Ozarks Fiddle Music Drew Beisswenger, 2016-04-19 This book which includes 308 tune transcriptions is organized around individual fiddlers who typically combine Appalachian style fiddling with rags pop standards Midwest style fiddling and sometimes a touch of Western swing to create a style often identifiable as Ozarks Thirty Ozarks fiddlers and their lives are highlighted with biographical sketches photographs and tune histories Another 50 great Ozarks fiddlers are presented in a similar manner but with less detail the book and accompanying CD with 37 tunes many recorded in the field emphasize the older fiddling traditions connected to the square dances and community events more than those connected to bluegrass music and modern contest fiddling Some of the tunes in the collection are old standbys such as Bile Them Cabbage while others such as Finley Creek Blues are unique to the region The book is the result of years of work by two respected researchers Gordon McCann won the prestigious Missouri Arts Award in 2002 for his decades of work documenting studying and accompanying Ozarks fiddle music Drew Beisswenger a music librarian at Missouri State University with a Ph D in ethnomusicology has published three other works about fiddle music and is known for his strong transcription and analysis skills

I'd Fight the World Peter La Chapelle, 2019-09-09 Long before the United States had presidents from the world of movies and reality TV we had scores of politicians with connections to country music In I d Fight the World Peter La Chapelle traces the deep bonds between country music and politics from the nineteenth century rise of fiddler politicians to more recent figures like Pappy O Daniel Roy Acuff and Rob Quist These performers and politicians both rode and resisted cultural waves some advocated for the poor and dispossessed and others voiced religious and racial anger but they all walked the line between exploiting their celebrity and righteously taking on the world La Chapelle vividly shows how country music campaigners have profoundly influenced the American political landscape

Committee on Leisure Time and Recreation, 1962      Hobohemia and the Crucifixion Machine Todd McCallum, 2014-12-28 In the early years of the Great Depression thousands of unemployed homeless transients settled into Vancouver's hobo jungle The jungle operated as a distinct community in which goods were exchanged and shared directly without benefit of currency The organization of life was immediate and consensual conducted in the absence of capital accumulation But as the transients moved from the jungles to the city they made innumerable demands on Vancouver's Relief Department consuming financial resources at a rate that threatened the city with bankruptcy In response the municipality instituted a card control system no longer offering relief recipients currency to do with as they chose It also implemented

new investigative and assessment procedures including office spies to weed out organizational inefficiencies McCallum argues that threatened by this ungovernable society Vancouver's Relief Department employed Fordist management methods that ultimately stripped the transients of their individuality Vancouver's municipal government entered into contractual relationships with dozens of private businesses tendering bids for meals in much the same fashion as for printing jobs and construction projects As a result entrepreneurs clamoured to get their share of the state spending With the emergence of work relief camps the provincial government harnessed the only currency that homeless men possessed their muscle This new form of unfree labour aided the province in developing its tourist driven image economy as well as facilitating the transportation of natural resources and manufactured goods It also led eventually to the most significant protest movement of 1930s Canada the On to Ottawa Trek Hobohemia and the Crucifixion Machine explores the connections between the history of transiency and that of Fordism offering a new interpretation of the economic and political crises that wracked Canada in the early years of the Great Depression Missouri Folklore Society Journal ,1998 "Good Morning";Music Calls & Directions for Old-Time Dancing NULL DATA.,1943 Physical Education for Children Elizabeth Halsey,Lorena Ray Porter,1963 City Folk Daniel J.
