From The Warring Factions:

From the Warring Factions Ammiel Alcalay, 2002 Civilians and Warfare in World History Nicola Foote, Nadya Williams, 2017-08-23 This book explores the role played by civilians in shaping the outcomes of military combat across time and place This volume explores the contributions civilians have made to warfare in case studies that range from ancient Europe to contemporary Africa and Latin America Building on philosophical and legal scholarship it explores the blurred boundary between combatant and civilian in different historical contexts and examines how the absence of clear demarcations shapes civilian strategic positioning and impacts civilian vulnerability to military targeting and massacre The book argues that engagement with the blurred boundaries between combatant and non combatant both advance the key analytical questions that underpin the historical literature on civilians and underline the centrality of civilians to a full understanding of warfare The volume provides new insight into why civilian death and suffering has been so common despite widespread beliefs embedded in legal and military codes across time and place that killing civilians is wrong Ultimately the case studies in the book show that civilians while always victims of war were nevertheless often able to become empowered agents in defending their own lives and impacting the outcomes of wars By highlighting civilian military agency and broadening the sense of which actors affect strategic outcomes the book also contributes to a richer understanding of war itself This book will be of much interest to students of military studies international history international relations and war and conflict studies A Concise History of Afghanistan in 25 Volumes Hamid Wahed Alikuzai, 2013-10 For 35 000 years ancient Afghanistan was called Aryana the Light of God has existed Then in 747 AD what is today called Afghanistan became Khorasan which means Sunrise in Dari which was a much larger geographical area In the middle of the nineteenth century the name Afghanistan which means home of the united tribes was applied originally by the Saxons present day British and the Russians During the Great Games in the middle of nineteenth century the Durand Line was created in 1893 and was in place until 1993 Saxons created the state of Afghanistan out of a geographical area roughly the size of Texas in 1893 before which there were 10 million square kilometers larger than the size of Canada as means to act as a buffer zone between the Saxon India Tsarist Russia and the Chinese Conflict Resolution: Peace Implementation in New Wars Melanie Flowers, 2010-05-26 Mel Flowers Conflict Resolution Peace Implementation in New Wars offers an assessment of the phase immediately following the signing of a peace agreement It contributes knowledge to the understanding of the challenges to peace processes during peace implementation and identifies factors that are decisive or necessary for a successful peace implementation in the context of a new war The author argues that a high quality of the peace agreement and high international interest and commitment are critical for implementing a peace accord in a difficult conflict environment The dynamics of the Liberian civil wars 1989 1996 and 1999 2003 illustrate the subject matter Routledge Handbook of Conflict Response and Leadership in Africa Alpaslan Özerdem, Sinem Akgül-Açıkmeşe, Ian Liebenberg, 2021-09-14 This handbook explores the challenges and opportunities for leadership and conflict response in the context of Africa at several levels Leadership plays a vital role in affecting conflict response but is frequently only examined at the macro level of state government and international organizations This handbook addresses the need to explore challenges and opportunities for leadership at several levels macro global regional national meso NGOs religious groups academics and micro civil society organizations youth groups women s organizations Analysis from multiple levels provides a broader explanation of conflict dynamics and helps to fit localized conflict transformation approaches into wider national or regional structures The multidisciplinary essays presented in this volume encompass the psychological political and structural dimensions of conflict response and demonstrate how its success is fundamentally linked to the style of effectiveness of leadership among other factors The volume is divided into four thematic sections Part I The theory and dynamics of conflict response and leadership Part II Macro level leadership experiences in conflict response Part III Meso micro level leadership experiences in conflict response Part IV Recommendations for improved leadership in conflict response This book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution peace studies African politics security studies and international relations in general

Human Rights Situation in Africa United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on Africa,1995

Zones of Conflict in Africa George Klay Kieh Jr.,Ida Rousseau Mukenge,2002-03-30 Torn by ongoing civil and military violence Africa presents a challenge to scholars interested in the root causes of conflict Each conflict is unique but overall they exhibit common patterns The contributors of this book employ an eclectic array of current explanations of civil strife and how to resolve it The first half of the book provides the relevant theoretical background Theories of conflict and conflict resolution the larger context of African strife in Africa and patterns and trends of conflict are discussed Shifting from the general to the particular the remaining chapters of this volume gauge the accuracy and usefulness of the current thinking on conflicts by grounding it in case studies drawn from the Great Lakes Region Liberia Nigeria and Zambia

The Burden of Collective Goodwill Abiodun Alao,2017-07-05 The book is the first to discuss in detail the extensive external involvement in the Liberian civil war a war that claimed up to 200 000 lives created a massive refugee crisis and brought West Africa to the tribunal of international attention The book is conceived against the background that the international response to the conflict has features that are unprecedented in the management of civil conflicts in the post cold war era For example the regional peacekeeping mission was the first after the end of the cold war while the dispatch of UN Observer mission was the first ever joint peacekeeping mission between the UN and a regional organisation The extensive involvement of international organisations in the conflict has not been witnessed in the region since the Biafran war of 1967 1970

Islam and Bosnia Maya Shatzmiller,2002-05-15 Islam and Bosnia re examines the conflict of the 1990s from the perspectives of international relations conflict resolution and history as well as psychology anthropology and cultural studies Rejecting the primordialist or ancient hatreds interpretation as the root of the conflict the authors detail how a complex cultural transformation led to the erosion of what had been the common inclusionist base of a multi ethnic state and brought about a new exclusionist nationalism By pulling together the individual elements of culture society and foreign policy and analysing their interaction Islam and Bosnia demonstrates how the secular romantic nationalism of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries centred on history language and landscape was overthrown in favour of one that highlighted religion race and territory Islam and Bosnia shows how the Bosnian conflict bears on the wider contexts of cultural paradigms deadly conflicts and the formulation of foreign policy It argues for a new perspective in foreign policy making one that would embrace and incorporate better and deeper knowledge and understanding of culture history and ideology Contributors include Tone Bringa University of Bergen Amila Buturovic York University John V A Fine University of Michigan Peter W Galbraith former U S ambassador to Croatia Graham N Green former Canadian ambassador to Croatia Nader Hashemi Ph D candidate University of Toronto John M Reid information commissioner for Canada Andr s Riedlmayer Harvard University Michael A Sells Haverford College Donald W Smith former Canadian ambassador to Croatia and Vamik D Volkan University of Virginia Canada Fire George A. Rawlyk,1994 G A Rawlyk examines the remarkable growth and evolution of radical evangelicalism in British North America from the American Revolution to the War of 1812 He argues that radical evangelicalism was the leading edge of Protestantism and was more democratic and populist than contemporary evangelicalism in the United States Xcp ,2003 , Military Intelligence ,1996 Military Intelligence Professional Bulletin ,1996 United States Policy Toward the Former Yugoslavia United States. Congress. House. Committee on National Security,1997 Regional Security Rodrigo Tavares,2009-12-16 This book is the first systematic study of the capacities of the most recognized intergovernmental organizations with a security mandate Health, Human Rights and the United Nations Theodore Macdonald,Diane Plamping,2018-04-19 In the light of impending environmental catastrophe people all over the world in all walks of life are becoming more aware of the pressing need to act globally The need to base our decisions and actions less on parochial national advantage sequestered in hate and suspicion of other nation s playing the same game of Russian roulette have to give way to a new appreciation of the fact that our global village is indeed so very small and perilously frail We depend upon one another as never before and unless we insure the health and human rights of all we shall surely each perish individually In Health Human Rights and the United Nations Theodore H MacDonald carefully analyses the origin development and structure of the United Nations UN and its key agencies and considers its capacity to mediate the Universal Declaration of Human Rights He takes a detailed look into human rights abuses in Sudan s Darfur province Burma Liberia the Occupied Palestinian Territories and the United Kingdom By investigating the development of the World Health Organization WHO and the pressures being brought to bear upon it MacDonald exposes contradictions in the aims of both the WHO and the UN Does the current global political scene and its neoliberal policies nullify the work of both Is the UN fit for purpose Can drastic reforms result in equitable solutions Can a new trans national body be developed to arbitrate global trade health human rights and fiscal issues This remarkable book is ideal for anyone interested in international law human rights global health public health and health promotion Public health and health promotion professionals including international healthcare organisations care agencies and international charities will find the analysis enlightening It is also of great interest to policy makers and shapers in communities and government political activists and all those with an interest in equality and globalisation

Country Reports on Human Rights Practices ,1999 Violent Conflicts, Fragile Peace Norman Mlambo,2008-05-20 The African continent has experienced too many violent conflicts leading to much loss of life destruction of infrastructure disruption of productive socio economic activity displacement of hundreds of thousands of people and the diversion of scarce resources towards arms procurement It is clear to all that for sustainable development of the African continent it is important that policy makers and all levels of society understand Africa s security challenges so that all may work towards sustainable peace and security for the African continent This book is a collection of papers most of them written for the journal African Renaissance by prominent African scholars and practitioners who seek to understand the various causes of African conflicts the many forms and different dimensions that these conflicts have taken their devastating effects and the challenges for sustainable peace and security on the African continent The book is proudly blessed by the inclusion with permission of the report of the outgoing United Nations Secretary General Kofi Anan entitled The Causes of Conflict and the Promotion of Durable Peace and Sustainable Development in Africa The book is aimed at policy makers academics students and for all who are interested in peace security and sustainable development on the African continent

Administrative Law Timothy Endicott,2018 Administrative Law uses a small number of key cases in depth throughout the text to illustrate and explain the subject within a practical real world context It is a guide to the constitutional principles of English administrative law and a detailed account of how those principles are applied

Embracing the Melody of Term: An Mental Symphony within From The Warring Factions

In a world used by displays and the ceaseless chatter of quick interaction, the melodic beauty and mental symphony created by the written word often diminish into the backdrop, eclipsed by the constant noise and distractions that permeate our lives. However, located within the pages of From The Warring Factions a stunning fictional value brimming with fresh thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced.
