provide a more meaningful and holistic educational experience for their students Student Engagement Across Pacific Asia Luke K. Fryer, Ronnel B. King, Lily M. Zeng, 2024-04-17 Student engagement at the programme and university levels are both critical to students success in higher education This book establishes a theoretical and empirical framework for assessing these student experiences together To this end the book brings together the two major fields of university quality assurance US university engagement and UK programme experiences This edited book then shows how this integrated approach applies to university experiences across Pacific Asia Hong Kong Mainland China Philippines Korea Japan and Taiwan It demonstrates how the proposed quality assurance framework can be applied as an intra institutional tool to enhance student experiences For readers interested in future of Asia Pacific higher education this book presents a path towards enhanced cross national communication between Asia Pacific universities The First-Year Seminar Jennifer R. Keup, Joni Webb Petschauer, James E. Groccia, Mary Stuart Hunter, Brad Garner, Jennifer A. Latino, Michelle L. Ashcraft, Daniel B. Friedman, 2023-07-24 The First Year Seminar Designing Implementing and Assessing Courses to Support Student Learning and Success a five volume series is designed to assist educators who are interested in launching a first year seminar or revamping an existing program Each volume examines a different aspect of first year seminar design or administration and offers suggestions for practice grounded in research on the seminar the literature on teaching and learning and campus based examples Because national survey research suggests that the seminar exists in a variety of forms on college campuses and that some campuses combine one or more of these forms to create a hybrid seminar the series offers a framework for decision making rather than a blueprint for course design The series includes Volume I Designing and Administering the Course Volume II Instructor Training and Development Volume III Teaching in the First Year Seminar Volume IV Using Peers in the Classroom Volume V Assessing the First Year Seminar Editors Authors Volume I Jennifer R Keup Joni Webb Petschauer Volume II James E Groccia Mary Stuart Hunter Volume III Brad Garner Volume IV Jennifer A Latino Michelle L Ashcraft Volume V Daniel B Friedman Emerging Research and Practices on First-Year Students Ryan D. Padgett, 2014-09-09 What factors contribute to students lasting success Much research has explored the impact of the first year of college on student retention and success With the new performance based funding initiatives institutional administrators are taking a laser focused approach to aligning retention and success strategies to first year student transition points This volume enlightens the discussion and highlights new directions for assessment and research practices within the scope of the first year experience Administrators faculty and data scientists provide a conceptual and analytical approach to investigating the first year experience for entry level and seasoned practitioners alike The emerging research throughout this volume suggests that while many first year programs and services have significant benefits across a number of success outcomes these benefits may not be universal for all students This volume Examines sophisticated empirical models Provides critical assessment practices and implications Examines the four year college and the two year institution which is just as critical This is the 161st volume of this Jossey Bass quarterly report series Timely and comprehensive New Directions for Institutional Research provides planners and administrators in all types of academic institutions with guidelines in such areas as resource coordination information analysis program evaluation and institutional management

Creating Multicultural Change on Campus Raechele L. Pope, Amy L. Reynolds, John A. Mueller, 2014-06-16 Embrace the best practices for initiating multicultural change in individuals groups and institutions Higher education institutions have begun to take steps toward addressing multicultural issues on campuses but more often than not those in charge of the task have received little to no training in the issues that are paramount in serving culturally diverse students Creating Multicultural Change on Campus is a response to this problem offering new conceptualizations and presenting practical strategies and best practices for higher education professionals who want to foster the awareness knowledge and skills necessary for multicultural change on an institutional level In Creating Multicultural Change on Campus the authors of the classic text Multicultural Competence in Student Affairs delve deep into key concepts in multicultural organizational development guiding readers who want to enact change not just at the individual level but also at the group and institutional levels Readers will be introduced to frameworks that are crucial for creating inclusive welcoming and affirming campus environments You ll also find comprehensive examples from several institutions along with specific examples of effective multicultural practices that are useful for real world situations The book Provides the strategies frameworks and expert guidance for recognizing and addressing multicultural issues in institutions of higher learning Offers a rich understanding of both Multicultural Organizational Development MCOB and the Multicultural Change Intervention Matrix MCIM and how these models are important for evaluating environments and outcomes Is appropriate for those who serve students directly as well as higher education leaders and administrators who create professional development programs Is designed as a practical guide and filled with specific examples to help readers apply strategies to their own campuses A much needed resource this book can help lead institutions toward meaningful action that will have a positive impact for all individuals in a student body and the professionals who serve them Resources in Education ,2000-10
