nature Moore reads Thomas Hobbes's Leviathan alongside contemporary writing by the notorious witch hunters Matthew Hopkins and John Stearne He reminds us that Francis Bacon's scientific works were addressed to King James I whose own D monologie insists on the reality of witchcraft The fantastical science fiction of Margaret Cavendish he argues must be understood within a tradition that includes works like Christopher Marlowe's Doctor Faustus and the peculiar autobiography of criminal astrologer Simon Forman By considering these disparate works together Moore reveals the centrality of magic to the early modern project

Magic in the Modern World Edward Bever, Randall Styers, 2017-04-18 This collection of essays considers the place of magic in the modern world first by exploring the ways in which modernity has been defined in explicit opposition to magic and superstition and then by illuminating how modern proponents of magic have worked to legitimize their practices through an overt embrace of evolving forms such as esotericism and supernaturalism Taking a two track approach this book explores the complex dynamics of the construction of the modern self and its relation to the modern preoccupation with magic Essays examine how modern rational consciousness is generated and maintained and how proponents of both magical and scientific traditions rationalize evidence to fit accepted orthodoxy This book also describes how people unsatisfied with the norms of modern subjectivity embrace various forms of magic and the methods these modern practitioners use to legitimate magic in the modern world A compelling assessment of magic from the early modern period to today Magic in the Modern World shows how despite the dominant culture s emphatic denial of their validity older forms of magic persist and develop while new forms of magic continue to emerge In addition to the editors contributors include Egil Asprem Erik Davis Megan Goodwin Dan Harms Adam Jortner and Benedek L ng

The Magician in the Elizabethan Drama Ardys Thelo Dean,1927 Magical Imaginations Genevieve Guenther,2012-01-01 In the English Renaissance poetry was imagined to inspire moral behaviour in its readers but the efficacy of poetry was also linked to conjuration the theologically dangerous practice of invoking spirits with words Magical Imaginations explores how major writers of the period including Spenser Marlowe and Shakespeare negotiated this troubling link between poetry and magic in their attempts to transform readers and audiences with the power of art Through analyses of texts ranging from sermons and theological treatises to medical tracts and legal documents Genevieve Guenther sheds new light on magic as a cultural practice in early modern England She demonstrates that magic was a highly pragmatic even cynical endeavor infiltrating unexpected spheres including Elizabethan taxation policy and Jacobean political philosophy With this new understanding of early modern magic and a fresh context for compelling readings of classic literary works Magical Imaginations reveals the central importance of magic to English literary history
