The House of Godwine Emma Mason,Robert Brink Shoemaker,2004-03-04 Harold Godwineson was king of England from January 1066 until his death at Hastings in October of that year For much of the reign of Edward the Confessor who was married to Harold s sister Eadgyth the Godwine family led by Earl Godwine had dominated English politics In The Rise and Fall of the House of

Godwine Emma Mason tells the turbulent story of a remarkable family which until Harold's unexpected defeat looked far more likely than the dukes of Normandy to provide the long term rulers of England But for the Norman Conquest an Anglo Saxon England ruled by the Godwine dynasty would have developed very differently from that dominated by the Normans

Monasteries and Society in the British Isles in the Later Middle Ages Janet E. Burton, Karen Stöber, 2008 New essays on the monastic life in the later middle ages show that far from being in decline it remained rich and vibrant In recent years there has been an increasing interest in the history of the numerous houses of monks canons and nuns which existed in the medieval British Isles considering them in their wider socio cultural economic context historians are now questioning some of the older assumptions about monastic life in the later Middle Ages and setting new approaches and new agenda The present volume reflects these new trends Its fifteen chapters assess diverse aspects of monastic history focusing on the wide range of contacts which existed between religious communities and the laity in the later medieval British Isles covering a range of different religious orders and houses This period has often been considered to represent a general decline of the regular life but on the contrary the essays here demonstrate that there remained a rich monastic culture which although different from that of earlier centuries remained vibrant CONTRIBUTORS KAREN STÖBER JULIE KERR EMILIA JAMROZIAK MARTIN HEALE COLMAN O CLABAIGH ANDREW ABRAM MICHAEL HICKS JANET BURTON KIMM PERKINS CURRAN JAMES CLARK GLYN COPPACK JENS ROHRKASTEN SHEILA SWEETINBURGH NICHOLAS ORME CLAIRE CROSS The Heads of Religious Houses David Knowles, C.
