Everything and the Moon Julia Quinn, 2009-10-13 It was indisputably love at first sight But Victoria Lyndon was merely the teenaged daughter of a vicar while Robert Kemble was the dashing young earl of Macclesfield Surely what their meddlesome fathers insisted must have been true that he was a reckless seducer determined to destroy her innocence and she was a shameless fortune hunter So it most certainly was for the best when their plans to elope went hopelessly awry Even after a seven year separation Victoria now a governess still leaves Robert breathless But how could he ever again trust the raven haired deceiver who had shattered his soul And Victoria could never give her heart a second time to the cad who so callously trampled on it the first But a passion fated will not be denied and vows of love yearn to be kept even when one promises the moon Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Law and Literature Robert Spoo, Simon Stern, 2025-01-09 The Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Law and Literature surveys the intersection between two important fields of study Interdisciplinary in scope the volume showcases the many ways in which literary and legal methods and insights both converge and remain distinct

The Kingdom of Twilight Forrest Reid, 1904 The Novel, Who Needs It? Joseph Epstein, 2023-07-18 In this brief but highly engaging book Joseph Epstein argues for the primacy of fiction and specifically of the novel among all intellectual endeavors that seek to describe the behavior of human beings Reading superior fiction he holds arouses the mind in a way that nothing else quite does He shows how the novel at its best operates above the level of ideas in favor of taking up the truths of the heart No other form probes so deeply into that eternal mystery of mysteries human nature than does the novel Along the way Epstein recounts how we read fiction differently than much else we read He sets out how memory works differently in the reading of fiction than in that of other works He notes that certain novels are best read at certain ages and suggests that novels like movies might do well to carry ratings with some novels best read no later than one's early twenties others not to be read before the age of forty The knowledge one acquires from reading novels differs from all other kinds of knowledge for the subject of all superior fiction is human existence itself in all its variousness and often humbling confusion The spirit of the novel entails questioning much that others consider home truths This is demonstrated by the fact that so many important philosophers social scientists jurists and other intellectuals have been devoted readers of fiction among them Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr Michael Oakeshott Edward Shils and Clifford Geertz The Novel Who Needs It takes up those current elements in the culture that militate against the production of first rate fiction Prominent among them are the rise of online reading the expansion of creative writing programs the artistically discouraging effects of political correctness and the pervasiveness of therapeutic thinking throughout contemporary culture As for the title The Novel Who Needs It Joseph Epstein's answer is that we all do Poetics of Love in the Arabic Novel Wen-chin Ouyang,2012-06-20 Considers the Arabic novel within the triangle of the nation state modernity and tradition The novel is now a major genre in the Arabic literary field this book explores the development of the novel especially the ways in which the genre engages with a Love's Pure Flame Thea Girard Marshall,2010-10-21 Lady Azalais daughter of a dead traitor whose lands are forfeit whose mother is forced by King Henry II to wed the victorious and vicious Sir Hugo du Champ is sent in disguise along with three falcons first to her cousin in Parthenay then to the court of Queen Eleanor in Poitiers The man chosen by her mother to take the falcons and Azalais is the troubadour Sir Gervais du Quercy notorious throughout the Limousin one of the many landless younger sons of the Occitan who must live by his skills with sword and song Azalais is irresistibly attracted to him and he too finds himself falling in love but with Azalais's beautiful cousin Argentine Wound together first at the court at Poitiers in a life of love intrigue and tournaments of arms and poetry entangled by desire then separated by a war of rebellion can true love triumph or will all be destroyed in Love's Pure Flame Enchantments for the Soul: Discover the Magic Within Pasquale De Marco,2025-04-15 Enchantments for the Soul Discover the Magic Within is an extraordinary guide to awakening your inner power and unlocking the limitless potential within your soul Drawing upon ancient wisdom and modern spirituality this book offers a treasure trove of rituals spells incantations and practices designed to nurture your spirit and enhance your connection to the divine Within these pages you will discover The art of creating sacred spaces and rituals that serve as conduits for personal growth and empowerment Techniques for crafting personalized sigils and amulets potent talismans that amplify your intentions and protect your energy The power of meditation and mindfulness to access higher states of consciousness and inner peace An exploration of divination the art of interpreting signs and symbols as messages from the universe Guidance on tapping into the universal energies that surround us aligning ourselves with the rhythms of the cosmos Enchantments for the Soul Discover the Magic Within is more than a book it is a

Allegory and Enchantment Jason Crawford,2017 Allegory and Enchantment is about the genealogies of modernity and about the lingering power of some of the cultural forms against which modernity defines itself religion magic the sacramental the medieval Jason Crawford explores the emergence of modernity by investigating the early modern poetics of allegorical narrative a literary form that many modern writers have taken to be paradigmatically medieval He investigates how allegory is intimately linked with a self conscious modernity and with what many commentators have in the last century called the disenchantment of the world in four of the most substantial allegorical narratives produced in early modern England William Langland s Piers Plowman John Skelton s The Bowge of Courte Edmund Spenser s The Faerie Queene and John Bunyan s The Pilgrim s Progress

Enchantment's Odds & Ends Ken Evans,2021-07-26 To be Enchanted at one time meant to be carried away from one s hum drum existence to something or somewhere magical perhaps even spiritual at least always more than merely physically pleasant Of course this depended on one s beliefs in human souls Take that away and enchantment would be as mundane as everything else in modern daily life No Soul means no possibility of Enchantment Ken Evans

Sacral Kingship Between Disenchantment and Re-enchantment Ronald G. Asch,2014-07-01 France and England are often seen as monarchies standing at opposite ends of the spectrum of seventeenth century European political culture On the one hand the Bourbon monarchy took the high road to absolutism while on the other the Stuarts never quite recovered from the diminution of their royal authority following the regicide of Charles I in 1649 However both monarchies shared a common medieval heritage of sacral kingship and their histories remained deeply entangled throughout the century This study focuses on the interaction between ideas of monarchy and images of power in the two countries between the execution of Mary Queen of Scots and the Glorious Revolution It demonstrates that even in periods when politics were seemingly secularized as in France at the end of the Wars of Religion and in latter seventeenth century England the appeal to religious images and values still lent legitimacy to royal authority by emphasizing the sacral aura or providential role which church and religion conferred on monarchs The Bloomsbury Research Handbook of Indian Aesthetics and the Philosophy of Art Arindam Chakrabarti, 2016-02-25 The Bloomsbury Research Handbook of Indian Aesthetics and the Philosophy of Art provides an extensive research resource to the burgeoning field of Asian aesthetics Featuring leading international scholars and teachers whose work defines the field this unique volume reflects the very best scholarship in creative analytic and comparative philosophy Beginning with a philosophical reconstruction of the classical rasa aesthetics chapters range from the nature of art emotions tones of thinking and aesthetic education to issues in film theory and problems of the past versus present As well as discussing indigenous versus foreign in aesthetic practices this volume covers North and South Indian performance practices and theories alongside recent and new themes including the Gandhian aesthetics of surrender and self control and the aesthetics of touch in the light of the politics of untouchability With such unparalleled and authoritative coverage The Bloomsbury Research Handbook of Indian Aesthetics and the Philosophy of Art represents a dynamic map of comparative cross cultural aesthetics Bringing together original philosophical research from renowned thinkers it makes a major contribution to both Eastern and Western contemporary aesthetics
