Manzanar Jane Wehrey, 2008 East of the rugged Sierra Nevada in California's Owens Valley lies Manzanar Founded in 1910 as a fruit growing colony it was named in Spanish for the fragrant apple orchards that once filled its spectacularly scenic landscape Owens Valley Paiute lived there first followed by white homesteaders and ranchers But with the onset of World War II came a new identity as the first of 10 relocation centers hastily built in 1942 to house 110 000 people of Japanese ancestry two thirds of them American citizens removed from the West Coast In the face of upheaval and loss Manzanar's 10 000 confined residents created parks gardens and a functioning wartime community within the camp's barbed wire enclosed square mile of flimsy barracks Today Manzanar National Historic Site commemorates this and all of Manzanar's unique communities
