Space Entrepreneurship The New York Times Editorial Staff,2018-07-15 Space flight used to be something that only governments participated in often in conjunction with military defense However today space is a new wide open frontier for entrepreneurs and corporations to develop and implement new kinds of space travel and habitats What was once done just for exploration and advancing science is now a competition for companies such as SpaceX and Virgin Galactic who seek to develop products that not only bring humans into space and allow them to live there but also generate profits for the entrepreneurs who create them These articles explore this phenomenon including its advances and setbacks

Space Expansionism and Criminology Dawn L. Rothe,Victoria E. Collins,2025-02-18 We have entered a recent zeitgeist the era of the new space age driven by billionaires technological advancements and a few dominating state powers While the race to space may be said to offer new opportunities for humanity we ask is it predicated on the same logics and historical patterns of the past This question guides our approach and critical assessment of human expansionism into space

Space Expansionism and Criminology The Emerging Terrain of Crime Harm and Violence offers readers a critical analysis of space expansionism and today's race to space that has come to define our contemporary era Taking a retrospective and prospective approach we delve into the choices being made the justifications being offered and those excluded from the hegemonic discourse of the benefits of humans as extraplanetary beings

Space Expansionism and Criminology includes chapters on the historical roots of today's space race weaponization and realpolitik space junk and debris space mining and resource extrapolation the burgeoning space tourism market the manufacturing of space nostalgia from the 1950s through today and efforts towards and claims making for space colonization to save Earth and humanity

The Digital City Germaine R. Halegoua,2020-01-21 Shows how digital media connects people to their lived environments Every day millions of people turn to small handheld screens to search for their destinations and to seek recommendations for places to visit They may share texts or images of themselves and these places en route or after their journey is complete We don't consciously reflect on these activities and probably don't associate these practices with constructing a sense of place Critics have argued that digital media alienates users from space and place but this book argues that the exact opposite is true that we habitually use digital technologies to re-embed ourselves within urban environments The Digital City advocates for the need to rethink our everyday interactions with digital infrastructures navigation technologies and social media as we move through the world Drawing on five case studies from global and mid-sized cities to illustrate the concept of re-placing Germaine R Halegoua shows how different populations employ urban broadband networks social and locative media platforms digital navigation smart cities and creative placemaking initiatives to turn urban spaces into places with deep meanings and emotional attachments Through timely narratives of everyday urban life Halegoua argues that people use digital media to create a unique sense of place within rapidly changing urban environments and that a sense of place is integral to understanding contemporary relationships with digital media
