Juan Rulfo, 1971 A major figure in the history of post Revolutionary literature in Mexico Juan Rulfo received international acclaim for his brilliant short novel Pedro P ramo 1955 and his collection of short stories El llano en llamas 1953 translated as a collection here in English for the first time In the transition of Mexican fiction from direct statements of nationalism and social protest to a concentration on cosmopolitanism the works of Rulfo hold a unique position These stories of a rural people caught in the play of natural forces are not simply an interior examination of the phenomena of their world they are written for the larger purpose of showing the actions of humans in broad terms of reality The Plain in Flames Juan

Rulfo, 2012-09-01 Juan Rulfo is one of the most important writers of twentieth century Mexico though he wrote only two books the novel Pedro Páramo 1955 and the short story collection El llano en llamas 1953 First translated into English in 1967 as The Burning Plain these starkly realistic stories create a psychologically acute portrait of poverty and dignity in the countryside at a time when Mexico was undergoing rapid industrialization following the upheavals of the Revolution According to Ilan Stavans the stories depth seems almost inexhaustible with a few strokes Rulfo creates a complex human landscape defined by desolation These stories are lessons in morality They are also astonishing examples of artistic distillation To introduce a new generation of readers to Rulfo's unsurpassable literary talents this new translation repositions the collection as a classic of world literature Working from the definitive Spanish edition of El llano en llamas established by the Fundación Juan Rulfo Ilan Stavans and co translator Harold Augenbraum present fresh translations of the original fifteen stories as well as two more stories that have not appeared in English before The Legacy of Matilde Arcangel and The Day of the Collapse The translators have artfully preserved the author's peasantisms in appreciation of the distinctive voices of his characters Such careful elegiac rendering of the stories perfectly suits Rulfo's Mexico in which people on the edge of despair nonetheless retain a sense of self of integrity that will not be taken away Rulfo's El Llano en Llamas Daria Thérèse Vaughn, 1972 La ficción de la memoria Federico Campbell, 2003 Antología que recoge investigaciones ensayos testimonios y entrevistas sobre la obra literaria de Juan Rulfo El orden de su secuencia es cronológico porque quiere hacer ver cuál ha sido la evolución crítica a lo largo de los años desde los primeros trabajos de Carlos Blanco Aguinaga 1955 Mariana Frenk 1961 hasta los de Juan Villoro 2000 y Jorge Aguilar Mora 2001 las diferentes lecturas de una generación a otra Asimismo los testimonios se presentan de Gabriel García Márquez 1980 y Jorge Luis Borges 1985 a Juan José Arreola 1994 y Jorge Volpi 2000 según se fueron dando en el tiempo a partir del momento en que aparecieron El llano en llamas en 1953 y Pedro Páramo la magna magistral novela de Rulfo Authority and Identity in Rulfo's El Llano en Llamas Steven Boldy,

World Torn Apart Victoria Carpenter, 2007 This collection of essays derives from a conference on Violence Culture and Identity held in St Andrews in June 2003 It is a contribution to the understanding of representations of violence in Latin American narrative The collected essays are dedicated to the study of the problematic history of violence as a means of civilizing the region violence used by dictatorial regimes to eradicate the collective memory of their actions violence as a result of the history of marginalizing segments of the population sexual violence as an attempt at complete control of the victim The essays establish a clear link between historical political and literary constructs spanning the past five hundred years of Latin American history Close readings of political texts historical documents prose poetry and films employ identity theories postcolonial discourse and the principles of mimetic and sacrificial violence The volume adds to the ongoing critical investigation of the relationship between Latin American history and narrative and to the key role of representations of violence within that narrative tradition

A Companion to Latin American Literature Stephen M. Hart, 2007 The evolution of Latin American literature A Companion to Latin American Literature offers a lively and informative introduction to the most significant literary works produced in Latin America from the fifteenth century until the present day It shows how the press and its product the printed word functioned as the common denominator binding together in different ways over time the complex and variable relationship between the writer the reader and the state The meandering story of the evolution of Latin American literature from the letters of discovery written by Christopher Columbus and Vaz de Caminha via the Republican era at the end of the nineteenth century when writers in Rio de Janeiro as much as in Buenos Aires were beginning to live off their pens as journalists and serial novelists until the 1960s when writers of the quality of Clarice Lispector in Brazil and Garc a M rquez in Colombia suddenly burst onto the world stage is traced chronologically in six chapters which introduce the main writers in the main genres of poetry prose the novel drama and the essay A final chapter evaluates the post boom novel testimonio Latino and Brazuca literature gay Afro Hispanic and Afro Brazilian literature along with the Novel of the New Millennium This study also offers suggestions for further reading STEPHEN M HART is Professor of Hispanic Studies University College London and Profesor Honorario Universidad de San Marcos Lima
