God Saved My Empty Life Carmel's Granddaughter, Marlene Aaron, 2024-08-26 I was born to parents who abandoned me as an infant to a poor widowed grandmother My life proves God has a good plan for every life regardless of how empty and hopeless that life is seen by everyone My story tells of the beautiful life of love purpose and peace available when we accept Jesus Christ And if we do our best to believe and follow the core values taught by my wise grandmother sharing my private life of abandonment sadness loneliness poor and being made to feel unworthy will surely give hope to all who read a life born empty with no one and a life rejected by everyone But God had a plan for me His plan was a grandmother Saved by an Accident Regina Walker, In a world where prospects are grim for a young and aggressive red stallion named Bear his fate takes a sudden and tragic turn Sold at auction by a family who neglected to tame him Bear ends up in the hands of a kill buyer But a calamitous accident during transportation changes everything claiming the lives of several horses and leaving Bear and the survivors abandoned and forgotten in a desolate pen Meanwhile Debra a hardworking woman who has devoted her life to raising her daughter Nicole finds herself at a loss when Nicole moves away with her husband leaving Debra feeling lonely and adrift in retirement Seeking solace she heeds the advice of a kind couple from the local feed store and embarks on a journey that will forever change her life At Gabriel s Rescue a sanctuary for neglected animals Debra discovers a chance to fill the void in her heart Volunteering with the horses she finds herself drawn to the quarantine barn where seventeen horses bear the physical and emotional scars of their harrowing escape from slaughter As Debra immerses herself in their care a remarkable bond forms between her and Bear as both wounded souls find solace and healing in each other s presence Saved by an Accident is an emotional tale that explores the transformative power of love and compassion Join Debra on her journey as she rediscovers purpose overcomes her own pain and shows Bear the true meaning of trust and affection Will their bond be strong enough to overcome the scars of their pasts Find out in this poignant women s fiction novel that reminds us of the remarkable connections we can forge in the unlikeliest of circumstances Coming Through Kincaid Mills, Genevieve C. Peterkin, Aaron McCollough, 2023-03-20 Oral histories of formerly enslaved people and their families along the South Carolina coast Coming Through marks the first complete publication of these interviews with former slaves and their descendants living in the Waccamaw Neck region of South Carolina as collected by Genevieve W Chandler as part of the WPA Federal Writers Project Between 1936 and 1938 Chandler interviewed more than one hundred individuals in and around All Saints Parish a portion of Horry and Georgetown counties located between the Waccamaw River and the Atlantic Ocean Her subjects spoke freely with her on topics ranging from slave punishment to folk medicine from conditions in the Jim Crow South to the exploits of Brer Rabbit A teacher artist writer and later museum curator Chandler had no formal training as an oral historian or folklorist yet the sophistication of her work as documented here anticipates developments in these fields of study a generation later Her detailed descriptions add social context to folktales and her careful and systematic renderings of the Gullah language have since been praised as foundational work by Creole linguists Chandler s Gullah speaking African American informants range in age from the 9 year old George Kato Singleton to 104 year old Welcome Bees A biography of each subject accompanies the interviews Collectively these interviews form an intimate portrait of a fascinating subculture of the Carolina coast and the Sea Islands as shared with a remarkable woman who has special access to converse with the people of this traditionally insular world Moreover they provide an unparalleled firsthand account of the African American experience in South Carolina in the words of those who lived it The volume is edited by Chandler s daughter Genevieve C Peterkin and two scholars Kincaid Mills and Aaron McCollough The three have carefully established the texts of the interviews in a manner that highlights Chandler s skills as a field linguist and have supplemented the texts with revealing documentation The collection is enhanced with a foreword by Charles W Joyner Burroughs Distinguished Professor of History at Coastal Carolina University appendixes respecting the WPA project and the nuances of Gullah language and culture and photographs of the subjects taken by renowned photographer Bayard Wootten many published here for the first time
