From One Medium to Another Paul A. Soukup, 1997 From One Medium to Another Paul A. Soukup, Robert Hodgson, 1997 Eighteen experts from a wide variety of academic and professional fields engage key questions in a series of thought provoking essays that define the emerging field of new media Bible translating and how the biblical message will be communicated in the culture and media of the 21st century Fidelity and Translation Paul A. Soukup, Robert Hodgson, 1999-08 Essays that suggest ways to critically evaluate assess and use new media to communicate the message of Scripture Considers the oral visual and performative nature of the narrative as well as contemporary communication philosophy Literary Encounters with the Reign of God Sharon H. Ringe, H.C. Paul Kim, 2004-02-03 Recognized scholars honor Robert Tannehill in this Festschrift Communication, Media, and Identity Robert S. Fortner, 2007 Communication Media and Identity A Christian Theory of Communication is the first comprehensive theoretical look at the nature of communication from a biblical Christian perspective This groundbreaking new work discusses the implications of such a theory for interpersonal relations use of media and the development of digital culture in the wake of the computer It also draws widely from the literature of the secular world critiquing perspectives where necessary and adopting perspectives that are in line with Christian anthropology epistemology and ontology Through this unique lens the reader is able to understand communication as an art as a tool for evangelism and as a unique human activity that allows people to have a stake in the creation It covers both mediated and non mediated forms of communication is sensitive to theological differences within the Christian faith and examines closely the problem of technology and especially digital technology for the practice of communication As the newest book in the Communication Culture and Religion Series Robert Fortner s work illuminates the theological aspects of communication Through a Catholic Lens Peter Malone, 2007-04-16 Movies are often examined for subtext and dramatizations of social and psychological issues as well as current movements Studies of well known Catholic directors such as Alfred Hitchcock and John Ford have made the search for Catholic themes a reputable field of examination Through a Catholic Lens continues the search for these themes and examines the Catholic undercurrents by studying nineteen film directors from around the world Although these directors may or may not be practicing Catholics their Catholic background can be found in their writing and directing Each chapter written by a different contributor analyzes one film of each director for its Catholic motifs With the recent increase of cinema studies this collection will be of interest to students and academics as well as cinema buffs The Handbook of Religion and Communication Joel Cohen, Paul A. Soukup, 2023-02-22 Provides a contemporary view of the intertwined relationship of communication and religion The Handbook of Religion and Communication presents a detailed investigation of the complex interaction between media and religion offering diverse perspectives on how both traditional and new media sources continue to impact religious belief and practice across multiple faiths around the globe Contributions from leading international scholars address key themes such as the changing role of religious authority in the digital age the role of media in cultural shifts away from religious institutions and the ways modern technologies have transformed how religion is communicated and portrayed Divided into five parts the Handbook opens with a state of the art overview of the subject s intellectual landscape introducing the historical background theoretical foundations and major academic approaches to communication media and religion Subsequent sections focus on institutional and functional perspectives theological and cultural approaches and new approaches in digital technologies The essays provide insight into a wide range of topics including religious use of media religious identity audience gratification religious broadcasting religious content in entertainment films and religion news reporting about religion race and gender the sex religion matrix religious crisis communication public relations and advertising televangelism pastoral ministry death and the media online religion future directions in religious communication and more Explores the increasing role of media in creating religious identity and communicating religious experience Discusses the development and evolution of the communication practices of various religious bodies Covers all major media sources including radio television film press digital online content and social media platforms Presents key empirical research real world case studies and illustrative examples throughout Encompasses a variety of perspectives including individual and institutional actors academic and theoretical areas and different forms of communication media Explores media and religion in Judeo Christian traditions Islam Buddhism Hinduism religions of Africa Atheism and others The Handbook of Religion and Communication is an essential resource for scholars academic researchers practical theologians seminarians mass communication researchers and undergraduate and graduate students taking courses on media and religion

Faith Formation 4.0 Julie Anne Lytle, 2013-02-01 Using an ecological approach to study how emerging technologies impact individual and communal formation Faith Formation 4 0 looks at how our efforts to be story keepers story sharers and story makers have evolved over four eras of human communication Framed by the Great Commission imperative to make disciples this book offers a road map to help leaders develop goals to form inform and transform new members as well as long time believers within a faith community The author successfully illustrates that church success depends not only on knowing the Christian message of God s enduring love but also how to use today s tools appropriately for evangelization and faith formation

The Art of Dialogue Ineke de Feijter, 2007 Media and culture are deeply intertwined in contemporary society Religions have problems relating to this media culture which is shaped by media processes and conditioned by digital media and interactive forms of communication Media set the agenda and they profoundly challenge religions both with respect to their public communication and their very existence and public relevance People increasingly use media for shaping their religious identity and their search with respect to questions of ultimate meaning Barely any theological studies exist that reflect on religious policies and their subsequent praxis in the field of communication The author analyzes Christian policy views and identifies the main problems and opportunities in relating to media culture

Translation Beyond Translation Studies Kobus Marais, 2022-10-06 What is translation Even as the scholarly viewpoint of translation studies has expanded over recent years the notion of translation has remained fixedly defined by its interlinguistic element However there are many different contexts and disciplines in which translation takes place for which this definition is entirely unsuitable Exploring translational aspects in contexts in which scholars do not think about translation this book considers the alternative uses of the term beyond the interlinguistic dimension Taking our understanding of translation back to its basic semiotic principles leading experts outline the wide variety of alternative fields of study practices applications and contexts in which the term translation is used Chapters examine 11 different fields of study exploring what the term translation means how it is used and what it could contribute to an enlarged understanding of translation as a concept In this way the volume argues for a reimagining of what we mean by translation providing an essential reference for anyone interested in how translation is understood and practiced beyond the narrow perspectives of the field of translation studies itself

Mark as Story Kelly R. Iverson, Christopher W. Skinner, 2011 This volume celebrates Mark as Story and offers critique engagement and exploration of the new hermeneutical vistas that emerged in the wake of this pioneering study

In Other Words Charles H. Cosgrove, W. Dow Edgerton, 2007-04-26 Foreword by Don Wardlaw This exceptional book by Charles Cosgrove and W. Dow Edgerton will be a rich resource for pastors wanting to reach their congregations in a fresh way Rather than discussing preaching in general or even a specific approach to preaching it focuses on a new way of engaging the biblical text for preaching In Other Words combines Cosgrove and Edgerton's critical acumen creative imagination and pastoral discernment to present contemporizing restatements of Scripture speaking timeless truths in modern speech In describing their incarnational translation the authors invite readers to imagine what the text might have looked like if produced in the preacher's own culture time and place Drawing on translation theory genre studies and recent hermeneutical theory they offer both a comprehensive theory of incarnational translation and a set of specific guidelines and examples for carrying it out

A Multimedia Literacy Project Toward Biblical Literacy in Bangladesh Teresa Chai, 2020-09-30 This book reflects the author's work over eight years as a missionary in Bangladesh where she was involved with the United Bible Society and the Bangladesh Bible Society then the Bangladesh Lutheran Church Danish Mission and the Bangladesh Lutheran Church despite the fact that Tess herself was a Pentecostal in teaching literacy to the Bangladeshi people The methods Tess advocates here were based on her actual fieldwork during her years there Dave Johnson DMiss Managing Editor Asian Journal of Pentecostal Studies Engaging Technology in Theological Education Mary E. Hess, 2005-04-28 We live in a media culture surrounded by ever evolving digital technologies While state schools and secular organizations have embraced the new teaching tools and models for learning that technology affords religious institutions have struggled with how and why to do the same All that we can't leave behind Engaging technology in theological education is a breakthrough book that invites religious educators to both engage and adapt their pedagogy to incorporate new media and technology Drawing from her expertise as a seminary professor and consultant to religious institutions on the use of technology in teaching Mary Hess invites professors pastors seminarians and anyone interested in religious education into critical reflection on ways of engaging technology to enhance learning and serve as critical interpreters within communities of faith Perspectives on Dance Fusion in the Caribbean and Dance Sustainability Aminata Cairo, Laura Donnelly, Neri Torres, 2019-10-07 This volume examines the theme of fusion in Caribbean dance from a wide range of perspectives including its socio cultural historical formation The contributions are drawn from a conference entitled Caribbean Fusion Dance Works Rituals of Modern Society which focused primarily on the Caribbean as a unique locale However chapters on dance fusions in other diasporic locations and the sustainability of dance as an art form are also included here in order to offer a sense of an inevitable and in some instances desirable evolution due to the globalizing forces that continue to influence dance God Speaks My Language Aloo Osotsi Mojola, 2020-03-31 This is the fascinating and important story of how God's Word came to East Africa Beginning with the pioneering efforts of Krapf and Rebmann Aloo Osotsi Mojola traces the history of Bible translation in the region from 1844 to the present He incorporates four decades of personal conversations and interviews along with extensive research to provide the first comprehensive account of the translations undertaken in Kenya Uganda Tanzania Rwanda Burundi and eastern Democratic Republic of Congo The maps and tables included assist the reader as does a history of the Swahili language its standardization role as lingua franca and impact on the work of translation Mojola's writing is a tribute to those who sacrificed much in their quest to see the word of God accessible to all people in all places and the many who continue to sacrifice for the peoples of East Africa This book is a key contribution to the important and ongoing narrative of how God has met us and continues to meet us in our own contexts and our own languages The Fragility of Consciousness Frederick G. Lawrence, 2017-01-23 Frederick G Lawrence is the authoritative interpreter of the work of Bernard Lonergan and an incisive reader of twentieth century continental philosophy and hermeneutics The Fragility of Consciousness is the first published collection of his essays and contains several of his best known writings as well as unpublished work The essays in this volume exhibit a long interdisciplinary engagement with the relationship between faith and reason in the context of the crisis of culture that has marked twentieth and twenty first century thought and practice Frederick G Lawrence with his profound and generous commitment to the intellectual life of the church has produced a body of work that engages with Heidegger Gadamer Habermas Ricoeur Strauss Voegelin and Benedict XVI among others These essays also explore various themes such as the role of religion in a secular age political theology economics neo Thomism Christology and much more In an age marked by social cultural political and ecclesial fragmentation Lawrence models a more generous way one that prioritizes friendship conversation and understanding above all else
