Death, Burial and the Individual in Early Modern England Clare Gittings, 2023-10-13 First published in 1984 Death Burial and the Individual in Early Modern England traces how and why the modern reaction to death has come about by examining English attitudes to death since the Middle Ages In earlier centuries

death was very much in the midst of life since it was not as now associated mainly with old age War plague and infant mortality gave it a very different aspect to its present one The author shows in detail how modern concern with the individual has gradually alienated death from our society the greater the emphasis on personal uniqueness the more intense the anguish when an individual dies Changes in attitudes to death are traced through alterations in funeral rituals covering all sections of society from paupers to princes This gracefully written book is a unique scholarly and thorough treatment of the subject providing both a sensitive insight into the feelings of people in early modern England and an explanation of the modern anxiety about death The range and assurance of this book will commend it to historians and the interested general reader alike The Sunnyside ,1928 An Odd Undertaking Bill Wood,2024-01-28 An engaging story of life and death An Odd Undertaking features Bill Wood s memories of his career as an undertaker in London during the 1990s

Extension of Life Robert J. Bauman,2012-04-19 As a mortician Michael Baumann a Jew pretending to be Aryan devised a highly unorthodox surgical procedure that converted Jews to Aryans This helped more than 400 Jews escape from Vienna to Switzerland With five other Jews pretending to be Aryan an elaborate escape and spy network was created While most of the operations were successful there were some failures Some died so that others could live Carefully researched the story blends fiction with factual history incorporating actual events and people The novel creates a realistic portrayal of Jewish life and death before and during the Nazi takeover of Austria The Coffin Maker James McCarthy,2012-07-26 From behind the headstones the laser beams from the machine guns settle on the target coffin maker Pat O Donnell He is unwillingly digging a grave in the old colony cemetery on Achill Island for these thugs and they will not hesitate to use their fire power Who is he digging the grave for and why are they pointing their guns at him This nocturnal grave digging puzzles him but he might well be digging his own last resting place if the information has leaked out that he is working undercover with Garda Detective John O Neill trying to identify the reclusive drug lord The Big Fella Pat has a score to settle with him his gunmen had forced Pat s pregnant wife off the M50 to her death He has had other traumas in his life an adopted orphan who suffered
