El Mito En La Obra De Horacio Quiroga:

El mito en la obra de Horacio Quiroga Elsa Leonor Pasteknik,1997 Pariah in the Desert Todd S. Garth,2016-08-29

This is the first book in English on Horacio Quiroga Uruguay 1878 Argentina 1937 a canonical author whose works are read by all advanced students of Spanish in the US and many other countries The study examines Quiroga s work through the theoretical lens of the heroic a lens elaborated in part by means of Quiroga s own disquisitions on the subject and the complementary phenomenon of the monstrous This lens serves to elucidate many evidently obscure and self contradictory aspects of Quiroga s work and its relation to the context in which he lived That context included the neo colonial social and economic milieu of Argentina s fast changing immigrant charged increasingly materialistic society the growing influence of foreign cultural discourses particularly Hollywood film the conflict between the genders in a society that embraced modernity but resisted changes in gender roles the weight of new scientific discourses especially Darwinian evolution in social and political thought and the impact on pedagogical theory and practice of these multiple changing discourses This study discloses the extraordinary range of Quiroga s work which includes erotic romance science fiction and fantasy psychological occult social satire a great variety of juvenile literature outdoor adventure and most familiar to readers in the United States gothic and naturalist horror The book concludes that Quiroga s consistent imperative of the heroic is essential to reconciling these various evidently incompatible aspects of Quiroga s poetics revealing its theoretical and ethical coherence

A Narrative Biography of Horacio Quiroga, the Lone Anarchist Wilson Alves-Bezerra,2023-10-16 This book is a unique and definitive biography in English of the Uruguayan Argentinian short story writer Horacio Quiroga 1878 1937 known as the Latin American Poe Written in amusing prose and with an academic background which can be an important reference for the public in general as well as to Latin American literature researchers all over the world it is an up to date narrative biography by a Brazilian writer and researcher who has dedicated the last twenty years to Quiroga s translation and research The research uses several unknown or lesser known documents as well as newspapers and magazines from the beginning of the 20th century found in libraries and archives in Argentina Brazil Germany and Uruguay The book is written against a contemporary background and focusses on the humanization of Quiroga and the participation of until now maginalized women in his personal and public life such as Alfonsina Storni and Norah Lange allowing the construction of an image which is less monumental and more complex in its contradictions hemos centrado en algunas de las películas de Francis Ford Coppola para comprobar como es aplicable al cine algunas de las conclusiones críticas y creativas de la poética del mito desarrollada en el ámbito literario en la primera mitad del siglo XX. Tomaremos como obra de referencia Apocalypse Now 1979, película que consideramos una de las propuestas más cercanas a lo que supondría un filme mitologizante sin olvidarnos de otras películas de referencia en la filmografía del director norteamericano como son la trilogía de El Padrino, Dr. Cula de Bram Stoker o El hombre sin edad.

Myth and Literature in the filmography of Francis Ford Coppola

A study in myth criticism based on Apocalypse Now within both the academic fields of the theory of literature and comparative literature and from a philosophical perspective that of aesthetics and art theory. Since its inception, cinema and literature have been closely intertwined and there have been many studies from various narrative perspectives about the matter of film creation. In this sense, the multiple literary theories that arose during the last century and that laid the foundation for future cinematographic theory and criticism play a fundamental role. There exists amongst all of these a group of literary theories which were especially relevant in the first half of the 20th century which are categorized through the study of literary creation from their very roots: myth and ritual. Of these, the theories of myth, ritualism, myth criticism, psychoanalysis, structuralism and symbolist theory deserve particular attention. All of these theories agree on one thing and that is the study of myth from various multidisciplinary perspectives with the aim of corroborating how the earliest human narrations have endured in the history of human culture by means of literary, pictorial or cinematographic creation. In addition, all of the aforementioned literary theories were of great help in the highly important process of re-mythologisation that took place at the end of the nineteenth century which helped to introduce myth and ancestral ritual as the epicentre of artistic creation. Theories such as those of Frazer, Freud, Jung, Joseph Campbell and Mircea Eliade were incorporated into both literary criticism as well as literary creation. It is due to the influence of all of these anthropological, psychological, sociological and linguistic theories in the study of myth and its relation with literature that an essential myth poetics was established for the literary creation of the first half of the twentieth century, attracting the attention of such authors as James Joyce, Thomas Mann, Franz Kafka, H. D. Lawrence and T. S. Eliot, amongst others. The main objective of this study is to try to understand and evaluate how myth poetics have influenced the cinematographic field. The aim is to identify the extent to which the aforementioned theories have been assimilated in film creation, using as a reference the filmography of the American film director Francis Ford Coppola. Through the analysis of some of his films, we will try to prove how cinema has been, albeit to a lesser extent than with literature, another step in the process of re-mythologization that affected western cultural production in the twentieth century. Taking this idea as our starting point, we have focused on some of the films of Francis Ford Coppola to examine how some of the critical and creative conclusions of myth poetics developed in the literary field in the first half of the twentieth century can be applied to cinema. As a reference, we will examine Apocalypse Now 1979, since it is a film which corresponds closely with the concept of a mythologizing film without
