The Looking-Glass Machado De Assis, 2022-12-13 Enchanting fresh translations of the finest stories by Brazil s greatest writer and author of short stories cited as the greatest black writer in Western literature Machado de Assis showed the human comedy is the same everywhere and in conflicts between man and society society usually wins The New Yorker Machado de Assis is one of the most enigmatic and fascinating story writers who ever lived What appear at first to be stately social satires reveal unanticipated depths through flashes of darkness and winking surrealism This new selection of his finest work translated by the prize winning Daniel Hahn showcases the many facets of his mercurial genius A brilliant scientist opens the first asylum in his home town only to start finding signs of insanity all around him A young lieutenant basks in praise but in solitude feels his identity fray into nothing The reading of a much loved elder statesman s journals reveals hidden thoughts of merciless cruelty This beautiful new collection of fresh translations offers the perfect gathering of his most beloved stories The Fortune Teller The Posthumous Portrait Gallery The Loan The Tale of the Cabriolet The Stick The Secret Cause The Canon or Metaphysics of Style The Alienist The Looking Glass Midnight Mass

Studies on the structure of time R. Buccheri, Vito di Gesù, Metod Saniga, 2012-12-06 Every human being is aware of the flow of time This fact is embodied in the existence of such notions as the past and the future the two domains being separated from each other by the single moment of the present While the past is regarded as fixed and definite the future is viewed as unknown uncertain and undetermined The only perceivable moment is the present the now the ever changing point moving from the past into the future Physics tells us a different story not only are the vast majority of physical laws time reversible but the concept of the now itself has no place at all in physics In other words the equations of physics do not distinguish between the past and the future and seem to be completely oblivious to the very idea of the present This book discusses the biological and psychological aspects of perception of time and the problems related to the determination of location arising from quantum physics together with comments and opinions from philosophers and physicists

Greek Mythic Heroines in Brazilian Literature and Performance , 2023-12-11 This volume presents a survey of the reception of Greek myths including Antigone Medea the Trojan cycle and Alcestis in Brazilian literature and stage performance The collection addresses the work of many innovative authors some of them great names of Brazilian literature such as Jorge Andrade and Nelson Rodrigues who are influential in this specific area of classical reception and well known by modern audiences This unique volume is the product of collaboration of many scholars with different affiliations under the coordination of the Federal

University of Rio de Janeiro and the Federal University of Minas Gerais Belo Horizonte two of the most prestigious universities in Brazil for the study of Classical and Reception Studies      Latin American Women and the Literature of Madness Elvira Sánchez-Blake, Laura Kanost, 2015-05-11 At the turn of the millennium narrative works by Latin American women writers have represented madness within contexts of sociopolitical strife and gender inequality This book explores contemporary Latin American realities through madness narratives by prominent women authors including Cristina Peri Rossi Uruguay Lya Luft Brazil Diamela Eltit Chile Cristina Rivera Garza Mexico Laura Restrepo Colombia and Irene Vilar Puerto Rico Close reading of these works reveals a pattern of literary techniques a poetics of madness employed by the writers to represent conditions that defy language make sociopolitical crises tangible and register cultural perceptions of mental illness through literature      Machado de Assis João Cezar de Castro Rocha, 2015-10-01 This book offers an alternative explanation for one of the core dilemmas of Brazilian literary criticism the midlife crisis Machado de Assis underwent from 1878 to 1880 the result of which was the writing of The Posthumous Memoirs of Br s Cubas as well as the remarkable production of his mature years with an emphasis on his masterpiece Dom Casmurro At the center of this alternative explanation Castro Rocha situates the fallout from the success enjoyed by E a de Queir s with the publication of Cousin Bas lio and Machado s two long texts condemning the author and his work Literary and aesthetic rivalries come to the fore allowing for a new theoretical framework based on a literary appropriation of thick description the method proposed by anthropologist Clifford Geertz From this method Castro Rocha derives his key hypothesis an unforeseen consequence of Machado s reaction to E a s novel was a return to the classical notion of aemulatio which led Machado to develop a poetics of emulation      The Contradictions of Science in Machado de Assis Viviane Carvalho da Annuniação, 2025-09-12 This book explores the role of science in the short stories of Machado de Assis focusing on works such as O Alienista 1882 A Serenissima Rep blica 1882 and Id ias de Can rio 1899 It examines how Machado uses scientific theories as literary and sociological devices to critique modern state institutions including hospitals prisons and government sponsored medical projects His scepticism extends to the liberal and politically independent scientific discourse of late nineteenth century Brazil a period of profound political economic and social change By questioning the idealized figure of the rational scientist Machado exposes the racial and economic hierarchies upheld by the dominant intelligentsia Madness egocentrism and the use of fantastic elements such as talking animals and absurd situations engage with the ancient tradition of the fable to highlight social tensions The result is an ethically charged poetics of unreason shaped by an ironic scepticism toward Romantic nationalism literary naturalism and scientific positivism particularly in relation to race gender class and nationality Perfect for scholars of literature history and cultural studies this book reinterprets Machado de Assis as a radical thinker whose fiction offers a penetrating critique of race gender and class in the making of modern Brazil It can also serve as an initial study for many interdisciplinary interpretations of his work opening new perspectives on his engagement with science and politics      The Shapes, Scenes and Strokes: Book Reviews 2015 Manuel Augusto Antão,2016-01-13 The experience of thinking about preparing or writing a text be it a book review or about an art exhibition cannot be limited solely to the artistic experience There must always be another kind of challenge I want that elusive thing that I found together with the encounter that I had with the object and the experience we lived together Every day when I wake up I don't think about writing but I wonder whether I'll be able to rise to the calling of that particular object a book a painting a play opera etc The characters in them are never marginal figures I know that they exist but I do not know them I do not confront myself with them or I only do so in highly stereotypical situations where they almost become invisible When I write about something this is my attempt at turning the invisible into the visible      An Introduction to W.R. Bion's 'A Memoir of the Future' P.C.

Sandler,2018-05-15 This book explores the W R Bion's capacity in the potential space when fantasy becomes imagination It looks at what can be called Political Meritocracy Bion's term for it was The Establishment and Technical Meritocracy

Making of Distinctions Antony Palackal,Nandita Chaudhary,Giuseppina Marsico,2021-01-01 The volume revolves around the theme inclusive oppositions in social sciences that address the issue of making of distinctions and create artificial dichotomies and dualistic view of society It is set against the currents of systematic reduction of anthropodiversity and psychodiversity which appears as a pathology of the current neo liberalist and colonialist model of development The volume is an attempt to overcome the colonial tendencies and forces to standardize and homogenize various categories and institutions in society by establishing structural relationality and intersectionality between the parts of the whole ecosystem where in the human and non human intersect and interact The volume brings together a unique collaboration in the field of Cultural Psychology and offers the intellectual tools to grasp how a syncretic understanding of Identity and Culture unfolds particularly in the key domain of gender The chapters and commentaries uncover cultural dynamics and identity formation from a specific location the region of Kerala in south western India The chapters and commentaries in this volume illustrates that Kerala is a cultural micro cosmos in which gender identity religion ethnicity caste global market and tradition intersect to create complex and multiple subjects that do not fit in binary categorizations The compiled volume will be of great value to scholars researchers and academicians in Social Sciences particularly Cultural Psychology Social Psychology Sociology Social Work Political Science Philosophy Anthropology and Economics
