Elizabeth Bowen:

People, Places, Things - Essays by Elizabeth Bowen Elizabeth Bowen, 2008-11-26 This volume collects for the first time essays published in British Irish and American periodicals during Bowen's lifetime as well as essays which have never been published before. The range of subjects alone makes these essays indispensable reading. Throughout her career Elizabeth Bowen, the Anglo-Irish novelist and short story writer, also wrote literary essays that display a shrewd, generous intelligence. Always sensitive to underlying tensions, she evokes the particular climate of countries and places in Hungary, Prague, and the Crisis, and Bowen's Court. In Britain in Autumn, she records the strained atmosphere of the blitz as no other writer does. Immediately after the war, she reported on the International Peace Conference in Paris in a series of essays that are startling in their evocation of tense diplomacy among international delegates scrambling to define the boundaries of Europe and the stakes of the Cold War. The aftershock of war registers poignantly in Opening Up, the House owners evacuated during the war return to their houses empty since 1939. Other essays in this volume, especially those on James Joyce, Jane Austen, and the technique of writing, offer indispensable mid-century evaluations of the state of literature. The essays assembled in this volume were published in British Irish and American periodicals during Bowen's lifetime. She herself did not gather them into any collection. Some of these essays exist only as typescript drafts and are published here for the first time. Bowen's observations on age, toys, disappointment, charm, and manners place her among the very best literary essayists of the modernist period.

Elizabeth Bowen Lis Christensen, 2001 A Danish scholar of English and Irish literature, Christensen focuses on the four novels and handful of short stories that Anglo-Irish writer Bowen (1899-1973) published after World War II, which critics have tended to neglect until very recently. Elizabeth Bowen Patricia Craig, 1986 Collected Stories of Elizabeth Bowen Elizabeth Bowen, 2019-10-15 A beautiful hardcover edition of the collected short stories of one of the best short story writers who ever lived. Newsweek with an introduction by the Booker Prize-winning author of The Sea. Widely known for her extraordinary novels including The Heat of the Day, The House in Paris, and The Death of the Heart, Elizabeth Bowen established herself in the front rank of twentieth-century writers equally through her short fiction. This collection includes seventy-nine magnificent stories written over the course of four decades, including such beloved classics as Mysterious Mr. X, The Demon Lover, Summer Night, Ivy, Gripped the Steps, and The Happy Autumn Fields. Whether placing her reader in a remote Irish castle or a seaside Italian villa or bomb-scarred London during the Blitz, Bowen was famous for scene-setting of almost hallucinatory vividness, but her ability to evoke inner landscapes of spellbinding intensity was even more remarkable. Frustrated lovers, acutely observed children, and even vengeful ghosts inhabit her tales with an urgency and emotional complexity that make it clear that the drama of human consciousness was her central subject. These stories are enduring testimony to Bowen's reputation as a creator of finely chiseled narratives rich in imagination, psychological insight, and craft that transcend their time and

Elizabeth Bowen Patricia Laurence,2021-07-21 Elizabeth Bowen A Literary Life reinvents Bowen as a public intellectual propagandist spy cultural ambassador journalist and essayist as well as a writer of fiction Patricia Laurence counters the popular image of Bowen as a mannered reserved Anglo Irish writer and presents her as a bold independent woman who took risks and made her own rules in life and writing This biography distinguishes itself from others in the depth of research into the life experiences that fueled Bowen s writing her espionage for the British Ministry of Information in neutral Ireland 1940 1941 and the devoted circle of friends lovers intellectuals and writers whom she valued Isaiah Berlin William Plomer Maurice Bowra Stuart Hampshire Charles Ritchie Sean O Faolain Virginia Woolf Rosamond Lehmann and Eudora Welty among others The biography also demonstrates how her feelings of irresolution about national identity and gender roles were dispelled through her writing Her vivid fiction often about girls and women is laced with irony about smooth social surfaces rent by disruptive emotion the sadness of beleaguered adolescents the occurrence of cultural dislocation historical atmosphere as well as undercurrents of violence in small events and betrayal and disappointment in romance Her strong visual imagination so much a part of the texture of her writing traces places scenes landscapes and objects that subliminally reveal hidden aspects of her characters Though her reputation faltered in the 1960s 1970s given her political and social conservatism now readers are discovering her passionate and poetic temperament and writing as well as the historical consciousness behind her worldly exterior and writing A World of Love Elizabeth Bowen,1955 Listening In: Broadcasts, Speeches, and Interviews by Elizabeth Bowen Allan Hepburn,2010-05-01 From the 1940s to the 1960s Elizabeth Bowen took an active role in spoken media and radio in particular by writing essays for broadcast improvising interviews on the air and giving public lectures During her lifetime she published few of her broadcasts Listening In brings together a substantial number of her ungathered and unknown works for the first time Bowen was known as a public intellectual capable of talking on numerous subjects with wit and general insight Invited to university campuses in the UK and US she delivered important lectures on

Elizabeth Bowen Victoria Glendinning, 2006-12-05 In this richly detailed biography Victoria Glendinning brings alive the great Anglo Irish novelist whose literary achievements were equaled only by her unbounded gift for living Taking us from Elizabeth Bowen's ancestral home in Ireland Bowen's Court to Oxford where she met Yeats and Eliot to her service as an air raid warden in London during World War II this penetrating biography lifts the thin veil between Bowen's imaginative world and the complex emotional life that fired her shimmering novels We see her at elegant parties where such friends as Virginia Woolf Eudora Welty and Evelyn Waugh fell under her spell in post war Vienna with Graham Greene and in war torn London where she fell in love with a younger man who was unprepared for life at the pitch she lived it We see her bound through several affairs to a comfortable marriage living life with the lid on The world of Elizabeth Bowen was akin to that of her novels no one behaved shockingly yet the passions that stirred within made her a master of the ultimate suspense of human relationships the life of the heart

Elizabeth Bowen's Irish Stories Elizabeth Bowen, 1986 One of the most highly regarded writers of this century Bowen made the short story peculiarly her own Some of her Irish stories are deemed by Victoria Glendinning who was her official biographer and who has written an introduction to this selection to be among her greatest She lived in Ireland and England all her life and her death in 1973 probably marked the end of the great Anglo Irish literary tradition

Elizabeth Bowen Neil Corcoran, 2004-09-16 Explores how Bowen adapts Irish Protestant Gothic as a means of interpreting Irish experience during the Troubles of the 1920s and the Second World War and also as a way of defining the defenselessness of those enduring the Blitz in wartime London She employs versions of the Jamesian child as a way of offering a critique of the treatment of children in the European novel of adultery and indeed implicitly of the Jamesian child itself Corcoran relates the various kinds of return and reflex in her work notably the presence of the supernatural but also the sense of being haunted by reading to both the Freudian concept of the return of the repressed and T S Eliot's conception of the auditory imagination as a return to the origin
