No detailed description available for The Semiotic Web 1987 The Oxford Illustrated History of Theatre John Russell Brown, 2001 Authoritative and wide ranging this absorbing account of the history of theatre draws on the latest scholarly research to describe and celebrate theatre's greatest achievements over 4 500 years from festival performances in ancient Egypt to international multicultural theatre in the late twentieth century Written by a team of distinguished authors and illustrated throughout this is an essential source of reference for students teachers theatre professionals and the theatre goer alike Australasian Drama Studies, 1987 Allegory of Literary Representation as Hybrid in Corneille's Lillusion Comique Juanita Villena-Alvarez, 1997 Monstrous hybrid works such as Corneille's Lillusion comique Diderot's Le neveu de Rameau and Arrabal's La nuit est aussi un soleil resist genre based theory and defy categorization Hybrid appropriates a meaning valid for all three texts since the term contains the notion of a differentiation mutation and deviation as well as creation This attests to a certain similarity among the texts which is paradoxically founded on their individual differences for hybrid is only hybrid because of its distinction from other elements within a system Thus from these three works this study focuses on the deviation inherent in hybridization that constantly propels meaning from one point to another TDR., 2006

MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures, 1989 Vols for 1969 include ACTFL annual bibliography of books and articles on pedagogy in foreign languages 1969 Illusion Comique and Le Menteur John Trethewey, 1991 Time in Romantic Theatre Frederick Burwick, 2022-06-01 The shift in temporal modalities of Romantic Theatre was the consequence of internal as well as external developments internally the playwright was liberated from the old imperative of Unity of Time and the expectation that the events of the play must not exceed the hours of a single day externally the new social and cultural conformance to the time keeping schedules of labour and business that had become more urgent with the industrial revolution In reviewing the theatre of the Romantic era this monograph draws attention to the ways in which theatre reflected the pervasive impact of increased temporal urgency in social and cultural behaviour The contribution this book makes to the study of drama in the early nineteenth century is a renewed emphasis on time as a prominent element in Romantic dramaturgy and a reappraisal of the extensive experimentation on how time functioned Metatheater and Modernity Mary Ann Frese Witt, 2013 Metatheater and Modernity Baroque and Neobaroque is the first work to link the study of metatheater with the concepts of baroque and neobaroque Arguing that the onset of European modernity in the early seventeenth century and both the modernist and the postmodernist periods of the twentieth century witnessed a flourishing of the phenomenon of theater that reflects on itself as theater the author reexamines the concepts of metatheater baroque and neobaroque through a pairing and close analysis of seventeenth and twentieth century plays The comparisons include Jean Rotrou's The True Saint Genesius with Jean Paul

Sartre's Kean and Jean Genet's The Blacks Pierre Corneille's L Illusion comique with Tony Kushner's The Illusion Gian Lorenzo Bernini's The Impresario with Luigi Pirandello's theater in theater trilogy Shakespeare's Hamlet with Pirandello's Henry IV and Tom Stoppard's Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead Molière's Impromptu de Versailles with impromptus by Jean Cocteau Jean Giraudoux and Eugène Ionesco Metatheater and Modernity also examines the role of technology in the creating and breaking of illusions in both centuries In contrast to previous work on metatheater it emphasizes the metatheatrical role of comedy Metatheater the author concludes is both performance and performative it accomplishes a perceptual transformation in its audience both by defending theater and exposing the illusory quality of the world outside
