Webber, 2004 Ray Harryhausen's animated creatures sparkled with predatory alertness and subtle quirks of behavior that stamped each with a distinct and memorable personality His use of stop motion animation a method of animating movable models and puppets brought dinosaurs and monsters to life on the silver screen Many animators and special effects wizards like Phil Tippett of Jurassic Park and Jim Aupperle of Planet of the Dinosaurs who are still working on prehistoric based films openly credit Ray Harryhausen as having influenced their careers His films are famous for being among the very best of the genre The first chapter of this book chronicles Harryhausen's formative years and work on numerous 16mm experiments beginning with his viewing of King Kong in 1933 The next four chapters cover his four feature length dinosaur films The Beast from 20,000 Fathoms The Animal World One Million Years B.C. and The Valley of Gwangi These chapters provide extensive information about all aspects of the staging of their stop motion content and many additional facets of the overall production process The paleontological accuracy of his saurians from a modern perspective is also examined A chapter on his work and experiences in the 1970s and beyond discusses potential dinosaur projects as well as The Golden Voyage of Sinbad which is not a saurian film but does include the bat winged homunculus An appendix covers a number of dinosaur related films that Harryhausen had a hand in The Ancient World in the Cinema Jon Solomon, Robert D. Novak Professor of Western Civilization and Culture Jon Solomon, 2001-01-01 This entertaining and useful book provides a comprehensive survey of films about the ancient world from The Last Days of Pompeii to Gladiator Jon Solomon catalogues describes and evaluates films set in ancient Greece and Rome films about Greek and Roman history and mythology films of the Old and New Testaments films set in ancient Egypt Babylon and Persia films of ancient tragedies comic films set in the ancient world and more The book has been updated to include feature films and made for television movies produced in the past two decades More than two hundred photographs illustrate both the films themselves and the ancient sources from which their imagery derives

Muslim Heroes on Screen Daniel O'Brien, 2021-11-16 If films drawing on Middle East tropes often highlight white Westerners figures such as Sinbad and the Thief of Bagdad embody a counter tradition of protagonists derived from Islamic folklore and history who are portrayed as Other to Western audiences In Muslim Heroes on Screen Daniel O'Brien explores the depiction of these characters in Euro American cinema from the silent era to the present day Far from being mere racial masquerade these screen portrayals are more complex and nuanced than is generally allowed not least in terms of the shifting concepts and assumptions that inform their Muslim identity Using films ranging from Douglas Fairbanks The Thief of Bagdad The 7th Voyage of Sinbad El Cid Kingdom of Heaven and The Message to The Wind and the Lion O'Brien considers how the representational strategies of Western filmmakers may transcend such Muslim stereotypes as fanatic antagonists or passive victims These figures possess a cultural significance which cannot be fully appreciated by Euro American audiences without reference to their distinction as Muslim heroes and the implications and resonances of an Islamicized protagonist

Magic, Monsters, and Make-Believe Heroes Douglas E. Cowan, 2019-02-26 Magic Monsters and Make Believe Heroes looks at fantasy film television and participative culture as evidence of our ongoing need for a mythic vision for stories larger than ourselves into which we write ourselves and through which we can become the heroes of our own story Why do we tell and retell the same stories over and over when we know they can't possibly be true Contrary to popular belief it's not because pop culture has run out of good ideas Rather it is precisely because these stories are so fantastic some resonating so deeply that we elevate them to the status of religion Illuminating everything from Buffy the Vampire Slayer to Dungeons and Dragons and from Drunken Master to Mad Max Douglas E. Cowan offers a modern manifesto for why and how mythology remains a vital force today

study anthropologist Brian Noble traces how dinosaurs and their natural worlds are articulated into being by the action of specimens and humans together Following the complex exchanges of palaeontologists museums specialists film and media makers science fiction writers and their diverse publics he witnesses how fossil remains are taken from their partial state and re composed into astonishingly precise animated presences within the modern world with profound political consequences Articulating Dinosaurs examines the resurrecting of two of the most iconic and gendered of dinosaurs First Noble traces the emergence of Tyrannosaurus rex the king of the tyrant lizards in the early twentieth century scientific literary and filmic cross currents associated with the American Museum of Natural History under the direction of palaeontologist and eugenicist Henry Fairfield Osborn Then he offers his detailed ethnographic study of the multi media model making curatorial and laboratory preparation work behind the Royal Ontario Museum s ground breaking 1990s exhibit of Maiasaura the good mother lizard Setting the exhibits at the AMNH and the ROM against each other Noble is able to place the political natures of T rex and Maiasaura into high relief and to raise vital questions about how our choices make a difference in what comes to count as nature An original and illuminating study of science culture and museums Articulating Dinosaurs is a remarkable look at not just how we visualize the prehistoric past but how we make it palpable in our everyday lives Plastic Reality
