From Pergamon to Sperlonga Nancy T. de Grummond, Brunilde S. Ridgway, 2023-04-28 This volume brings together the work of leading scholars on two of the most important yet puzzling extant ensembles of Hellenistic Age sculpture the Great Altar at Pergamon with its Gigantomachy and scenes from the life of Telephos and the Cave at Sperlonga in Italy with its epic themes connected especially with the adventures of Odysseus From Pergamon to Sperlonga has three aims to update the scholarship on two important monuments of ancient art and architecture to debate questions of iconography authorship and date and to broaden the scope of discussion on these monuments beyond the boundaries of studies done in the past In addition the volume brings forward new ideas about how these two monuments are connected and discusses possible means by which stylistic influences were transmitted between them

The Construct of Identity in Hellenistic Judaism Erich S. Gruen, 2016-09-12 This book collects twenty two previously published essays and one new one by Erich S Gruen who has written extensively on the literature and history of early Judaism and the experience of the Jews in the Greco Roman world His many articles on this subject have however appeared mostly in conference volumes and Festschriften and have therefore not had wide circulation By putting them together in a single work this will bring the essays to the attention of a much broader scholarly readership and make them more readily available to students in the fields of ancient history and early Judaism The pieces are quite varied but develop a number of connected and related themes Jewish identity in the pagan world the literary representations by Jews and pagans of one another the interconnections of Hellenism and Judaism and the Jewish experience under Hellenistic monarchies and the Roman empire

Modes of Viewing in Hellenistic Poetry and Art Graham Zanker, 2008-02-04 Taking a fresh look at the poetry and visual art of the Hellenistic age from the death of Alexander the Great in 323 B C to the Romans defeat of Cleopatra in 30 B C Graham Zanker makes enlightening discoveries about the assumptions and conventions of Hellenistic poets and artists and their audiences Zanker s exciting new interpretations closely compare poetry and art for the light each sheds on the other He finds for example an exuberant expansion of subject matter in the Hellenistic periods in both literature and art as styles and iconographic traditions reserved for grander concepts in earlier eras were applied to themes motifs and subjects that were emphatically less grand

Greek Myths in Roman Art and Culture Zahra Newby, 2016-09-15 A new reading of the portrayal of Greek myths in Roman art revealing important shifts in Roman values and identities

The Colonized Apostle Christopher D. Stanley, Epic Visions Helen Lovatt, Caroline Vout, 2013-08-15 A wide ranging interdisciplinary collection exploring different ways of visualising Greek and Roman epic in both ancient and modern culture

Shaping Roman Landscape Mantha Zarmakoupi, 2023-08-22 A groundbreaking ecocritical study that examines how ideas about the natural and built environment informed architectural and decorative trends of the Roman Late Republican and Early Imperial periods Landscape emerged as a significant theme in the Roman Late Republican and Early Imperial periods Writers described landscape in texts and treatises its qualities were praised and sought out in everyday life and contemporary perceptions of the natural and built environment as well as ideas about nature and art were intertwined with architectural and decorative trends This illustrated volume examines how representations of real and depicted landscapes and the merging of both in visual space contributed to the creation of novel languages of art and architecture Drawing on a diverse body of archaeological art historical and literary evidence this study applies an ecocritical lens that moves beyond the limits of traditional iconography Chapters consider for example how garden designs and paintings appropriated the cultures and ecosystems brought under Roman control and the ways miniature landscape paintings chronicled the transformation of the Italian shoreline with colonnaded villas pointing to the changing relationship of humans with nature Making a timely and original contribution to current discourses on ecology and art and architectural history Shaping Roman Landscape reveals how Roman ideas of landscape and the decorative strategies at imperial domus and villa complexes that gave these ideas shape were richly embedded with meanings of nature culture and labor

The Journal of Ecclesiastical History Clifford William Dugmore, 2001 Picturing Paul in Empire Harry O. Maier, 2013-10-24 Pauline Christianity sprang to life in a world of imperial imagery In the streets and at the thoroughfares in the market places and on its public buildings and monuments and especially on its coins the Roman Empire's imperial iconographers displayed imagery that aimed to persuade the Empire's diverse and mostly illiterate inhabitants that Rome had a divinely appointed right to rule the world and to be honoured and celebrated for its dominion Harry O Maier places the later often contested letters and theology associated with Paul in the social and political context of the Roman Empire's visual culture of politics and persuasion to show how followers of the apostle visualized the reign of Christ in ways consistent with central themes of imperial iconography They drew on the Empire's picture language to celebrate the dominion and victory of the divine Son Jesus to persuade their audiences to honour his dominion with praise and thanksgiving Key to this imperial embrace were Colossians Ephesians and the Pastoral Epistles Yet these letters remain neglected territory in consideration of engagement with and reflection of imperial political ideals and goals amongst Paul and his followers This book fills a gap in scholarly work on Paul and Empire by taking up each contested letter in turn to investigate how several of its main themes reflect motifs found in imperial images

Directory of Published Proceedings, 2003 American Journal of Archaeology and of the History of the Fine Arts, 2011 Deliciae Fictiles V. Networks and Workshops Patricia Lulof, Ilaria Manzini, Carlo Rescigno, 2019-09-16 Temples are the most prestigious buildings in the urban landscape of ancient Italy emerging within a network of centres of the then known Mediterranean world Notwithstanding the fragmentary condition of the buildings remains these monuments and especially their richly decorated roofs are crucial sources of information on the constitution of political social and craft identities acting as agents in displaying the meaning of images The subject of this volume is thematic and includes material from the Eastern Mediterranean including Greece and Turkey Contributors discuss the network between patron elites and specialized craft communities that were responsible for the sophisticated terracotta decoration of temples in Italy between 600 and 100 BC focusing on the mobility of craft people and craft traditions and techniques asking how images iconographies practices and materials can be used to explain the organization of ancient production distribution and consumption Special attention has been given to relations with the Eastern Mediterranean Greece and Anatolia Investigating craft communities workshop organizations and networks has never been thoroughly undertaken for this period and region nor for this exceptionally rich category of materials or for the craftspeople producing the architectural terracottas Papers in this volume aim to improve our understanding of roof production and construction in this period to reveal relationships between main production centres and to study the possible influences of immigrant craftspeople
