From The Abandoned Cities Poems Harper Colophons:

Shakespeare's Sisters Sandra M. Gilbert, Susan Gubar, 1979 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1984 The Body of Jesus Patrick Schreiner, 2016-07-14 Little attention is usually given to the space or place of the kingdom Yet Matthew employs the distinctive phrase kingdom of heaven and also portrays Jesus as Immanuel God with us In this volume Patrick Schreiner argues that by expanding one's view of space one can see that Jesus' purpose is to reorder the space of the earth in Matthew as the heavenly king Jesus pierces the barrier between the two realms in his incarnation and the spaces of heaven and earth begin to collide in his ministry Therefore in Matthew Jesus does not just promise a temporal or ethereal kingdom but one that is located one that has a sense of rootedness Jesus is granted authority over this space and inspires people to follow him in this construction project The spatial kingdom begins in his body and he extends it to his church by promising his presence

Killing Sydney Elizabeth Farrelly, 2021-01-27 Presents serious issues in a way which neither patronises or mystifies the lay reader Paul Keating on Three Houses A blueprint for the future of our city in a radically changing world Columnist Elizabeth Farrelly brings her unique perspective as architectural writer and former city councillor to a burning question for our times how will we live in the future Can our communities survive pandemic environmental disaster overcrowding government greed and big business Using her own adopted city of Sydney she creates a roadmap for urban living and analyses the history of cities themselves to study why and how we live together now and into the future Killing Sydney is part lovesong part warning little by little our politics are becoming debased and our environment degraded The tipping point is close Can the home we love survive Praise for Killing Sydney If you believe that Elizabeth Farrelly is expressing your long held concerns about the state of our governments our cities and our environment in her Sydney Morning Herald Saturday articles then I encourage you to get Killing Sydney and have a month of Saturdays in the one book That's what I'll do because I most often strongly agree Councillor Clover Moore Lord Mayor of Sydney This is an important book for all Aussies Written with passion beautiful prose and insightful knowledge Read and weep More than ever we need to push pause on development and so called progress Go Elizabeth Di Morrissey AM Great cities need great champions Sydney needs Elizabeth Farrelly Adam Spencer
