E. Littlejohn, 2025-09-18 In an age where thinking is too often restricted to its scientific exercise how better to liberate the full powers of our reason than to engage with the possibility of what exceeds them What better way to measure our progress beyond modernist metaphysics and the contemporary nihilism it generated than to discuss the question of God Written by specialists in French philosophy the essays in this volume use the question of God to identify problematic metaphysical patterns still carved into our thought as well as to reconstruct new paths for philosophy that open beyond these limitations Discussing the work of Kant Nietzsche Husserl Heidegger H ring Levinas Derrida and others contributions range across topics including the influence of Neo Platonic philosophy on theology the errors of modern rationalism and phenomenology s interest in religion Even when drawing on resources from faith traditions this French engagement with the question of God defies any simplistic attempt to relegate its efforts to theology the authors of this volume clearly demonstrate its deeply embedded relation to the history of thought and its relevance to questions central for the task of philosophy today With a special attention the work of significant philosophers less known outside of France this volume promises to deepen the Anglophone reception and understanding of contemporary French philosophy Theology and the First Theory of Sacrifice Ivan Strenski, 2003-11-01 Are social scientific theories and confessional theologies of sacrifice equally well suited as public discourse about religion The French liberal Protestant theologians of the 5th Section of the cole Pratique and the French doyen of sociology mile Durkheim and his two main followers Henri Hubert and Marcel Mauss engage in a struggle over the proper approach to sacrifice in the public university The Durkheimians argued that theological language and assumptions were inappropriate for this purpose because of their confessional allegiances Another approach to sacrifice free of confessional entanglements was required This is what Hubert and Mauss sought to provide in the Sacrifice Its Nature and Function Treitschke's History of Germany in the Nineteenth Century: The influence of French liberalism, 1830-1840 Heinrich von Treitschke, 1919 A History of Art in Ancient Egypt From the French of George Perrot, Professor in the Faculty of Letters, Paris ; Member of the Institute and Charles Chipiez Walter Armstrong, 2025-07-21 Reprint of the original first published in 1883 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Lectures on the History of Religions, 1912 50 Christian Books: Scripture, History, Theology, Spirituality and Fiction Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, Martin Luther, Henryk Sienkiewicz, Henry Van Dyke, David Hume, James Allen, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Andrew Murray, John Bunyan, Grace Livingston Hill, Thomas Paine, Voltaire, Lew Wallace, John Milton, Charles M. Alfred Loisy and the Making of History of Religions Annelies Lannoy, 2020-08-10 This monograph studies the professionalization of History of religions as an academic discipline in late 19th and early 20th century France and Europe Its common thread is the work of the French Modernist priest and later Professor of History of religions at the Collège de France Alfred Loisy 1857-1940 who participated in many of the most topical debates among French and international historians of religions Unlike his well studied Modernist theology

Loisy's writings on comparative religion and his rich interactions with famous scholars like F Cumont, M Mauss or J G Frazer remain largely unknown. This monograph is the first to paint a comprehensive picture of his career as a historian of religions before and after his excommunication in 1908. Through a contextual analysis of publications by Loisy and contemporaries and a large corpus of private correspondence, it illuminates the scientification of the discipline between 1890-1920 and its deep entanglement with religion, politics and society. Particular attention is also given to the role of national and transnational scholarly networks and the way they controlled the theoretical and institutional frameworks for studying the history of religions.

Handbook for American Students in France Horatio Sheafe Krans, 1926 Bulletin [of] the Institute of International Education, 1924 Bulletin, 1926 A Short History of French Literature Sarah Kay, Terence Cave, Malcolm Bowie, 2006-01-12. This book traces the history of French literature from its beginnings to the present. Within its remarkably brief compass, it offers a wide-ranging personal and detailed account of major writers and movements.

Developments in French literature are presented in an innovative way, not as an even sequence of literary events but as a series of stories told at varying pace and with different kinds of focus. Readers can thus take in the broad sweep of historical change, grasp the main characteristics of major periods, or enjoy a close appraisal of individual works and their contexts. The book is written in an accessible and non-technical style that will make it attractive to students and to all those who enjoy French Literature.
