Phenomenology on Kant, German Idealism, Hermeneutics and Logic O.K. Wiegand, Robert J. Dostal, Lester Embree, J.J. Kockelmans, J.N. Mohanty, 2013-06-29 Joseph 1 Kockelmans Pennsylvania State University In July of 1999 Prof Dr Thomas M Seeböhm turned 65 years old and thus entered mandatory retirement His friends colleagues and former students thought that it would be fitting to celebrate the event of his retirement with a volume of essays in his honor in order to render homage to a great human being an outstanding and dedicated teacher a highly regarded philosopher and scholar but above all a dear friend and colleague When the editors thought about a unifying theme for the anthology they finally settled on the research interests of Professor Seeböhm in their view the vast domain of his competence and interests would leave all participants the freedom to select a topic of their own choice that would nonetheless lie within this large realm as well as within the area of their own research interests Professor Seeböhm's research interests encompass work in Phenomenology Hermeneutics German Idealism Kant in particular History of Philosophy Philosophy of the formal sciences of Logic in particular Philosophy of History Methodology and Philosophy of the Human Sciences including Psychology and Sociology History of 19th Century British Empiricism Mill American Pragmatism Analytic Philosophy Philosophy of Law and Practical Philosophy the development of the history of philosophy in Eastern Europe especially in the Middle Ages but also in the nineteenth century      The Philosophy of Baruch Spinoza Richard Kenington, 2018-03-02 This volume is a collection of articles that looks at the work of Baruch Spinoza through his metaphysics his philosophy of politics and religion and alternative approaches to Spinoza      Against Value in the Arts and Education Sam Ladkin, Robert McKay, Emile Bojesen, 2016-05-18 Against Value in the Arts and Education proposes that it is often the staunchest defenders of art who do it the most harm by suppressing or mollifying its dissenting voice by neutralizing its painful truths and by instrumentalizing its ambivalence The result is that rather than expanding the autonomy of thought and feeling of the artist and the audience art's defenders make art self-satisfied or otherwise an echo chamber for the limited and limiting self-description of people's lives lived in an audit culture a culture pervaded by the direct and indirect excrescence of practices of accountability This book diagnoses the counter intuitive effects of the rhetoric of value It posits that the auditing of values pervades the fabric of people s work lives their education and increasingly their everyday experience The book uncovers figures of resentment disenchantment and alienation fostered by the dogma of value It argues instead that value judgments can behave insidiously and incorporate aesthetic ethical or ideological values fundamentally opposed to the value they purportedly name and describe The collection contains contributions from leading scholars in the UK and US with contributions from anthropology the history of art literature education musicology political science and philosophy Studies in Hegel's Philosophy of Religion James Macbride Sterrett,1890 Subjects of Desire Judith Butler,2012 This classic work by one of the most important philosophers and critics of our time charts the genesis and trajectory of the desiring subject from Hegel s formulation in Phenomenology of Spirit to its appropriation by Koj ve Hyppolite Sartre Lacan Deleuze and Foucault Judith Butler plots the French reception of Hegel and the successive challenges waged against his metaphysics and view of the subject all while revealing ambiguities within his position The result is a sophisticated reconsideration of the post Hegelian tradition that has predominated in modern French thought and her study remains a provocative and timely intervention in contemporary debates over the unconscious the powers of subjection and the subject The Philosophy and Politics of Bruno Bauer Douglas Moggach,2003-03-27 This is a comprehensive study in English of Bruno Bauer a leading Hegelian philosopher of the 1840s Inspired by the philosophy of Hegel Bauer led an intellectual revolution that influenced Marx and shaped modern secular humanism In the process he offered a republican alternative to liberalism and socialism criticized religious and political conservatism and set out the terms for the development of modern mass and industrial society Based on in depth archival research this book traces the emergence of republican political thought in Germany before the revolutions of 1848 Professor Moggach examines Bauer s republicanism and his concept of infinite self consciousness He also explores the more disturbing aspects of Bauer s critique of modernity such as his anti Semitism This book will be eagerly sought out by professionals in political philosophy political science and intellectual history Praxis and Method (RLE: Gramsci) Richard Kilminster,2014-04-24 This sociological critique of the philosophy of praxis looks at the importance of the concept in the social theory of leading influential Western Marxists such as Luk cs Gramsci Korsch Horkheimer Marcuse and Adorno in the inter war period It offers a detailed critique of Marx and Hegel and explores the validity and implications for sociology of two of Marx s ideas which the later theorists made the centre piece of their social theory first that true theory is authenticated by praxis and second its corollary that certain major social transformations should and would in practice render sociology redundant Collected Works of Bernard Lonergan: Philosophical and theological papers, 1958-1964 Bernard J. F. Lonergan,Frederick E. Crowe,Robert M. Doran,Lonergan Research Institute,1988-01-01 The period during which Bernard Lonergan delivered the eleven lectures in this volume was one of important transition for him he was moving rapidly toward a new conception of theology and its method and he was on the verge of what is now recognized as a major breakthrough in his thought on method the idea that came to him in February 1965 of the eight functional specialities While the lectures maintain a continuity with Lonergan's previous work they also reveal new and significant ideas especially in regard to his drive toward a new conception of theology as a whole and his particular concern for the relevance of theology to the spiritual life The lectures here include The Redemption Method in Catholic Theology The Philosophy of History The Origins of Christian Realism Time and Meaning Consciousness and the Trinity Exegesis and Dogma The Mediation of Christ in Prayer The Analogy of Meaning Philosophical Positions with Regard to Knowing and Theology as Christian Phenomenon This volume provides a key to understanding the development of Lonergan's philosophical and theological thought his major influences and the pivotal moments of transition in the road leading up to Method in Theology and beyond The Doctrine of God in African Christian Thought James Henry Owino Kombo, 2007-05-30 The Christian faith knows and worships one God who is revealed in the Son and in the Holy Spirit This is the meaning of the doctrine of the Trinity in Christian thought Although Christian orthodoxy defines the doctrine of the Trinity the intellectual tools used to capture it significantly vary At different times and in different places Western Christianity has for instance used neo Platonism German Idealism and the conceptual tools of the second century Greeks Taking elements from the known African intellectual framework this book argues that for African Christians the respective pre Christian African understanding of God and the Ntu metaphysics in particular function as conceptual gates for an attempt towards articulating the Trinity for African Christian audiences

Madness and Death in Philosophy Ferit Guven, 2012-02-01 Ferit G ven illuminates the historically constitutive roles of madness and death in philosophy by examining them in the light of contemporary discussions of the intersection of power and knowledge and ethical relations with the other Historically as G ven shows philosophical treatments of madness and death have limited or subdued their disruptive quality Madness and death are linked to the question of how to conceptualize the unthinkable but G ven illustrates how this conceptualization results in a reduction to positivity of the very radical negativity these moments represent Tracing this problematic through Plato Hegel Heidegger and finally in the debate on madness between Foucault and Derrida G ven gestures toward a nonreducible disruptive form of negativity articulated in Heidegger's critique of Hegel and Foucault's engagement with Derrida that might allow for the preservation of real otherness and open the possibility of a true ethics of difference

Studies in the Methodology of Natural and Social Sciences Igor Hanzel, 2010 Studies in the Methodology of Natural and Social Sciences explore from the point of view of philosophy philosophy of science methodology and semantics the methods of pretheoretical empirical measurement theory construction and methods of measurement that are already based on scientific theories This exploration targets both the natural and the social sciences In the field of natural sciences subject to theoretical and metatheoretical analyses are Huygens experimental and computational methods for determining the acceleration of gravity the methods of constructing a thermometer and Newtonian mechanics With respect to the field of social science it analyzes Marx's methods of theory construction presented in his work in the area of economics the methodological approaches employed in David Ricardo's theory of value sociological Grounded Theory Rational Choice Theory and Historical Sociology A significant attention is given to the philosophical reconstruction of the categories employed in the measurement methods and in the methods of construction of the analyzed theories Routledge Library Editions: Gramsci Various Authors, 2022-07-30 In the years since the publication of the Prison Notebooks the interest and importance of Antonio Gramsci's contribution to Marxist thought and political analysis has become widely recognised The concern to explore and identify the structures of the capitalist state is both the principal characteristic of Gramsci's theoretical and political writings and also the inspiration for his writings on Italian history This set re issues four volumes by leading commentators on Gramsci's politics and philosophy which were originally published between 1979 and 1981 Prolegomena to Any Future Materialism Adrian Johnston, 2019-09-15 Adrian Johnston's trilogy Prolegomena to Any Future Materialism aims to forge a thoroughly materialist yet antireductive theory of subjectivity In this second volume A Weak Nature Alone Johnston focuses on the philosophy of nature required for such a theory This volume is guided by a fundamental question How must nature be rethought so that human minds and freedom do not appear to be either impossible or inexplicable within it Asked differently How must the natural world itself be structured such that sapient subjects in all their distinctive peculiarities emerged from and continue to exist within this world In A Weak Nature Alone Johnston develops his transcendental materialist account of nature through engaging with and weaving together five main sources of inspiration Hegelian philosophy Marxist materialism Freudian Lacanian metapsychology Anglo American analytic neo Hegelianism and evolutionary theory and neurobiology Johnston argues that these seemingly but not really strange bedfellows should be brought together so as to construct a contemporary ontology of nature Through this ontology nonnatural human subjects can be seen to arise in an immanent bottom up fashion from nature itself The Marxist Philosophy of Ernst Bloch Wayne Hudson, 1982-06-18 Marx's 'Grundrisse' and Hegel's 'Logic' (RLE Marxism) Hiroshi Uchida, 2015-04-17 Marx's Grundrisse is acknowledged as the vital link between Marx's early and late work It is also a crucial text in elucidating Marx's debt to the idealist philosopher G W F Hegel This book first published in 1988 is the first full length study of that relationship in a thorough textual analysis which makes the connections explicit and also the Grundrisse's relations to the works of Adam Smith and Aristotle This book argues that Marx's critique of political economy and his critique of Hegel are double interrelated Not only did Marx adapt Hegelian logic in order to analyse the economic categories crucial to modern society but it is argued that those logical categories were themselves seen as reflections of the productive processes of contemporary commercial society Uchida reveals a conceptual structure common to the apparently rarefied world of Hegelian conceptual logic and to the supposedly common sensical world of economic science Demonstrating this is a considerable achievement and it allows us to consider precisely what is valuable today in Marx's critical commentary on this conceptual structure and on the type of society in which it is manifested Uchida's subject like

Marx's is the force of capital on modern life      Zizek and Media Studies M. Flisfeder, L. Willis, 2014-04-09 Film media and cultural theorists have long appealed to Lacanian theory in order to discern processes of subjectivization representation and ideological interpellation Here the contributors take up a Zizekian approach to studies of cinema and media raising questions about power ideology sexual difference and enjoyment      The Modern Schoolman ,1975
