HE SAID, SHE SAID

He says yes, she says romance.

He says relationship, she says marriage.

He says he won't but she hopes he will...

Lucky they both agree they're fallen in love!

Kevin Bacon and Elizabeth Perkins are competing journalists who find love and success as hosts of their own talk show. But the tension that makes the show a hit threatens to cancel the romance, as the lovers discover each has a completely different concept of commitment.

This funny comedy of the sexes looks at love from both points of view. In the first part of the film, the relationship is seen through "his" eyes, while the second half of the film is revealed from "her" perspective. Both viewpoints are wildly different and totally hilarious, resulting in a completely winning romantic comedy. Also starring Sharon Stone as his good friend (he says) and longtime love (she says).
