties He thus appeared upon the literary stage at a period when the old and splendid generation of Turgenev and Dostoevsky had already passed away and when Chekhov had begun to demonstrate before the reader the gloom and colourlessness of Russia life This was a period when the social forces of Russia were half destroyed by the reaction under Alexander III and when the young generation was trying to rest and to get away from the strain of social hopes and despair This period briefly speaking was a period of melancholy of commonplace every day preoccupations and of dull terre terre philosophy He Who Gets Slapped Gregory Zilboorg Nikolaevich Andreev,2022-10-26 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Worcester Library Bulletin Free Public Library (Worcester, Mass.),1920 He Who Gets Slapped (Esprios Classics) Leonid Andreyev,2022-12-06 Leonid Nikolaevich Andreyev 21 August O S 9 August 1871 12 September 1919 was a Russian playwright novelist and short story writer who is considered to be a father of Expressionism in Russian literature He is regarded as one of the most talented and prolific representatives of the Silver Age period Andreyev s style combines elements of realist naturalist and symbolist schools in literature Of his 25 plays his 1915 play He Who Gets Slapped is regarded as his finest achievement Degeneration, decadence and disease in the Russian fin de siècle Frederick White,2015-11-01 Early in the twentieth century Russia was experiencing a decadent period of cultural degeneration just as science was developing ways to identify medical conditions which supposedly reflected the health of the entire nation Leonid Andreev the leading literary figure of his time stepped into the breach of this scientific discourse with literary works about degenerates The spirited social debates on mental illness morality and sexual deviance which resulted from these works became part of the ongoing battle over the definition and depiction of the irrational complicated by Andreev s own publicised bouts with neurasthenia This book examines the concept of pathology in Russia the influence of European medical discourse the development of Russian psychiatry and the role that it had in popular culture by investigating the life and works of Andreev It engages the emergence of psychiatry and the role that art played in the development of this objective science political and social issues to be considered Applying the metaphor of the border crossing from one temporal or spatial territory into another Border Crossing Russian Literature into Film examines the way classic Russian texts have been altered to suit new cinematic environments In these essays international scholars examine how political and economic circumstances from a shifting Soviet political landscape to the perceived demands of American and European markets have played a crucial role in dictating how filmmakers transpose their cinematic hypertext into a new environment Rather than focus on the degree of accuracy or fidelity with which these films address their originating texts this innovative collection explores the role of ideological political and other cultural pressures that can affect the transformation of literary narratives into cinematic offerings      The Publishers Weekly ,1921
