Americans at War Stephen E. Ambrose, 1997 A Pocket Guide to Korea United States. Department of Defense, 1970 Pachappa Camp Edward T. Chang, 2021-04-14 Through new research and materials, Edward T. Chang proves in Pachappa Camp: The First Koreatown in the United States that Dosan Ahn Chang-ho established the first Koreatown in Riverside, California, in early 1905. Chang reveals the story of Pachappa Camp and its roots in the diasporic Korean community's independence movement efforts for their homeland during the early 1900s and in the lives of the residents long overlooked by historians. Pachappa Camp studies the creation of Pachappa Camp and its place in Korean and Korean American history, placing Korean Americans in Riverside at the forefront of the Korean American community's history.

The Will to Win Bryan R. Gibby, 2012-07-02 The Will to Win focuses on the substantial role of US military advisors to the Republic of Korea Army (ROKA) from 1946 until 1953 in one of America's early attempts at nation building. Gibby describes ROKA's structure, mission, challenges and successes, thereby linking the South Korean army and their US advisors to the traditional narrative of this forgotten war. The work also demonstrates the difficulties inherent in national reconstruction, focusing on barriers in culture and society and the effects of rapid decolonization combined with intense nationalism and the appeal of communism to East Asia following the destruction of the Japanese empire. Key conclusions include the importance of individual advisors, the significance of the prewar advisory effort and the depth of the impact these men had on individual Korean units and in a few cases on the entire South Korean army. The success or failure of South Korean government in the decade following the end of World War II hinged on the loyalty, strength and fighting capability of its army, which in turn relied on its American advisors. Gibby argues that without a proficient ROKA, the 1953 armistice still in effect today would not have been possible. He reexamines the Korean conflict from its beginning in 1945, particularly Korean politics, military operations and armed forces, and demonstrates the crucial role the American military advisory program and personnel played to develop a more competent and reliable Korean army.
