A Companion to Portuguese Literature Thomas Foster Earle, Stephen Parkinson, Cláudia Pazos Alonso, 2013 An essential chronological framework for students of Portuguese literature This companion volume offers an introduction to European Portuguese literature for university level readers It consists of a chronological overview of Portuguese literature from the twelfth century to the present day by some of the most distinguished literary scholars of recent years leading into substantial essays centred on major authors genres or periods and a study of the history of translations It does not attempt an encyclopaedic coverage of Portuguese literature but provides essential chronological and bibliographical information on all major authors and genres with more extensive treatment of key works and literary figures and a particular focus on the modern period It is unashamedly canonical rather than thematic in its examination of central authors and periods without neglecting female writers In this way it provides basic reference materials for students beginning the study of Portuguese literature and for a wider audience looking for general or specific information The editors have made a principled decision to exclude both Brazilian and African literature which demand separate treatment STEPHEN PARKINSON CLAUDIA PAZOS ALONSO and T F EARLE are all members of the Sub Faculty of Portuguese at the University of Oxford CONTRIBUTORS Vanda Anastasio Helena Carvalho Buescu Rip Cohen T F Earle David Frier Lu s Gomes Mariana Gray de Castro Helder Macedo Patricia Odber de Baubeta Hilary Owen Stephen Parkinson Cláudia Pazos Alonso Juliet Perkins Teresa Pinto Coelho Phillip Rothwell Mark Sabine Claire Williams Clive Willis

Dreams of Waking Vincent Barletta, Mark L. Bajus, Cici Malik, 2022-12-22 In this anthology Vincent Barletta Mark L Bajus and Cici Malik treat the Iberian lyric in the late Middle Ages and early modernity as a deeply multilingual transnational genre that needs to break away from the old essentialist ideas about language geography and identity in order to be understood properly More and more scholars and students are recognizing the limitations of single language nationalist and period bound canons and are looking for different ways to approach the study of literature The Iberian Peninsula is an excellent site for this approach where the history and politics of the region along with its creative literature need to be read and studied together with the way the works were composed by poets and eventually consumed by readers With a generous selection of more than one hundred poems from thirty three poets Dreams of Waking is unique in its coverage of the three main languages Catalan Portuguese and Spanish and lyrical styles employed by peninsular poets It contains new translations of canonical poems but also translations of many poems that have never before been edited or translated Brief headnotes provide essential details of the poets lives and a general introduction by the volume editors shows how the poems and languages fruitfully intersect With helpful annotations to the poetry as well as a selected bibliography containing the most important editions and translations from all three of the main Iberian languages this volume will be an indispensable tool for both specialists and students in comparative literature A Gil Vicente Bibliography, 1995-2000 Constantine Christopher Stathatos, 2001 From the Cancioneiro Da Vaticana to the Cancionero General A. D. Deyermond, Barry Taylor, 2007 Secrets of Pinar's Game (2 vols) Roger Boase, 2017-06-06 In Secrets of Pinar's Game Roger Boase is the first to decipher a card game completed in 1496 for Queen Isabel Prince Juan her daughters and her 40 court ladies This game offers readers access to the cultural memory of a group of educated women revealing their knowledge of proverbs poetry and sentimental romance their understanding of the symbolism of birds and trees and many facts ignored in official sources Boase translates all verse into English reassesses the jousting invenciones in the Cancionero general 1511 reinterprets the poetry of Pinar's sister Florencia and identifies Acevedo author of some poems about festivities in Murcia c 1507 He demonstrates that many of Pinar's ladies reappear as prostitutes in the anonymous Carajicomedia two decades later

Poets, Patronage, and Print in Sixteenth-century Portugal Simon Park, 2021 Explores the works and careers of a group of Renaissance Portuguese poets and illuminates the ways in which they conceived of themselves and their practice the systems of patronage within which they worked and the challenges they faced in the pursuit of publication Medieval Spain R. Collins, A. Goodman, 2002-07-30 This volume of essays contains contributions from a very wide range of British American and Spanish scholars Its primary concern is the relationships between the various ethnic cultural regional and religious communities that co existed in the Iberian peninsula in the later Middle Ages Conflicts and mutual interactions between them are here explored in a range of both historical and literary studies to expose something of the rich diversity of the cultural life of later medieval Spain Medieval Iberia E. Michael Gerli, 2013-12-04 As the first comprehensive reference to the vital world of medieval Spain this unique volume focuses on the Iberian kingdoms from the fall of the Roman Empire to the aftermath of the Reconquista The nearly 1 000 signed A Z entries written by renowned specialists in the field encompass topics of key relevance to medieval Iberia including people events works and institutions as well as interdisciplinary coverage of literature language history arts folklore religion and science Also providing in depth discussions of the rich contributions of Muslim and Jewish cultures and offering useful insights into their interactions with Catholic Spain this comprehensive work is an invaluable tool for students scholars and general readers alike For a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample entries and more visit the Medieval Iberia An Encyclopedia website A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula Fernando Cabo Aseguinolaza, Anxo Abuín González, César Domínguez, 2010 A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula is the second comparative history of a new subseries with a regional focus published by the Coordinating Committee of the International Comparative Literature Association As its predecessor for East Central Europe this two volume history distances itself from traditional histories built around periods and movements and explores from a comparative viewpoint a space considered to be a powerful symbol of inter literary relations Both the geographical pertinence and its symbolic condition are obviously discussed when not even contested Written by an international team of researchers who are specialists in the field this history is the first attempt at applying a comparative approach to the plurilingual and multicultural literatures in the Iberian Peninsula The aim of comprehensiveness is abandoned in favor of a diverse and extensive array of key issues for a comparative agenda A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula undermines the primacy claimed for national and linguistic boundaries and provides a geo cultural account of literary inter systems which cannot otherwise be explained

Empire Found Daniel F. Silva, 2022-09-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM Empire Found Racial Identities and Coloniality in Twenty First Century Portuguese Popular Cultures examines how the discourses and narratives of Portuguese imperial exceptionalism and Portuguese racial identity developed during the last centuries of Portuguese settler colonialism continue to inform an array of cultural production and consumption in the four decades since decolonization By examining a range of contemporary popular cultural production literature football musical production and celebrity culture in critical conversation with intellectual production of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Empire Found examines how narratives of Portuguese racial hybridity and indeterminacy operate alongside ongoing structures of coloniality and white supremacy in the realms of cultural production I argue that these implied or overt historical dialogues carried out through cultural production are integral to the very reproduction of the Portuguese nation state apparatus as well as its racial structures and claims to whiteness in the wake of decolonization and marginal integration into the European Union

Portuguese Literature Aubrey Fitz Gerald Bell,1922 The Invenciones of the British Library Cancionero John Gornall,2003 The Perfect Prince Ann Wroe,2007-12-18 In 1491 as Machiavelli advised popes and princes and Leonardo da Vinci astonished the art world a young man boarded a ship in Portugal bound for Ireland He would be greeted upon arrival as the rightful heir to the throne of England The trouble was England already had a king The most intriguing and ambitious pretender in history this elegant young man was celebrated throughout Europe as the prince he claimed to be Richard Duke of York the younger of the Princes in the Tower who were presumed to have been murdered almost a decade earlier Handsome well mannered and charismatic he behaved like the perfect prince and many believed he was one The greatest European rulers of the age among them the emperor Maximilian Ferdinand and Isabella of Spain and Charles VIII of France used him as a diplomatic pawn to their own advantage As such he tormented Henry VII for eight years attempting to invade England three times Eventually defeated and captured he admitted to being Perkin Warbeck the son of a common boatman from Flanders But was this really the truth Ann Wroe a historian and storyteller of the first rank delves into the secret corners of the late medieval world to explore both the elusive nature of identity and the human propensity for deception In uncovering the mystery of Perkin Warbeck Wroe illuminates not only a life but an entire world trembling on the verge of discovery Proceedings of the thirteenth Colloquium Queen Mary and Westfield College (University of London).
