From Spruce To Magnolia Poems Thoughts And Tale:

From Spruce To Magnolia Belle Schiff, 2004-11-01 This book was assembled as the author's song to the earth and its creatures and its Creator. The author did not work lifelong to be a poet; rather, poems occasionally emerged as solace, as wordplay, as celebration, as observation, and as philosophy. Ms. Schiff has felt free to collate at will a biographical sketch, poems, and notes presented in historical order, a true story of Clare, and a true account of a powerful incident in her own life. All of these are richly illustrated by artists and photographers. This book will stimulate, startle, renew, and also promote deep recollection.
