Historiography Min Wang, 2013-07-05 This book mainly discusses about the alter ego perspectives in literary historiography This comparative analysis of the major Chinese literary histories in China and in the West brings to light the alter ego perspectives of Stephen Owen in literary historiography The most interesting part of the book will be the interpretation of new notions and perspectives proposed by Stephen Owen especially in the newly published The Cambridge History of Chinese Literature 2010 This book gives a detailed overview about the different stages of writing Chinese literary history and the different modes of literary historiography in China and in the West Two case studies of Chinese poems are made on the notion of discursive communities and the Cultural Tang Readers will a better understanding about the paradigm of literary historiography and the interrelationships between the different modes of literary historiography and the intellectual history

The Cambridge History of Chinese Literature: From 1375 Kang-i Sun Chang, Stephen Owen, 2010 Stephen Owen is James Bryant Conant Professor of Chinese at Harvard University Book Jacket Dreaming across Languages and Cultures Laurence Wong, 2014-10-02 Dreaming across Languages and Cultures A Study of the Literary Translations of the Hong lou meng also called The Dream of the Red Chamber Red Chamber Dream or The Story of the Stone is a groundbreaking monograph in translation studies Integrating theory with practice it examines analyses compares and evaluates 14 versions of the greatest Chinese novel in five major European languages namely English French German Italian and Spanish In this study translation linguistic literary and semiotic theories as well as the author s own experience of translating Dante and Shakespeare are drawn on Though primarily aimed at scholars specializing in translation and in Hong lou meng studies the book also introduces students of Chinese literature comparative literature and cultural studies to new interdisciplinary perspectives By illustrating salient points with lively and interesting examples too it enables the non specialist to see the fascinating intricacies of language and translation as well as the complex relationship between translation and culture In view of its new approach to a new topic of its many impressive insights and above all of the amazing depth and breadth of its investigation Dreaming across Languages and Cultures is truly monumental A Bibliography of Studies and Translations of Modern Chinese Literature, 1918-1942 Donald A. Gibbs, Yun-chen Li, 2020-03-17 Foreword by Ezra F Vogel Director of the East Asia Research Center Introduction Includes sources studies of modern Chinese literature studies and translations of individual authors and unidentified authors Some titles shown in Chinese characters Three appendices Index Dream of the Red Chamber Riccardo Moratto, Kanglong Liu, Di-kai Chao, 2022-12-15 This edited volume contains an excellent collection of contributions and presents various informative topics under the central theme literary and translation approaches to China's greatest classical novel Honglouloumeng Acclaimed as one of the Four Great Classical Novels of Chinese literature Honglouloumeng known in English as The Dream of the Red Chamber or The Story of the Stone epitomizes 18th century Chinese social and cultural life Owing to its kaleidoscopic description of Chinese life and culture the novel has also exerted a significant impact on world literature Its various translations either full length or abridged have been widely read by an international audience The contributors to this volume provide a renewed perspective into Honglouloumeng studies by bringing together scholarship in the fields of literary and translation studies Specifically the use of corpora in the framework of digital humanities in a number of chapters helps re address many issues of the novel and its translations from an innovative angle The book is an insightful resource for both scholars of Chinese literature and for linguists with a focus on translation studies Chinese Aesthetics and Literature Corinne H. Dale, 2004-03-18 Featuring the work of renowned scholars this anthology provides an introduction to Chinese aesthetics and literature Vignettes from the Late Ming , 2011-07-01 This anthology presents seventy translated and annotated short essays or hsiao p in by fourteen well known sixteenth and seventeenth century Chinese writers Hsiao p in characterized by spontaneity and brevity were a relatively informal variation on the established classical prose style in which all scholars were trained Written primarily to amuse and entertain the reader hsiao p in reflect the rise of individualism in the late Ming period and collectively provide a panorama of the colorful life of the age Critics condemned the genre as escapist because of its focus on life's sensual pleasures and triviality and over the next two centuries many of these playful and often irreverent works were officially censored Today the essays provide valuable and rare accounts of the details over everyday life in Ming China as well as displays of wit and delightful turns of phrase 白雲, 2002 Like Pa Chin's earlier novel Family Cold Nights is a masterpiece both as fiction and as social commentary First published in 1947 Cold Nights is set in Chungking at the end of World War II It describes the frustration of incompatible relationships among mother son and daughter in law as they deteriorate amidst the social weariness and ennui which pervaded China in the 1940s Victimized by circumstances and by themselves they are average people seeking average lives their plight is shared with the rest of humanity and is depicted with compassion tempered with unflinching realism Excursions in Chinese Culture Marie Chan, Jinsheng Tao, 2002 This eclectic collection includes an introduction to the Ming scholar Yang Shen and his wife and translations of some of their poems an exploration of a middle ground between the literalist and non literalists approaches to Chinese English verse translation a close critical analysis of the relationship between the tonal patterns of a Tang regulated quatrain and poetic meaning and a inquiry into the poetic use of function words in Tang poetry Mouse vs. Cat in Chinese Literature ,2019-03-18 In literatures worldwide animal fables have been analyzed for their revealingly anthropomorphic views but until now little attention has been given to the animal tales of China The complex competitive relationship between rodents vilified as thieves of grain and the felines with whom they are perennially at war is explored in this presentation of Chinese tales about cats and mice Master translator Wilt Idema situates them in an overview of animal tales in world literature in the Chinese literary tradition as a whole and within Chinese imaginative depictions of animals The tales demonstrate the animals symbolism and their unusually prominent and verbal role in the stories These readings depict cats and mice in conflict in marital bonds and in litigation most centrally in a legal case of a mouse against a cat in the underworld court of King Yama Many of the stories adopt the perspective of the mice as animals merely trying to survive while also recognizing that cats are natural hunters This entertaining volume will appeal to readers interested in Chinese literature and society comparative literature and posthumanist consideration of human animal relations The Columbia Guide to Modern Chinese History R. Keith Schoppa,2000-08-05 China the world s oldest and most populous state remains an enigma to most people in the West even at a time when that country is playing an increasingly prominent role on the international stage At the heart of modern Chinese history have been the efforts of the Chinese people to transform their polity into a modern nation state the Confucian orthodoxy into an ideology that can help direct that process and an agrarian economy into an industrial one These efforts are ongoing and of great importance This book is both an introduction to the major features of modern Chinese history and a resource for researchers interested in virtually any topic relating to the Chinese experience of the last 220 years This valuable reference contains a historical narrative providing a comprehensive overview of five core aspects of Chinese history domestic politics society the economy the world of culture and thought and relations with the outside world a compendium of 250 short descriptive articles on key figures events and terms a resource guide containing approximately 500 annotated entries for the most authoritative sources for further research in English as well as descriptions of important films depicting modern China and a guide to electronic resources and appendices including a chronology excerpts from key primary source documents and a wealth of tables and graphs on demographic social and economic trends National Endowment for the Humanities ...
