Health Care And Poor Relief In Protestant Europe 1500 1700:

Health Care & Poor Relief in Protestant Europe 1500-1700 Ole Peter Grell, 2017 Health Care and Poor Relief in Protestant Europe 1500-1700 Andrew Cunningham, Ole Peter Grell, 2002-11 This book provides an outline of the developments in health care and poor relief in Northern Europe by drawing on research into local conditions and mapping general patterns of development Health Care and Poor Relief in 18th and 19th Century Northern Europe Ole Peter Grell, Andrew Cunningham, 2017-07-05 Throughout history governments have had to confront the problem of how to deal with the poorer parts of their population During the medieval and early modern period this responsibility was largely borne by religious institutions civic institutions and individual charity By the eighteenth century however the rapid social and economic changes brought about by industrialisation put these systems under intolerable strain forcing radical new solutions to be sought to address both old and new problems of health care and poor relief This volume looks at how northern European governments of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries coped with the needs of the poor whilst balancing any new measures against the perceived negative effects of relief upon the moral wellbeing of the poor and issues of social stability Taken together the essays in this volume chart the varying responses of states social classes and political theorists towards the great social and economic issue of the age industrialisation Its demands and effects undermined the capacity of the old poor relief arrangements to look after those people that the fits and starts of the industrialisation cycle itself turned into paupers The result was a response that replaced the traditional principle of outdoor relief with a generally repressive system of indoor relief that lasted until the rise of organised labour forced a more benign approach to the problems of poverty Although complete in itself this volume also forms the third of a four volume survey of health care and poor relief provision between 1500 and 1900 edited by Ole Peter Grell and Andrew Cunningham Poor Relief and Protestantism Timothy G. Fehler, 2018-04-17 This is a study of the organisation and practical operation of the system of poor relief in Emden from the late 15th century to the end of the 16th The city went through dramatic economic confessional and constitutional changes during this period and so offers an ideal setting for the study of the emergence and development of a highly organised multi jurisdictional system of social welfare in the early modern period Utilising account books church council minutes wills contracts correspondence and guild records it focuses on the day to day operation of poor relief how the many diverse institutions actually functioned As elsewhere in Europe the Reformation did not immediately result in swift changes in poor relief the Roman Catholic components of the administration of social welfare were dissolved and replaced gradually It was only when the vast changes in religious social and economic life which occurred at the middle of the 16th century forced matters that the methods of relief for the needy were revolutionised The city was flooded with refugees from the Dutch revolt there were widespread and severe economic difficulties caused by bad harvests and skyrocketing prices and the church underwent a period of intense Calvinisation only then were Reformed institutions and methods introduced At times religious arguments dominated the poor relief debate while at others the social welfare system was barely affected the effectiveness of the new systems and institutions is illuminated by an analysis of the recipients of relief during the second half of the 16th century Medicine and Society in Early Modern Europe Mary Lindemann, 2010-07 A concise and accessible introduction to health and healing in Europe from 1500 to 1800 The Political and Social Dynamics of Poverty, Poor Relief and Health Care in Early-Modern Portugal Laurinda Abreu, 2016-03-02 By the end of the fifteenth century most European counties had witnessed a profound reformation of their poor relief and health care policies As this book demonstrates Portugal was among them and actively participated in such reforms Providing the first English language monograph on this this Laurinda Abreu examines the Portuguese experience and places it within the broader European context She shows that in line with much that was happening throughout the rest of Europe Portugal had not only set up a systematic reform of the hospitals but had also developed new formal arrangements for charitable and welfare provision that responded to the changing socioeconomic framework the nature of poverty and the concerns of political powers The defining element of the Portuguese experience was the dominant role played by a new lay confraternity the confraternity of the Misericórdia created under the auspices of King D Manuel I in 1498 By the time of the king's death in 1521 there were more than 70 Misericórdias in Portugal and its empire and by 1640 more than 300 All of them were run according to a unified set of rules and principles with identical social objectives Based upon a wealth of primary source documentations this book reveals how the sixteenth century Portuguese crown succeeded in implementing a national poor relief and health care structure with the support of the Papacy and local elites and funded principally through pious donations This process strengthened the authority of the royal government at a time which coincided with the emergence of the early modern state In so doing the book establishes poor relief and public health alongside military diplomatic and administrative authorities as the pillars of centralization of royal power Lutheran Reformation and the Law, 2022-01-04 The volume provides new evidence of how the legal ideas of the Lutheran Reformation were put into practice especially in the Nordic countries and how they worked in the history of law Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden forming the largest Lutheran area in the world this lacuna is considerable The first part of the book deals with the legal theological and philosophical thought of the reformers The second part examines the impact of the Reformation on particular aspects of legal reform especially marriage and criminal law and the law on poor relief in the Northern Europe The study is based on interdisciplinary research by theologians and legal historians Contributors include Kaarlo Arffman Pekka Kärkkäinen Mia Korpiola Virpi Mäkinen Heikki Pihlajamäki Antti Raunio Risto Saarinen and Reijo Työrinä New Philanthropy and Social Justice Behrooz Morvaridi, 2016-07-20 Over the past twenty years wealthy individuals and private corporations have become increasingly involved in philanthropy often by establishing foundations targeted at helping to reduce poverty disease and other social problems But as the essays in this interdisciplinary volume show this new philanthropy does not provide a long term solution because it fails to tackle social injustice or the structural reasons for inequality Placing this discussion in a global context this far reaching book questions the political and ideological reasons why rich individuals and companies engage in poverty reduction through philanthropy and suggests that the new philanthropy and social justice debate extends far beyond national boundaries Healthcare in Private and Public from the Early Modern Period to 2000 Paul Weindling, 2014-12-17 A key volume on a central aspect of the history of medicine and its social relations The History of Healthcare in Public and Private examines how the modernisation of healthcare resulted in a wide variety of changing social arrangements in both public and private spheres This book considers a comprehensive range of topics ranging from children s health mental disorders and the influence of pharmaceutical companies to the systems of twentieth century healthcare in Britain Eastern Europe and South Africa Covering a broad chronological thematic and global scope chapters discuss key themes such as how changing economies have influenced configurations of healthcare how access has varied according to lifecycle ethnicity and wealth and how definitions of public and private have shifted over time Containing illustrations and a general introduction that outlines the key themes discussed in the volume The History of Healthcare in Public and Private is essential reading for any student interested in the history of medicine Lutheranism and social responsibility Nina J. Koefoed, Andrew G.

Newby, Christopher B. Brown, Günter Frank, Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer, Tarald Rasmussen, Violet Soen, Zsombor Tóth, Günther Wassilowsky, Siegrid Westphal, 2022-05-16 The contributions in this volume enter the debate about the way in which the provision of poor relief can be influenced by its national confessional context They bring new perspectives to the understanding of theological aspects of Lutheranism such as the connection between justification by faith alone and care for the poor and work and work ethics The articles also analyse the implementation of social responsibility of the authority towards different categories of poor deserving and undeserving local administration and centralization of poor relief through connections of public and private sources of funding and collaboration between state church and civil society through different public and private aspects of poor relief In this way the various contributions combine to demonstrate new ways in the study of the connection between confessional specifics and historical developments through detailed knowledge of theology supported by concrete historical case studies Poverty and Welfare in Guernsey, 1560-2015 Rose-Marie

Crossan, 2015 An account of poor relief in Guernsey from the Reformation to the twenty first century incorporating a detailed case study of the St Peter Port workhouse and an outline of the development of Guernsey s modern social security system This book based on extensive original research provides an account of parochial poor relief in Guernsey from the Reformation to the twenty first century incorporating a detailed case study of the parochial workhouse in the town of St Peter Port and an outline of the development of Guernsey s modern social security system from its beginnings in the 1920s to the present day Guernsey has had throughout much of its history a disproportionately large population for its size in the early eighteenth century St Peter Port was on a par with English county towns such as Warwick and Lincoln Moreover since Guernsey was outside the jurisdiction of the Westminster Parliament and retained cultural affinities with France the island developed its own social welfare regime which was closer in some respects to continental regimes than it was to the English Poor Law model The differing nature of welfare regimes how they arose and how they differ is a major focus of interest amongst historians of social welfare besides being a fascinating local study the book has much to contribute to the wider history of social welfare in Britain and Europe Rose Marie Crossan completed her doctorate at the University of Leicester and is the author of Guernsey 1814-1914 Migration and Modernisation The Boydell Press 2007 Experiences of Charity, 1250-1650 Anne M. Scott, 2016-03-09 For a number of years scholars who are concerned with issues of poverty and the poor have turned away from the study of charity and poor relief in order to search for a view of the life of the poor from the point of view of the poor themselves Great studies have been conducted using a variety of records resulting in seminal works that have enriched our understanding of pauper experiences and the influence and impact of poverty on societies If we return our gaze to charity with the benefit of those studies questions approaches sources and findings what might we see differently about how charity was experienced as a concept and in practice at both community and personal levels In this collection contributors explore the experience of charity towards the poor considering it in spiritual intellectual emotional personal social cultural and material terms The approach is a comparative one across different time periods nations and faiths Contributors pay particular attention to the way faith inflected charity in the different national environments of England and France as Catholicism and Calvinism became outlawed and or minority faith positions in these respective nations They ask how different faith and beliefs defined or shaped the act of charity and explore whether these changed over time even within one faith The sources used to answer such questions go beyond the textual as contributors analyse a range of additional sources that include the visual aural and material

Financing Poor Relief through Charitable Collections in Dutch Towns, c. 1600-1800 Daniëlle Teeuwen, 2025-10-01 In the Dutch Republic charitable collections which formed the financial backbone of many poor relief institutions were regularly organised by both religious and secular authorities This book examines both the policies of church boards and town councils in organising these charitable appeals as well as the general population's giving behaviour Using archival sources from the towns of Delft Utrecht Zwolle and s Hertogenbosch Daniëlle Teeuwen shows how these authorities deployed organisational and rhetorical tactics including creating awareness establishing trust and exerting pressure to successfully promote fundraising campaigns Not only did many relief institutions manage to collect large annual sums but contributions came from across the socioeconomic spectrum

Working for the Public Good Leslie F. Weber, Jr., 2025-10-21 Despite critiques of quietism European Lutherans fostered social ethics that produced systemic structural changes in social services law education health care states and nations and public morality and eventually led to the welfare state Grounded in faith active in love for the neighbor Lutherans transformed northern Europe critical perspectives from North American theologians involved in the international project Radicalizing Reformation Provoked by the Bible and Today's Crises This project explores the radical roots of what was ignited 500 years ago in order to bring more attention to the systemic challenges that must be addressed today drawing from both the strengths and the weaknesses of the Reformation legacy Authors in this all English volume include Brigitte Kahl Paul S Chung Samuel Torvend Cynthia Moe Lobeda Craig L Nesson Peter Goodwin Heltzel Charles Amjad Ali Karl Koop Wanda Deifelt Vitor Westhelle and Karen L Bloomquist Each article has been published in one of the previous five volumes This volume also includes background on the overall project the 94 theses and a guide for discussion in local contexts Series Radicalizing Reformation Die Reformation Radikalisieren Vol 6 Subject Religious Studies Cities and Solidarities Justin Colson, Arie van Steensel, 2017-01-06 Cities and Solidarities charts the ways in which the study of individuals and places can revitalise our understanding of urban communities as dynamic interconnections of solidarities in medieval and early modern Europe This volume sheds new light on the socio economic conditions the formal and informal institutions and the strategies of individual town dwellers that explain the similarities and differences in the organisation and functioning of urban communities in pre modern Europe It considers how communities within cities and towns are constructed and reconstructed how interactions amongst members of differing groups created social and economic institutions and how urban communities reflected a sense of social cohesion In answering these questions the contributions combine theoretical frameworks with new digital methodologies in order to provoke further discussion into the fundamental nature of urban society in this key period of change The essays in this collection demonstrate the complexities of urban societies in pre modern Europe and will make fascinating reading for students and scholars of medieval and early modern urban history Civic Duty Manon van der Heijden, 2011-11-15 This study offers a new view on public services in the early modern Low Countries and answers the following questions who provided public facilities in urban communities and in which ways did public amenities change in the period between 1500 and 1800 It throws light on the ways in which responsibilities were shared between city dwellers and the factors which influenced the allocation and reallocation of public services between the sixteenth and nineteenth centuries The present study looks at those who provided various services to their communities the ways in which they were rewarded and monitored and the gain they may have sought It focuses on the situation in the Low Countries but in many respects it also describes the development of the provision of public services in most towns in early modern Western Europe The complex mixture of central and local private and public ecclesiastical and secular individual and corporate initiatives characterized to a greater or lesser extent urban communities everywhere in Western Europe Above all early modern towns were civil societies in which community services such as health care poor relief and public security were largely shaped and formed by conceptions of citizenship and collective interest Handbook on Risk and Inequality Curran, Dean, 2022-09-06 This unique Handbook charts shifts in the relationship between risks and inequalities over the last few decades analysing

how inequalities shape risk and how risks condition and intensify inequalities Expert contributors examine the impacts of environmental financial social urban economic and digital risks on inequalities at both national and global levels Coping with Life during the Thirty Years' War (1618-1648) Sigrun Haude,2021-08-30 At its core Coping with Life during the Thirty Years War 1618 1648 explores how people tried to survive the Thirty Years War on what resources they drew and how they attempted to make sense of it A rich tapestry of stories brings to light contemporaries trauma as well as women and men s unrelenting initiatives to stem the war s negative consequences Through these close ups Sigrun Haude shows that experiences during the Thirty Years War were much more diverse and often more perplexing than a straightforward story line of violence and destruction can capture Life during the Thirty Years War was not a homogenous vale of gloom and doom but a multifaceted story that was often heartbreaking yet at times also uplifting The Routledge History of Poverty, c.1450-1800 David Hitchcock,Julia McClure,2020-12-31 The Routledge History of Poverty c 1450 1800 is a pioneering exploration of both the lives of the very poorest during the early modern period and of the vast edifices of compassion and coercion erected around them by individuals institutions and states The essays chart critical new directions in poverty scholarship and connect poverty to the environment debt and downward social mobility material culture empires informal economies disability veterancy and more The volume contributes to the understanding of societal transformations across the early modern period and places poverty and the poor at the centre of these transformations It also argues for a wider definition of poverty in history which accounts for much more than economic and social circumstance and provides both analytically critical overviews and detailed case studies By exploring poverty and the poor across early modern Europe this study is essential reading for students and researchers of early modern society economic history state formation and empire cultural representation and mobility
