From The Faraway Nearby Georgia O'Keeffe As Icon:

From the Faraway Nearby Ellen Bradbury, 1998 Georgia O'Keeffe Georgia O'Keeffe, Jonathan Stuhlman, Barbara Buhler Lynes, 2007 O'Keeffe's most significant contribution to art history was her unique approach to abstraction. This book examines for the first time an overlooked aspect of O'Keeffe's work focusing on her distinctive use of circular forms as an abstract motif. Ghost Ranch and the Faraway Nearby Craig Varjabedian, 2009-06-16 For more than twenty years Craig Varjabedian has explored and photographed the red cliffs and sweeping plains of the fabled 21,000 acre Ghost Ranch in northern New Mexico. In Ghost Ranch and the Faraway Nearby he shares over ninety new duotone photographs capturing its evanescent light. These images reach beyond familiar ideas associated with the Ranch such as its renown as a site of personal renewal and transformation into Varjabedian's singular vision of his subject and its ties to ideas of identity, place and perception. To further illuminate the experience of Ghost Ranch Varjabedian gathered an appreciation of Ghost Ranch written by Georgia O'Keeffe and essays written to accompany his photographs. These include an evocative introduction by photographer Jay Packer, an essay by writer Marin Sardy examining the place's natural features and social history and topical essays by theological studies professor Belden C. Lane, arts writer Douglas A. Fairfield and former Ghost Ranch executive director Rob Craig. Also included are forewords by Cathy L. Wright, director of the Albuquerque Museum of Art and History and Debra Hepler, executive director of Ghost Ranch. Georgia O'Keeffe Charles C. Eldredge, Georgia O'Keeffe, 1993-01-01 Reproductions of O'Keeffe's works highlight this examination of the artist's life including her place in the American tradition and her return to the rural subjects of her childhood. Maverick Autobiographies Cathryn Halverson, 2004 Halverson examines why and brings their texts back to light through a weaving of biography, literary analysis and cultural history in the process urging us to reformulate our notions of what it means to be a western writer. Halverson's discoveries will appeal to scholars and critics of Western American literature and women's studies. BOOK JACKET Under the Rock Umbrella William J. Walsh, 2006 American poet born between 1951 and 1977 who was not influenced by popular music and the paradigm shift that occurred in the country. Under the Rock Umbrella brings together the best poets influenced by this powerful era in music to allow us to examine the music of each poet's own verse. information on getting around and advice for travel with children      The Tree of the Doves Christopher Merrill, 2011 Taking several ageless questions Where do we come from Where are we going What shall we do as his point of departure award winning author Christopher Merrill explores the related issues of terror modernity tradition and epochal transformation In three extended essays Merrill observes the performance of a banned ritual in the Malaysian province of Kelantan traces Saint John Perse's epic voyage from Beijing to Ulan Bator in 1921 and relates it to the China of today and embarks on a trip across the Levant in 2007 in the wake of the American wars in Iraq and Afghanistan Merrill asserts that it is in this trinity of human actions ceremony expedition and war that history is formed and that the political environmental and social changes we are witnessing now presage the end of one order and the creation of another      Things of the Hidden God Christopher Merrill, 2016-03-07 If I had learned anything during the war it was that our walk in the sun is brief and so I resolved to wander from monastery to monastery a sojourner in the world of last things So poet and journalist Christopher Merrill tells us near the beginning of this gripping account of the transforming pilgrimages he made to Mount Athos in Greece in the aftermath of the Balkan wars of the 1990s It was time for me to come to terms with the way my life had turned out the love I had squandered the misgivings I had about my vocation and my faith the dread I felt at every turn In despair and longing to end his spiritual desolation Merrill became one of a handful of visitors permitted entry to Mount Athos a mysterious land that for more than a thousand years has been the secret heart of the Eastern Orthodox Church There amid the beautiful terrain the ancient rhythms and the spiritual rigor of this holy place he found a haven As Merrill's story unfolds we too hike the rough trails of Athos exploring a place and a way of life scarcely altered since medieval times We share encounters with monks and spiritual seekers visit Athos's twenty monasteries where exquisite art treasures are sequestered make our way to lonely hermitages that clutch the cliffs above the sea Like Merrill we come to consider existence in a new and different light Part journal of personal discovery part meditation upon the history and traditions of the contemplative life Things of the Hidden God takes us where the temporal and the eternal intersect where community and solitude coexist and where centuries old practices offer insight for how to live today      Only the Nails Remain Christopher Merrill, 2001-10-23 Chronicles Merrill's ten war time journeys to the Balkans from the years 1992 through 1996 At once a travelogue a book of war reportage and a biography of the imagination under siege this personal narrative takes the reader along on the author's journeys to all the provinces and republics of the former Yugoslavia Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia Kosovo Macedonia Montenegro Serbia Slovenia and Vojvodina as well as to Albania Austria Bulgaria Greece Hungary Italy and Turkey Merrill's journeys provide the narrative structure for an exploration of the roles and responsibility of intellectuals caught up in a decisive historical moment many of whom either helped to incite the war or else bore eloquent witness to its carnage He offers a literary meditation on war a portrait of the poetry politics and the people of the Balkans that will provide insight into the past present and future of those war torn lands Adapted from publisher description      Equal under the Sky Linda M.

Grasso,2017-10-01 Equal under the Sky is the first historical study of Georgia O Keeffe s complex involvement with and influence on US feminism from the 1910s to the 1970s Utilizing understudied sources such as fan letters archives of women s organizations transcripts of women s radio shows and programs from women s colleges Linda M Grasso shows how and why feminism and O Keeffe are inextricably connected in popular culture and scholarship The women s movements that impacted the creation and reception of O Keeffe s art Grasso argues explain why she is a national icon who is valued for more than her artistic practice Self-Portrait with Dogwood Christopher Merrill,2017-01-16 In the course of researching dogwood trees beloved poet and essayist Christopher Merrill realized that a number of formative moments in his life had some connection to the tree named according to one writer because its fruit was not fit for a dog As he approached his sixtieth birthday Merrill began to compose a self portrait alongside this tree whose lifespan is comparable to a human s and that from an early age he s regarded as a talisman Dogwoods have never been far from Merrill s view at significant moments throughout his life helping to shape his understanding of place in the great chain of being entwined in his experience is the conviction that our relationship to the natural world is central to our walk in the sun The feeling of a connection to nature has become more acute as his life has taken him to distant corners of the earth often to war zones where he has witnessed not only humankind s propensity for violence and evil but also the enduring power of connections that can be forged across languages borders and politics Dogwoods teach us persistence humility and wonder Self Portrait with Dogwood is no ordinary memoir but rather the work of a traveler who has crisscrossed the country and the globe in search of ways to make sense of his time here Merrill provides new ways of thinking about personal history the environment politics faith and the power of the written word In his descriptions of places far and near many outside of the average American s purview a besieged city in Bosnia a hidden path in a Taiwanese park Tolstoy s country house in Russia a castle in Slovakia a blossoming dogwood at daybreak in Seattle the reader s understanding of the world will flourish as well Watch Fire Christopher Merrill,1994 Christopher Merrill is one of the most gifted audacious and accomplished poets of an extraordinarily rich generation This collection shows a complex talent developing and extending its original high promise W S Merwin Lost Homelands Audrey Goodman,2022-02-08 Before the 1930s landscapes of the American Southwest represented the migrant s dream of a stable and bountiful homeland Around the time of the Great Depression however the Southwest suddenly became integrated into a much larger economic and cultural system Audrey Goodman examines how since that time these southwestern landscapes have come to reveal the resulting fragmentation of identity and community Through analyzing a variety of texts and images Goodman illuminates the ways that modern forces such as militarization environmental degradation internal migration and an increased border patrol presence have shattered the perception of a secure homeland in the Southwest The deceptive natural beauty of the Southwest deserts shields a dark history of trauma and decimation that has remained as a shadow on the region s psyche The first to really synthesize such wide ranging material about the effects of the atomic age in the Southwest Goodman realizes the value of combined visual and verbal art and uses it to put forth her own original ideas about reconstructing a new sense of homeland Lost Homelands reminds us of the adversity and dislocation suffered by people of the Southwest by looking at the ways that artists photographers filmmakers and writers have grappled with these problems for decades In assessing the ruination of the region however Goodman argues that those same artists and writers have begun to reassemble a new sense of homeland from these fragments
