From Occupation To Independence:

Foreign Relations of the United States United States. Department of State, 1949 The Eve of Paramour Gaston Vilare, 2022-08-01 The Eve of Paramour is a mythical and romantic exercise dealing with the ontological identities of a fragmented Haitian people facing the disintegration of its homeland Guided by a phenomenology of questions as the biological Big Bang of culture a poetic manifesto and a myth of inspiration it seeks to create a mythical universe to replace the myths of the homeland threatened by degradation Polarized between desolation at home and nostalgia abroad it attempts nonetheless to offer a utopian metaphysical solution to help with the restoration of a common identity for Haitians everywhere Written in a disjunctive and often nihilistic postmodern trend it mirrors the wretched and chaotic states governing the nation of Haiti today Although inspired by the Haitian condition The Eve of Paramour finds universality in the existential ontological crisis facing all refugees and their descendants who have had their homelands destroyed by dictators wars and natural disasters Adult Suffrage and Political Administrations in Jamaica 1944-2002 Trevor Munroe, Arnold Bertram, 2006 Since 1944 the Jamaican people without ethnic or religious strife civil war military coup one party dictatorship assassination of political leaders insurgency or genocide have voted out governments and voted in opposition parties in free and fair elections a record in democratic governance equalled by only a handful of states worldwide In this volume Adult Suffrage and Political Administrations in Jamaica 1944 2002 Trevor Munroe and Arnold Bertram both active participants in this process document critical aspects of this record Key features include the elections through which the consolidation of democracy occurred the representatives their gender education occupation age whom the people chose to form 13 successive governments and parliaments the laws that the legislature passed and the institutions governments established in building a modern democratic state advances and failures political economic social and cultural of each administration comparison of the performances of successive administrations and the critical challenges facing the Jamaican people and the new leaders BOOK JACKET Department of State Publication , 1975 Gender, Power, and Military Occupations Christine De Matos, Rowena Ward, 2012-04-27 Military occupations and interventions have a gendered impact on both those engaged in occupying and those whose lands have been occupied Yet little is known about this gendered impact in terms of both masculinities and femininities either historically or in contemporary times While research in this area has begun to grow since events in Iraq and Afghanistan this collection helps redress the relative neglect by examining and analysing the impact of occupation on men and women both occupied and occupier in a variety of geographical spaces from Japan to Palestine to Iraq Gendered perspectives are also intimately tied to analyses of power how power is enacted by the occupier how powerlessness is experienced by the occupied how power is negotiated shared compromised subverted reclaimed power as visible and invisible institutional power contested power in post conflict societies and power as discursively constructed The term military occupation is interpreted broadly to include occupation interventions the presence of military bases and peacekeeping post conflict operations This interpretation allows space to demonstrate that the lines between each definition are blurred especially when it comes to analysing gender and power

Rastafari Reasoning and the RastaWoman Jeanne Christensen, 2014-02-14 Rastafari Reasoning and the RastaWoman Gender Constructions in the Shaping of Rastafari Livity examines the complex ways that gender and race shaped a liberation movement propelled by the Caribbean evolution of an African spiritual ethos Jeanne Christensen proposes that Rastafari represents the most recent reworking of this spiritual ethos referred to as African religiosity The book contributes a new perspective to the literature on Rastafari and through a historical lens corrects the predominant static view of Rastafari women In certain Rastafari manifestations a growing livity developed by RastaMen eventually excluded women from an important ritual called Reasoning a conscious search for existential and ontological truth through self understanding performed in a group setting Restoring agency to the RastaWoman Christensen argues that RastaWomen intimately in touch with this spiritual ethos challenged oppressive structures within the movement itself They skirted official restrictions speaking out in public and written forums whenever such avenues presented themselves and searched for their own truth through conscious intentional self examination characteristic of the Reasoning ritual With its powerful theoretically informed narrative Rastafari Reasoning and the RastaWoman Gender Constructions in the Shaping of Rastafari Livity will appeal to students and scholars interested in religious transformation resistance movements gender issues critical race studies and the history and culture of the English speaking Caribbean

Bonds of Empire Anne Spry Rush, 2011-06-09 An examination of how from 1900 through the 1960s West Indians employed their British identity both to establish a place for themselves in the British imperial world and to negotiate the cultural challenges of decolonization as Caribbean peoples

From Sites of Occupation to Symbols of Multiculturalism Iveta Silova, 2006-03-01 Rarely do we find books in educational research that are both thick in context and rich in theory Usually books emphasize one over the other Authors that engage in thick descriptions tend to fall short of explaining what larger theoretical issue their case stands for Vice versa authors who make a case for a particular theory do not always describe their case in sufficient detail From Sites to Occupation to Symbols of Multiculturalism is a remarkable exception The book is a major break through in case study methodology multiculturalism and policy borrowing lending research The book investigates a puzzle how is it that one and the same system the system of separate schooling for Latvian and Russian speakers is seen as a site of occupation during one period 1987 1990 and as a symbol of multiculturalism in the next 1991 1999 The system has stayed in place but the meaning attached to it has been completely inverted Is cultural change without structural change possible Does it mean that the dual school system has become anachronistic and will eventually disappear in light of the cultural changes of the past decade The book is the story of a great metamorphosis of one and the same system of separate schooling that at first unbelievable gradually makes sense

Asian Social Work Ian Shaw, Rosaleen Ow, 2019-08-28 The countries of East and Southeast Asia taken as a whole display a laboratory of social and political conditions with individual countries presenting a variety of political cultural and social characteristics Some with one party state systems others with stable liberal democracies and yet others with more fragile democratic systems As such the region presents a unique opportunity to examine the relationship between diverse national environments and social work education regimes In this book social work educators and theorists from around East and Southeast Asia provide accounts of the social work programs within the higher education systems of their respective countries and compare them to those of their neighbours This is the first book to offer a structured account of how social work and social work education have emerged and finds their present place in the historical economic political urban rural and higher education contexts of Southeast Asia and East Asia Experts from the region assess the extent to which these countries systems possess a collective coherence while examining the diversity among them Indonesia Gouri Mirpuri, Robert Cooper, Michael Spilling, 2012-01-15 This title provides comprehensive information on the geography history wildlife governmental structure economy cultural diversity peoples religion and culture of Indonesia All books of the critically acclaimed Cultures of the World series ensure an immersive experience by offering vibrant photographs with descriptive nonfiction narratives and interactive activities such as creating an authentic traditional dish from an easy to follow recipe Copious maps and detailed timelines present the past and present of the country while exploration of the art and architecture help your readers to understand why diversity is the spice of Life Palaeoeskimo Occupations at Port Refuge, High Arctic Canada Robert McGhee, 1979-01-01 Port Refuge is a small bay on the south coast of Grinnell Peninsula Devon Island in the High Arctic Archaeological work between 1972 and 1977 recovered remains of several prehistoric occupations of this area which are ascribed to the Independence I Pre Dorset Independence II early Dorset late Dorset and Thule cultures This report describes the archaeological material relating to the early Arctic Small Tool tradition occupations Published in English Order from Transfer Günter Frankenberg, 2013-01-01 A fascinating collection of essays commenting on and developing Frankenberg s IKEA theory of legal transfer With valuable theoretical analyses comparative studies attention to gender issues post colonial contexts imposed law and legal history this book is essential reading for anyone thinking about the circulation of legal models especially but not only in the area of constitutional law David Nelken University of Cardiff UK Frankenberg s work gives a new insight of what comparative law can be in the context of globalization representing an outstanding achievement His theory of transfer supersedes the metaphors of mainstream scholarship displaying that constitutions are not mere commodities or items to be assembled The real matter is rather which meanings are generated through transfer In this way beyond any usual flat version we may perceive that any constitutional relocation exhibits a reappraisal of the whole world we live in Pier Giuseppe Monateri University of Turin Italy Constitutional orders and legal regimes are established and changed through the importing and exporting of ideas and ideologies norms institutions and arguments The contributions in this book discuss this assumption and address theoretical questions methodological problems and political projects connected with the transfer of constitutions and law Some of the chapters focus on the pathways risks and side effects of legal constitutional transfers in specific situations such as postcolonial societies and occupied territories Others follow law beyond the official arenas into systems of legal pluralism while others analyze how experimentalism generates hybrid constitutional orders This interdisciplinary multi jurisdictional study will appeal to researchers academics and advanced students in the fields of comparative constitutional law comparative law and legal theory

History of Military Occupation from 1792 to 1914

Peter M. R. Stirk, 2016-03-04 An understanding of military occupation as a distinct phenomenon first emerged in the 18th century This book shows how this understanding developed and the problems that the occupiers the occupied commentators and the courts encountered It covers all major occupations including France Sicily Greece Belgium Syria Mexico Bosnia Herzegovina Cyprus Egypt Korea Peking the Boer Republics Latin America and those related to the Napoleonic Wars the Mexican American War the American Civil War the Franco Prussian War the Russo Turkish War and the Spanish American War

Dementia Care in Nursing

Sue Barker, Michele Board, 2012-06-22 Dementia care presents a huge challenge to health and social care both now and in the future The number of those in the UK with dementia is expected to increase to 1.4 million in the next 30 years Regardless of the field of nursing all nurses need to understand the experiences of a person with dementia and the issues related to their care This book provides an introduction to dementia care for nursing students with an emphasis on humanizing care Real life case studies show the person behind the patient and explore the ethical dilemmas that a nurse may face

Vodou and Christianity in Interreligious Dialogue

Celucien L. Joseph, Charlene Desir, Lewis A. Clormeus, 2023-10-30 Vodou and Christianity in Interreligious Dialogue addresses both historical factors and ideological issues that created antagonism and conflict between Christians and Vodouists in Haiti The book offers practical solutions and strategies to help create a harmonious and peaceful environment between religious practitioners associated with Vodou and Christianity Toward this goal this volume considers various perspectives and theories such as autobiography anthropology ethnographic fieldwork religious experience and gender to examine the subject matter This volume offers practical examples and resources on how to engage in interreligious dialogue and promote interreligious education in Haiti There are three philosophical and practical ideas underlying this book project 1 it is grounded on the belief that religion has value and it could bring social goods to different communities and enhance human dignity and justice 2 it is premised on the idea that dialogue and cooperation are necessary for nation building and human development as democratic ideals and that one of the leading functions of the world's religious traditions is to promote both cooperation and dialogue through mutual understanding and for the common good and 3 that the power and public role of religion in society can be used as a major force of unification and peace building among divergent factions and schools of thought and to promote reconciliation mutual respect and friendship in the world

Understanding Domestic Violence as a Gender-based Human Rights Violation Jurgita Bukauskaite, 2023-04-14 Examining the prevalent issue of domestic violence this book breaks down the reasons behind the ineffectiveness of existing human rights instruments and the gaps in current legal systems failing those in need Through a variety of key case studies it reveals significant gaps in the legal conceptualisation of domestic violence between human rights standards on the one hand and the national legal systems examined those of Ireland and Lithuania on the other The book reveals that contrary to gender based universal human rights approaches and despite recent legislative reforms the legal concept of domestic violence is gender blind It fails to capture gender based empirical realities on the ground rendering national legal systems devoid of an empirically informed theoretical basis for addressing the problem Despite the differences in the contextual backgrounds of the two case study countries the legislation on domestic violence is underpinned by patriarchal beliefs in both This book employs a gender based examination of the issue that will be of key interest to scholars legal practitioners civil society actors and students of feminist legal theory gender equality gender in international law gender and human rights and conceptual democracy Michigan
