revolutionary themes The Algerian New Novel shows how Algerian authors writing in French actively contributed to the experimental forms of the period expressing a new age literarily as well as politically and culturally Looking at canonical Algerian literature as part of the larger literary production in French during decolonization Val rie K Orlando considers how novels by Rachid Boudjedra Mohammed Dib Assia Djebar Nabile Far s Yamina Mechakra and Kateb Yacine both influenced and were reflectors of the sociopolitical and cultural transformation that took place during this period in Algeria Although their themes were rooted in Algeria the avant garde writing styles of these authors were influenced by early twentieth century American modernists the New Novelists of 1940s 50s France and African American authors of the 1950s 60s This complex mix of influences led Algerian writers to develop a unique modern literary aesthetic to express their world a tradition of experimentation and fragmentation that still characterizes the work of contemporary Algerian francophone writers

Francophone Sephardic Fiction Judith Roumani,2022-04-13 Francophone Sephardic Fiction Writing Migration Diaspora and Modernity approaches modern Sephardic literature in a comparative way to draw out similarities and differences among selected francophone novelists from various countries with a focus on North Africa The definition of Sephard here is broader than just Spain it embraces Jews whose ancestors had lived in North Africa for centuries even before the arrival of Islam and who still today trace their allegiance to ways of being Jewish that go back to Babylon as do those whose ancestors spent a few hundred years in Iberia The author traces the strong influence of oral storytelling on modern novelists of the twentieth and early twenty first centuries and explores the idea of the portable homeland as exile and migration engulfed the long rooted Sephardic communities The author also examines diaspora concepts how modernity and post modernity threatened traditional ways of life and how humor and an active return into history for the novel have done more than mere nostalgia could to enliven the portable homeland of modern francophone Sephardic fiction E.
