He Reta Ki Te Maunga Letter To The Mountain:

Diggers, Hatters & Whores Stevan Eldred-Grigg, 2014-02-28 The social history of New Zealand's gold rushes as used by Eleanor Catton in her research for The Luminaries A thorough and carefully researched history of the gold rushes in New Zealand Based on sound scholarship and aimed at the general reader it's accessibly written in a clear clean and lively style The scope is the social history of the goldfields of colonial New Zealand from the 1850s to the 1870s The book opens with a survey of worldwide rushes in the late eighteenth and the first half of the nineteenth centuries when for the first time in history a great wheeling movement of gold diggers began to revolve from continent to continent The main body of the book looks at all the rushes large and small that took place in the colony Coromandel Golden Bay Otago Marlborough the West Coast and Thames The early chapters of the main body survey rushes chronologically the later chapters look at rushes thematically I owe a debt of gratitude to Stevan Eldred Grigg's history of the New Zealand gold rushes Diggers hatters whores Eleanor Catton The Luminaries Encounters Across Time Judith Binney, 2023-09-01 Foreword by Damon Salesa Story telling is an art deep within human nature A timely collection of writings on history from one of Aotearoa New Zealand's most distinguished scholars These essays bring forth important questions for New Zealand history about autonomy restoration and power that continue to reverberate today They also serve as a pathway into the rigorous and imaginative scholarship that characterised Judith Binney's acclaimed historical writing Exhibiting Maori Conal McCarthy, 2024-11-01 This richly illustrated book presents a comprehensive assessment of the display of Maori culture from the nineteenth century to today In doing so Exhibiting Maori traces the long journey from curio to specimen artefact art and taonga treasure Drawing on extensive and groundbreaking research Exhibiting Maori reveals for the first time the remarkable story of Maori resistance to involvement in and eventual capture of the display of their culture Ranging across museums world fairs fine art and tourism Exhibiting Maori fuses museum studies anthropology and visual and material culture to uncover a history of active Maori engagement with the colonial culture of display Stories Without End Judith Binney, 2010 Judith Binney's work spans nearly forty years of historical endeavour that began with the award winning biography of the missionary Thomas Kendall The Legacy of Guilt 1968 Her magisterial publication of 2009 Encircled Lands is the culmination of many years work on the history of the Urewera a great scholarly enterprise that began with a visit to Maungapohatu in the late 1970s The questions that presented themselves in that place about that history led to what Judith Binney has called the unanticipated trilogy Mihaia the biography of Rua Kenana Nga Morehu oral histories of women connected to the Ringatu church and prize winning biography of Te Kooti Redemption Songs Around this central core of remarkable books stands a ring of essays exploring sidepaths offering other stories presenting glimpses tangential to her historical narratives The people of these stories without end are those we meet in the books Rua and Te Kooti their wives and their descendants the leaders of the Urewera the schoolteachers from Maungapohatu those early missionaries the government men Oral history brings its particular resonance to some essays a discourse on symbols and maps lends insight to another taking this very specific history located in the Urewera to readers outside New Zealand gives a new slant The stories in this collection are just that narratives that flow one into another filling out histories bringing people out of the shadows bringing scholarship to life They are stories without end from a writer who is also one of New Zealand's greatest scholars He Reta Ki Te Maunga Margaret Orbell, 2001-01 Appendix to the Journals of the House of Representatives of New Zealand New Zealand.
