Elizabeth Barrett Browning The Life And Loves Of A Poet:

Elizabeth Barrett Browning Margaret Forster,1990 Traces the life of the nineteenth century English poet describes her relationship with her husband Robert Browning and looks at her major poems Elizabeth Barrett Browning Elizabeth Barrett Browning,1993-08-15 I love thee with a love I seemed to lose With my lost saints I love thee with the breath Smiles tears of all my life and if God choose I shall but love thee better after death Bloomsbury Poetry Classics are selections from the work of some of our greatest poets The series is aimed at the general reader rather than the specialist and carries no critical or explanatory apparatus This can be found elsewhere In the series the poems introduce themselves on an uncluttered page and in a format that is both attractive and convenient The selections have been made by the distinguished poet critic and biographer Ian Hamilton A Life of Love Mary Logue,1998 Traces the life of the gentle English poet with an emphasis on the value of love in her experiences A Study Guide for Elizabeth Barrett Browning's "Sonnet 43" Elizabeth Barrett Browning, , Victorian Poetry and Modern Life Natasha Moore,2015-12-26 Faced with the chaos and banality of modern everyday life a number of Victorian poets sought innovative ways of writing about the unpoetic present in their verse Their varied efforts are recognisably akin not least in their development of mixed verse forms that fused novel and epic to create something equal to the miscellaneousness of the age Elizabeth Barrett Browning Elizabeth Barrett Browning,2023-09-28 How do I love thee Let me count the ways Elizabeth Barrett Browning was a poet of passion wit and conscience She was also a woman who wrote to speak the truth about everything she knew and she knew just what it was like to be a thinking woman in a society that wanted women to be weak The eldest of twelve children she wrote poetry from the age of eleven and became a highly successful poet in her lifetime and remains very much loved today She was also a strong advocate for human rights campaigning to abolish slavery and child labour and her three part poem A Curse for a Nation is a powerful polemic against the slave trade I heard an angel speak last night and he said write Write a nation s curse for me and send it over the western sea The Bookseller, Newsdealer and Stationer ,1911 Eat Your Heart Out Peta Mathias,2019-11-05 In a world of hate let s serve up some love Peta Mathias has encountered many a lovelorn tale on her gastronomic travels around the world Searching further she has unearthed more stories the heart warming and heart rending the passionate and poignant the macabre and merry and in these retellings brings them all to life With her characteristic wit and colour she also dishes up many of the ingredients of love intriguing courtship rituals such as bundling and the apple slice dance poetry penned by those with their own stories to tell and of course romantic recipes purported aphrodisiacs and alluring delicacies Entertaining hilarious and informative this book is a smorgasbord of love Victorian Literature in the Looking Glass of Psychology Melinda Gorgan,24-11-08 Victorian Literature in the Looking Glass of Psychology is an interdisciplinary study that observes the changes in literary character construction throughout the Victorian Age Pursuing the epistemologically altered character construction over the years from the beginning to the end of the

Victorian era the book covers a range of titles that demonstrate that the progress of psychology was responsible for the way the workings of the mind were understood It addresses the changes that characters underwent in the fifty years passing from Jane Eyre to Dracula The influence of psychology on literature is tracked step by step through the Victorian age starting with Charlotte Brontë's Bildungsroman and Dickens's realism and ending with the inward turn the focus on the psychological mechanisms of the individual in Henry James Robert Louis Stevenson Oscar Wilde and Bram Stoker For scholars interested in an up to date critical approach to Victorian literature focusing on interdisciplinarity discourse negotiations and psychosynthetic literary analysis the book will be a valuable reference source

Elizabeth Barrett Browning Dorothy Mermin, 1989-06-15 Elizabeth Barrett Browning 1806-61 was the first major woman poet in the English literary tradition Her significance has been obscured in this century by her erasure from most literary histories and her exclusion from academic anthologies Dorothy Mermin's critical and biographical study argues for Barrett Browning's originative role in both the Victorian poetic tradition and the development of women's literature Barrett Browning's place at the wellhead of a new female tradition remains the single most important fact about her in terms of literary history and it was central to her self-consciousness as a poet Mermin's study shows that Barrett Browning's anomalous situation was constantly present to her imagination and that questions of gender shaped almost everything she wrote Mermin argues that Barrett Browning's poetry covertly inspects and dismantles the barriers set in her path by gender and that in her major works Sonnets from the Portuguese Aurora Leigh her best political poems A Musical Instrument difficulty is turned into triumph incorporating the author's femininity her situation as a woman poet and her increasingly substantial fame Mermin skillfully interweaves biography and close readings of the poems to show precisely how Barrett Browning's life as a woman writer is a part of the essential meaning of her art Both her personal and her literary achievements are exceptionally well documented especially for her formative years Mermin makes extensive use of the poet's early essays a diary covering most of her twenty-sixth year and the enormous number of letters that have survived Ranging from her earliest ambitions through her long periods of discouragement and illness to her happy married life with Robert Browning this comprehensive study of Elizabeth Barrett Browning is essential reading for students of the Victorian period English literature and women's studies

Victorian Environmental Nightmares Laurence W. Mazzeno, Ronald D. Morrison, 2019-05-06 The twelve essays in Victorian Environmental Nightmares explore various environmental nightmares through applied analyses of Victorian texts Over the course of the nineteenth century writers of imaginative literature often expressed fears and concerns over environmental degradation in its wide variety of meanings including social and moral In some instances natural or environmental disasters influenced these responses in other instances a growing awareness of problems caused by industrial pollution and the growth of cities prompted responses Seven essays in this volume cover works about Britain and its current and former colonies that examine these nightmare environments at home and abroad But as the remaining five essays in this collection demonstrate environmental nightmares are not restricted to essays on actual disasters or realistic fiction since in many cases Victorian writers projected onto imperial landscapes or wholly imagined landscapes in fantastic fiction their anxieties about how humans might change their environments and how these environments might also change humans

"Ethel's Love-Life" and Other Writings Margaret J. M. Sweat, 2020-12-25 In a series of lengthy letters the unsettled and unruly Ethel Sutherland writes to an initially unnamed and ungendered correspondent and patiently discloses the troubled history of her past romantic attachments to both men and women Not until the third letter does she reveal that her correspondent is Ernest the man to whom she is engaged to be married Wanting to make him understand how all of her past loves are included and sublimated in her love for him she especially wants to explain how women often love each other with as much fervor and excitement as they do men and although this love is curiously freed from all the grosser elements of passion as it exists between sexes nevertheless it retains its energy its abandonment its flush its eagerness its palpitation and its rapture Margaret Jane Mussey Sweat 1823 1908 a native of

Portland Maine and wife of a United States congressman published Ethel's Love Life in 1859 The book is sometimes credited as an early even the first lesbian American novel but such a label Christopher Looby observes in his Introduction somewhat misrepresents what is distinctive and surprising about the book Ethel's Love Life confounds our received binary distinctions between the spiritual and the carnal and indeed between the sexual and the nonsexual the boundaries between such categories being not nearly as well policed at the time as they later became It is here reprinted along with Sweet's Verses 1890 and five of her published essays on Charlotte Brontë George Sand the contemporary novel and the friendships of women
