From Sign to Image Abdelkebir Khatibi, Ali Amahan, 1995 This text is among the first to delve deeply into the little known history of Moroccan carpets Among the revelations this book provides is the correction of the widely held belief that no Moroccan or Tunisian carpets predates the 19th century There are three sections covering the historical technical and aesthetic significance of Morocco's carpet weaving heritage The technical and aesthetic sections are the most exhaustive the former covering the three main styles of carpets and the latter exploring the various styles and thoughts that inspire the imagery of the carpets Abdelkébir Khatibi Jane Hiddleston, Khalid Lyamlahy, 2020 Abdelk bir Khatibi is one of the most important voices to emerge from North Africa in postcolonial studies This book is the first to offer a thoroughgoing analysis in English of all aspects of his multifaceted thought as it ranges from Moroccan politics to Arabic calligraphy and from decolonisation to interculturality Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan and Somalia are closely linked Italy colonized Somalia from the end of the 19th century to 1941 and held the territory by UN mandate from 1950 to 1960 Italy is also among the destination countries of the Somali diaspora which increased in 1991 after civil war Nonetheless this colonial and postcolonial cultural encounter has often been neglected Critically evaluating Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari's concept of minor literature as well as drawing on postcolonial literary studies The Somali Within analyses the processes of linguistic and cultural translation and self translation the political engagement with race gender class and religious discrimination and the complex strategies of belonging and unbelonging at work in the literary works in Italian by authors of Somali origins Brioni proposes that the minor Somali Italian connection might offer a major insight into the transnational dimension of contemporary Italian literature and Somali culture Dictionnaire berbère

After Orientalism ,2014-11-27

The debate on Orientalism began some fifty years ago in the wake of decolonization While initially considered a turning point Edward Said s Orientalism 1978 was in fact part of a larger academic endeavor the political critique of colonial science that had already significantly impacted the humanities and social sciences In a recent attempt to broaden the debate the papers collected in this volume offered at various seminars and an international symposium held in Paris in 2010 2011 critically examine whether Orientalism as knowledge and as creative expression was in fact fundamentally subservient to Western domination By raising new issues the papers shift the focus from the center to the peripheries thus analyzing the impact on local societies of a major intellectual and institutional movement that necessarily changed not only their world but the ways in which they represented their world World history which assumes a plurality of perspectives leads us to observe that the Saidian critique applies to powers other than Western European ones three case studies are considered here the Ottoman Russian and Soviet and Chinese empires Other essays in this volume proceed to analyze how post independence states have made use of the tremendous accumulation of knowledge and representations inherited from previous colonial regimes for the sake of national identity as well as how scholars change and adapt what was once a hegemonic discourse for their own purposes What emerges is a new landscape in which to situate research on non Western cultures and societies and a road map leading readers beyond the restrictive dichotomy of a confrontation between West and East With contributions by Elisabeth All s L on Buskens St phane A Dudoignon Baudouin Dupret Edhem Eldem Olivier Herrenschmidt Nicholas S Hopkins Robert Irwin Mouldi Lahmar Sylvette Larzul Jean Gabriel Leturcq Jessica Marglin Claire Nicholas Emmanuelle Perrin Alain de Pommereau Fran ois Pouillon Zakaria Rhani Emmanuel Szurek Jean Claude Vatin Mercedes Volait

A Return to the Object Susanne Küchler, Timothy Carroll, 2020-11-26 This book draws on the work of anthropologist Alfred Gell to reinstate the importance of the object in art and society Rather than presenting art as a passive recipient of the artist's intention and the audience's critique the authors consider it in the social environment of its production and reception A Return to the Object introduces the historical and theoretical framework out of which an anthropology of art has emerged and examines the conditions under which it has renewed interest It also explores what art does as a social and cultural phenomenon and how it can impact alternative ways of organising and managing knowledge Making use of ethnography museological practice the intellectual history of the arts and sciences material culture studies and intangible heritage the authors present a case for the re-orientation of current conversations surrounding the anthropology of art and social theory This text will be of key interest to students and scholars in the social and historical sciences arts and humanities and cognitive sciences Too
